

- 48, 50; of the glaciers, 60; off Cape Hawks, 83; at winter quarters, 126; at the extreme northern point, 310, 311.
- School in winter quarters, 165, 166; last assemblage of, 213.
- Scientific observations in winter quarters, 180.
- Scoresby on the size of the orqual, 21.
- Scoresby Bay, 94.
- Scurvy, 237; premonitory symptoms, 284, 285; dread of, 299; increasing symptoms, 303, 304, 305, 313; decrease of appetite, 314; extreme weakness, 317; outbreak on board the "Alert," 321; true causes of the outbreak, 329, 330; cure of patients, 333, 339, 345; patients convalescent, 365; outbreak in sledge crews of "Discovery," 346.
- Seals basking on the ice, 24, 45; shot by Hans, 354.
- Selection of officers and men for Arctic service, 4.
- Self, James, A.B., H.M.S. "Alert," songs by, 216.
- Shells, marine, found above sea-level, 116.
- Shift-Rudder Bay, 114.
- Shirley, John, stoker, H.M.S. "Alert," songs by, 168; attacked by scurvy, 282; on the sledge, 284.
- Shooting parties in summer, 338 to 340.
- Sick. (See Scurvy.)
- Simpson, Thos., H.M.S. "Alert," in sledge crew, northern division, attacked by scurvy, 306.
- Skating, 77, 110.
- Sky, beauty of, 83. (See Meteor, Sun.)
- Sledges, description of, 231 (n.); sails for, 231 (n.); weight, 233; boats on, 242 (n.); required for northern division, 244; dog sledge sent to "Discovery," 247; departure of sledges in the spring, 257, 258; sledge standards, 258; art of packing, 277; high-runner sledges the best, 281; (See Dogs, Marco Polo, Hercules, Victoria, Bloodhound, Bulldog, Alexandra, Challenger, Poppie, Clements Markham.)
- Sledge crews, exercise of, 227.
- Sledging, first lessons in 58; with dogs, 79, 80, 81, 128; first experiences, 129; severe work, 133; details of, 137; shore-going notions of, 138; realities, 139; lecture on, by Captain Nares, 215; grand palaeocrystic chorus, 216; preparations for, during the winter, 230; equipments superintended by Sir Leopold M'Clintock, 231; weights, 233; auxiliaries and depôts, 234; tents, 235; cooking apparatus, 235; contents of knapsack and storebag, 237; scale of provisions, 237; medical stores, 238 (n.); clothing, 239, 240; programme of sledging operations, 241; the first encampment, 260; intense cold, 259, 262; arrival at autumn depôt, 263; daily routine, 264 to 270; roadmaking, 273, 275, 276; increasing difficulties, 304; method of advancing, 295, 304, 306, 313; most northern encampment, 307; extreme northern point, 309 to 311; return journey of northern division begun, 312; northern division reaches land, 321; return of northern division, 327; western division, 331, 332; eastern division, 350. (See Autumn, Hummocks, Temperature, Foot-gear, Cook.)
- Sleeping-bags, 139, 235, 240; weight of, 233; frozen hard, 280, 283, 287.
- Smith, Mr. Krarup, Inspector of North Greenland, his hospitality, 26, 29, 363.
- Smith Sound, 47, 49, 69.
- Snow, crimson, 48; heavy falls in Smith Sound, 71, 73, 95; in Robeson Channel, 111, 119, 121; heavy falls during autumn travelling, 147; buildings with, 152, 153, 154; temperature at different depths, 162; heavy drifts during