In an amusing scene, the doctor diagnoses the case as one of despairing love. Mr. Hayden makes a thoroly amusing muff out of the sheepish young lover. The boomerang which the doctor casts is a regiment which, while it secures the recovery of his patient, becomes a potent factor in the treatment of his own case. The counterplot is in geniously worked out, and a great deal of amusement results from the stolid, conscientious young lover and his enamorata, Grace Tyler (Leonara Phelps), and their attacks of jealousy and despair.

The audience enjoyed the play hugely, and roared with laughter over the medical camouflage which pervades the first act. The piece was charmingly staged, and the Princess or chestra furnished delightful magic.
