As Bulldogs Are Judged At the Exhibition Show

Sporting Editor World: Having been a follower of the bulldog for over 15 years, I naturally took a keen interest in the judging of the breed at the Canadian National Exhibition Show.

The ancient dog lovers are not so much interested in the judging of the breed as the conventional form, like this: "The judge went over the exhibits with care and made a dispatch before handing out the ribbons."

While the fanciers thoroughly enjoyed the dog show, as an unbiased spectator and non-competitor, I wish to confirm the latter part of the above statement.

TIGERS VICTORS IN OVERTIME CONTEST

Defeat Leading White Sox in Fourteen Innings—More Free Hitting.

At Detroit.—(American)—Flagstead's double to deep left field scored Cobb from second with the winning run in the sixteenth inning yesterday. Detroit winning the third game with Chicago, 4 to 3. It was a pitchers' battle between Elmer and Kerr, with the former having a good lead until the sixth, when three of the Tigers' four errors allowed the Sox to tie it up. Score: Detroit, 4; Chicago, 3.

At Boston.—Boston-New York game postponed.

At Philadelphia.—Witt's triple with two on bases in the seventh, won for the Athletics yesterday's opening game of the series with Washington, 4 to 2. Score: Athletics, 4; Washington, 2.

At St. Louis.—St. Louis' ninth-inning rally fell short under Caldwell's mastery yesterday. Cleveland, 3 to 2. The visitors made good use of the sacrifice hit, and hit Shocker opportunely. Slater's home run, scored the winning run ahead of him, in the first, was the twenty-second home run in the last sixteen games.

RIE-BALL TRUTH

Mr. Jones keeps pigeons, and Mr. Brown, next door, tries to keep pigeons. Mr. Brown is constantly losing birds, while Mr. Jones is as constantly finding them. The other morning Mr. Brown, with a smile and step, approached the youthful son and heir of Mr. Jones.

"Willie, nodde."

Hamilton's one blue bird with same white feathers in its wing.

"Dunno," responded Willie, pocketing the bird.

"You can't tell their color when they're in a pie!"
