NOT PUBLIC POLICY TO STOP HOUSING

Mayor Makes Affidavit That Attempts at Interference Are Locally Inspired.

In connection with the motions to quash the Toronto housing bylaw and to restrain the commission from going on with its work, Mayor Church has filed an affidavit, in the course of which he says: "The premier and his cabinet assented to the request of the city of Toronto, and a bill will be passed at the next sitting of the legislature, which will fully validate, if such is not now valid, the bylaw, the subject of these proceedings. In the meantime, as appears by the bylaw, five prominent citizens of Toronto have been appointed as members of the Toronto Housing Commission, have organized certain works, have undertaken the expenditure of certain moneys under the said bylaw, and have actually entered upon the acquiring of lands and building operations, and have spent part of such moneys. I fully believe that the practically unanimous sentiment of the ratepayers of the city of Toronto is in favor of the creation of the Toronto Housing Commission and the completion of its work in the shortest space of time possible."

A Local Concern. "I fully believe that the present proceedings are inspired, not by any feeling of public policy, but solely to prevent the building of houses by the Toronto Housing Commission on a certain piece of land on the south side of Lincoln avenue, on both sides of Web avenue in the city of Toronto, known as the Webb estate, and to force the city of Toronto to acquire such property for a public park, although the said property is within one-half mile of High Park, the largest park in the city of Toronto."

"Should the bylaw in question be passed this extremely necessary public work would be stopped and the services of the gentlemen named, who have unselfishly and from a sense of public duty taken up the work he lost to the city. The scarcity of houses in Toronto would grow worse. For various reasons and notably because of the return of many soldiers from overseas the question of house accommodation has become very acute, and is daily growing more so."

RECEPTION HOSPITAL NOT YET PLANNED

City Architect Pearce has been ordered to prepare plans and specifications for a new city reception hospital. The cost of the building or where it will be located, has not yet become known.

It appears that W. W. Dunlop, provincial inspector of prisons and asylums, is recommending that a hospital to accommodate sixty patients be erected, with a staff of 25 members. The cost is estimated at $1400 a bed. "According to the statutes," Mr. Dunlop says, "each city of over 100,000 should have a reception hospital built at its own cost, but afterwards maintained by the province."

TREAT NORTH TORONTO SAME AS OTHER PARTS

Mayor Church did not consider yesterday the time to say much regarding the decision of North Toronto ratepayers to take steps to break away from the city unless the transportation problem was solved. He contented himself by saying: "The board of control is prepared to meet them at any time and in the same manner that we would meet representatives of any other part of Toronto, and we will give them just as fair treatment."

FALSE PRETENCES.

William Baldoock, convicted some time ago on a charge of false pretences, was yesterday sentenced to one year, less one day, by Judge Morson. A charge of obtaining $40 from the Ocean Accident Insurance Company, as well as several others, amounting to a large sum of money, stood against him.

MUST OPEN COUNCIL RATIFY AGREEMENT?

Sam McBride Says Metropolitan Purchase Needs Full Sanction.

It is probable that the Hydro radial agreement will come before the city council prior to being signed by the mayor. While it has been maintained that this is legally necessary, it is stated, on the other hand, that such authority is not required. The people have already supported the bylaw and it has been confirmed by legislation. The submission to council, it is said, would be merely a matter of policy, in order to get a fresh declaration for the Hydro radials.

COULD GO AHEAD.

Controller Sam McBride, expressing his views on transportation matters and the question of signing the Hydro radial agreement, remarked: "Just why there was such a rush to call a meeting of the board to sign the agreement I can't understand. Furthermore, the resolution plainly stated that the agreement be signed in 'open council' and they are not going to put the thing across as far as I am concerned. The mayor is not the 'open council'."

"There isn't a chance of acquiring the Metropolitan by September 1, if the agreement is signed and Sir Adam Beck has anything to do with it. Without the agreement signed, we could go ahead and buy the road and the deal might be completed by September."

CORSICAN TROOPS COMPLAIN

Mayor Church stated yesterday that he had received many complaints from the men who returned on the Corsican and the Tunisian. He is taking the matter up with the authorities.

CUCUMBER DUEL REACHES A CLIMAX

Replying to a statement by a Balmby Beach resident that he had cut cucumbers on July 11, E. Collis, gardener to Col. P. L. Mason at Shanty Bay, says he cut a cucumber on June 24 and field peas on July 1. Balmby Beach retaliates by stating that the latter date is very late for peas, he having at a dish of them (Notes Examiner) on June 23 and considered it a backward crop at that time. Balmby Beach also wants to know if Mr. Collis' cucumber was grown in the open ground from seed and with no protection afforded, as were those (several) grown by him. If so, he gives Mr. Collis best as he has produced a cucumber in less than six weeks from earliest planting date, certainly a record.

