LIQUOR SHOP LICENSE

Commissioner Lamb Opposed the Transfer-Women as Customers of Yonge-St. Liquor Shops.

A transfer of the license of the liquor store of A. C. Davis to J. H. Wallace was approved yesterday by the liceuse commissioners, tho there was some rather critical comment. Inspector Johnston recommended the transfer, but to Commissioner Lamb Mr. Wal-sold no draught stuff at all.

"I am of the same opinion as Commissioner Lamb," said Chairman Coatsworth. "We must save the women. Why should they be allowed to buy liquor when they are prohibited from smoking on the street?"
"Well," said Mr. Lamb, "I don't

"Well," said Mr. Lamb, "I don't think it is the proper thing for a young man of your age, especially a ball player, to buy a shop license. My advice to you is not to go into the business, and I will vote against the transfer."

But Mr. Wallace promised that he would try and discourage the trade of the women, and the majority of the board decided to give him a chance. He pays $15,000 for the license, is 31 years of age, and has been a profesyears of age, and has been a professional ball player in the States, althounly away from Toronto seven years.

Permission was given to Alfred W. Hinds to advertise the transfer of li-cense and business of the Hotel Vendome, Queen-street, near Seaton-street, now owned by W. B. Srigley, to the Volunteer Hotel. Chief Inspector Johnston announces that notices be served on the caretakers of eight synagogues in Toronto, informing them that liquor on the pre-mises will not in future be allowed.

BUYING REPRESENTS SOBER JUDGMENT.

World Office Thursday Evening, Nov. 24.

Mexican and South American news this morning acted as a cold douche on local speculation. The mutiny at Rio was the most disturbing incident, and it was believed to-day that the heavy selling of Rio shares on Tuesday was due to advance information. Considering the public attitude in regard to the market, price recessions were not serious in the issues thought to be susceptible to pressure. With New York closed, financial circles were quiet to-day, and any buying was thought to represent the result of sober judgment. Only one stock is considered to offer any speculative turns at present, and floor traders are endeavoring to monopolize these,

Disturbances in Mexico and South America had some influence on local speculation to-day, but it could not be said that this created any real nervous feeling. cond Appeal on Naval Question in Quebec is Possible, Montreal Politicians Say.

ONTREAL, Nov. 24.—(Special.)is now stated that the pro-navy onstration in St. John on Saturindicates that another test is to nade in this province as to public nion on the popularity of the ministerial measure, which brought such signal disaster to the administration in Drummond and Arthabaska.

The story goes in political circles that Recorder Dupuis will be retired on account of ill-health, and that Joe Demers, M.P., for St. John and Eberville, will be appointed in his place, and that one more county will be asked in the very near future to pronounce itself upon the wisdom of the ministerial policy, the gathering in St. John on Saturday being but the prelude of the campaign.

Bourassa Would Be Away. The government supporters claim that Mr. Bourassa will be absent, and that, without his oratory, the veerdict of Drummond and Arthabaska cannot

It is also said that other judicial apcointments may be made in the near future, altho the temper of the electorate just now will prevent members of parliament in any great number from donning the ermine before the general election, but it is said that C. A. Wilson, M.P., for Laval, may be appointed to the position held by the late Judge Piche, and that the government candidate in Laval will be Mr. David, who delivered such a very fine speech the 100 @ 80% delivered such a very fine speech the 5 @ 80% night of the Laurier demonstration in the Monument National.

Increase Number of Judges. The reorganization of the court is, however, near at hand, and the number of judges will be brought up to six, five of whom will get $5000, and the chief justice $6000 per annum. Judge Lebeuf will, it is said, accept the Intercolonial Railway commissionership, while Robert Taschereau will be appointed to the chief justiceship, with Messrs. Man is held by the Chippewa Indians as a sacred monument to the great Stories are told generation after generation that this great rock was at one time the throne of the Great Spirit. Here he sat and ruled the people, the animals of the forest around and the fishes of the waters of this lake. As time went by this rock was gradually worn away and the Great Spirit hodder. worn away and the Great Spirit had to go to a new home.

Every summer the Indians hold dances near the place where the rock stands. This they do to celebrate the time when the Manitou took his leave. The bring food and tobacco and place them on the rock so if the Great Spirit does not get enough to eat in the other world, he comes down and gets the food that is placed by his former sub-

No white man is allowed to catch fish in this lake, for the fish were put there by the Great Spirit for the Indians only. The rock floats about, being pushed by the waves, hence the name, "Crawling Stone Lake."

Unhappy Title.
Tess-Mad at him? Why, he wrote ovely poem to her.

Jess-Yes, but she never read it. When she saw the title of it she tore the whole thing up in a fit of anger. You see, he called it "Lines on Mabel"s Face."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Literary Accuracy.

"You write of your hero as stealing home in the darkness," said the editor. "Yes," replied the author.

"Well, you ought to know better than that. He couldn't steal home in the dark. If it was dark enough to be worth noticing, the game would have been called."—Washington Star.
