

PROEM

THIS Guide, prepared primarily for the use of visitors, has been made as accurate and complete as possible.

The Index.—By making full use of the index, the visitor may save much time, as locations are accurately described in the text.

The Map.—A new map of Halifax has been provided, to which references are made in the text while describing locations. Visitors may very quickly find a place by following directions. For instance, suppose the reference is Map 5, E. Find E on the right hand side and 5 above, and follow the tracing lines from each inward until they meet; the location will be clearly indicated.

Halifax Board of Trade.—The offices of the Halifax Board of Trade are at 231 Hollis Street. The Secretary will gladly furnish booklets and information to visitors regarding Halifax and the Province of Nova Scotia.
