WOMEN say they can "stand more" than men, and it must be true or they wouldn't stand for ironing in the old way. The back-breaking trudge from stove to board—the lift-lift-lift of the heavy irons—the heat from the range—why, it would put the average office man down and out. But why keep it up any longer—even though you can stand it—after a fashion?

Let us send you a "Gladiron" on free trial for thirty days

You will never go back to the drudgery of old-fashioned methods once you have tried for yourself the new and better electrical way. Ironing day will come without worry, and go without leaving fatigue.

You will rather enjoy making things look spick-and-span, the way they should be, and there won't be any backache to spoil the satisfaction.

Just 'phone the "Hydro," Adelaide 2121, and say, "Send me an Winnipeg Wanderers.

The Winnipeg Wanderers will arrive in Guelph tomorrow and will make the Walker House their headquarters. Accustomed to play on matting pitches, because the turf is rather poor in Winnipeg, they will obtain good practice in readiness for their important championship match against Toronto on Sept. 2 and 3, by playing Rosedale on Thursday next. St. Albans on Friday, and probably Hamilton on Saturday, as the Hamilton ground is required for sports.

ST. ALBANS TIE WITH TORONTO

City Cricket Game Starts Late, Owing to Rain.—Garretts Run Up Score on Old Country C.C.—League Results.

St. Albans drew with Toronto in the league game on Saturday afternoon, played at St. Albans' grounds. In consequence of the heavy rain the game did not commence until 3.30, when Toronto went to bat first, on a soft wicket. Runs came very slowly and at 3.50 Toronto declared with 8 wickets down for 125 runs, of which Henderson contributed 40 and Dr. Wright 20. St. Albans then went to bat in a falling light and when time was called had 8 wickets down for 56 runs, having put up a stubborn defence in a light so bad at times that the ball could hardly be seen by either batsman or fielder. J. Hall played a most creditable innings of 34 and Bowe contributed 10 by hard hitting. Henderson's (of Toronto) score contained nine 4's. Colborne of St. Albans took 5 wickets for 41 runs and Spence 2 for 15. For Toronto Davidson took 3 wickets for 21, Reade 3 for 15, and Henderson 2 for 12 runs. Score: Toronto..... 125

St. Albans Defeat St. Barnabas.
The Robert Simpson C.C. defeated St. Barnabas C.C. Saturday afternoon on the latter's ground at Riverside Park. For the winners S. Y. Williams played another great innings for the big score team, making 45 (not out). Considering the wet pitch, this was a superb performance. F. Saxton had made 15 when he was beaten by a beauty from Brooks. L. H. Knight, was out to a great catch by Clegg off Roberts' bowling. W. C. Greene was instrumental in disposing of him, batsman, he taking seven wickets for 25 runs and making two fine catches. Geo. Brown sent down 10 overs, five of which were maidens, and got three wickets for 15 runs. Simpson and Clegg were the only pair to reach double figures. The fielding of St. Barnabas was excellent. The winning of the match gives Simpson the championship of their section of the City League. Scores:—