PERMITS GRANTED FOR BIG BUILDINGS

The latest batch of city permits applied for shows offices and industrial buildings valued at $310,000 and $60,000 worth of dwellings. The leading applications are Gunn's Ltd., cold storage and office building, $225,000; McGregor & McIntyre, office building, 1139 Shaw street, $50,000; Maclean Publishing Co., factory, Edward street and Centre avenue, $30,000. One theatre, near Dundas and Shuter, valued at $7000 is on the list.

RED LETTER DAY IN CITY'S HISTORY

The coming visit of the Prince of Wales will be discussed by Mayor Church and the Exhibition authorities with Sir William Hearst today. The mayor remarked, "we intend to make elaborate preparations for the reception. It will be a red-letter day in the city's history and I hope all the citizens of Toronto will realize that and assist in making it one long to be remembered."

HERO OF GREAT WAR NEVER WENT OVERSEAS

Dan McIntyre, a discharged soldier in the R.A.F., was fined $50 and costs yesterday morning in police court for wearing the Mons ribbon and the distinguished conduct medal. McIntyre had never been overseas and where he got the war decorations is a mystery to the military police.

SUPPORT FOR LIBERTY LEAGUE.

Secretary T. L. Carruthers of the Citizens' Liberty League desires to acknowledge the receipt of a large number of letters from his prohibition friends, which he will reply to personally in rotation, with the exception of those which are without name and address. "In the meantime, he wishes to assure these friends and the public generally that the league is out for a bigger and better Canada, and for a higher standard of life and social conditions, and above all, the league stands for temperance in all things."

A NARROW ESCAPE.

William Cameron of Brantford escaped injury at one o'clock yesterday afternoon when a Bloor car collided with his automobile at the corner of Robert and Bloor streets. Mr. Cameron was crossing Bloor street to go north on Walmer road, and had just slowed down his car to allow an east bound car to pass. His car was struck by a west bound car and the front of the motor car was badly damaged.

MOTOR THIEF SENTENCED.

William Searf, aged 18 years, was sentenced to the jail farm for four months by Judge Morson yesterday, on a charge of attempting to steal a motor car. "Stealing motor cars or attempting to steal them must be stopped," said the judge, as he passed sentence.

AIDED ESCAPE.

For aiding and abetting a prisoner to escape from jail, John C. Bassett was yesterday sentenced by Judge Morson to 60 days at the jail farm.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES GET PARTIAL HOLIDAY

The government of Canada has proclaimed Peace Day, July 19, 1919, as a public holiday, and in order to admit of as many members of the post-office staff as possible participating in the national thanksgiving for victory and peace, the general postoffice and postal stations in Toronto will be closed except between hours of 8 a.m. and 10 a.m., during which period postage stamps will be sold, and general delivery and registration wickets will be open. There will be no delivery by lettercarrier. Outgoing mails due for despatch after 12 noon on that date will be closed at that hour.

Two collections only will be made from the street letter boxes, commencing at 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Money order, savings bank and postal note wickets will be closed.

ON SERIOUS CHARGE.

On a serious charge Leo Hay, a Chinaman, was fined $100 and costs in police court yesterday morning and sentenced also to serve six months at Burwash. Lee Chung, arrested with Hay, was fined $30 and costs.

MOUNT PLEASANT PLANS

Commissioner Harris yesterday stated that, in compliance with the decision of the board of control regarding Mount Pleasant street car line, instructions had been given by him for the preparation of plans for submission to the Ontario railway board.

YOUTH SAVED HIM.

Youth intervened favorably in behalf of Ronald McKenzie, when he appeared before Judge Morson in the criminal court yesterday, and he was allowed to go on suspended sentence. McKenzie broke into the Manhattan Shoe Store and was arrested in the cellar by P. C. Greenlee. Nothing was taken. "I don't want to make the boy a criminal," remarked the judge in passing sentence.

WOMAN ARRESTED ON BETTING CHARGE

Police Claim Mrs. B. Harris Did Bookmaker's Business With New York.

Breaking down a heavily barricaded door of an apartment over a store at 669 West Queen street, last evening, Morality Officers Kerr and Massey entered and placed Mrs. B. Harris under arrest, charged with keeping a common betting house. Mrs. Harris is alleged by the police to have been taking large wagers on horse races run in New York.

When Kerr and Massey found the prisoner, they allege she was destroying betting slips. They claim to have been successful in recovering the slips, which they say contained bets ranging from $5 to $40, on a number of horses scheduled to race yesterday. The majority of the bets were taken over the telephone, and the gamblers in place of giving their names when placing wagers would give a number. Kerr and Massey have had the house under surveillance for several days, and they asserted that they never saw anyone go into the apartment, which is one on the third floor over a store. To get to the stairs leading to the third floor, it is necessary to go thru the store. When the police searched the place they claim there was a separate bell, which was used to warn the woman in case the police entered.

TOO EAGER PICKETING.

Fannie Weishulme, a striking garment worker, was allowed to go on remanded sentence when she was charged yesterday morning in police court with being disorderly. She was alleged to have taken hold of the arm of one of the girls going to work in a factory where a strike is going on. Magistrate Cohen stated that in future heavy fines would be imposed for such offences.
