DYE SIGNS CONTRACT WITH ST. PATRICKS

Takes Plunge Into Pro. Ranks—Farlow Joins Argonauts—Gossip.

The St. Patrick's pro club got down to work yesterday with only five men taking in the first workout. Manager Moose Heffernan, Corbett Dennyman, Mitchell, a goalie, who played for Lockhart before he went overseas, and Portlock, the goalie with the 22nd Battalion pro team, were the men. Mitchell made a very favorable impression.

Cully Wilson and Gordon Keats are expected in today, and Harry Cameron has been wired transportation and should be on the job today. Cameron will likely be traded but the local club will hold him until they line up another defence man. Rickey, who was a star with Seattle in the St. Pat. game, was not enough. The ante was postponed, an answer is expected from him today.

Babe Dye signed with the club yesterday, and will be out to practice today. Ken Randall is expected to put his name to a contract today, and Mickey Roach is expected to let the club know if his terms are satisfactory before Wednesday.

Mack McKenzie, who played such good hockey with St. Michaels a few seasons ago, was out with Aure Lee last night. The trip to Pittsburgh was enjoyed by all hands, and they were accorded excellent treatment. They are keen to go back.

Harold Farlow, who was with Veterans last year, joined the Argonauts last night. He may be used against Dents on Wednesday.

Bill Maraden promised the F.A.A. to send some Ontario teams when he was in Pittsburgh. Dents or Kitchener will go down on Dec. 27. Argonauts may trip along later.

It looks like hockey every afternoon and evening at the new rink. The officials were trying to work out a schedule to sandwich 47 games into 41 playing days yesterday.

A Kingston dispatch says: Captain James Sutherland arrived home from overseas Monday, and received many warm welcomes. He is ex-president of the O.H.A. and known as "the father of hockey" here.

Nick Bawf, appointed coach for the Queens Hockey Club, arrived Monday in Kingston, and goes to work with the team today.

Varsity's surprisingly good showing against the strong Dents on Saturday night changed the blue and white to the tooth-pullers are not so invincible as was at first thought. The Dents will again defend the title on Monday night, and this time it will be Argonauts who will attempt to lower their colors.

Argonauts have been out of hockey for four years owing to war service of their members, and they should be accorded a great welcome. The new schoolers are not claiming the Allan Cup, but they have a nicely balanced team that should make the Dents, who last year with St. Pat's, is between the posts and he is one of the best in Toronto. The Dents will not let the new, husky defense that should stop the slippery Dents from getting inside, in Frank Knight and Joe Bennett. Knight was a star with Argos in 1915, and Bennett made a great name for himself with Veterans last year.

Jack McCamus, Hicks, Sullivan and Knudsen are the forwards, and with Harold Farlow as a member of the double blue they will have a formidable line. They have been drilled in hard, useful back-checking and the fans may be in for another surprise tomorrow night.

Aure Lee will take on the crack Toronto Cane Club juniors on Thursday night, in the S.P.A. series. Aure Lee's defeat of Varsity last week was a big surprise and they promise to develop into a high-class outfit. It remains to be seen if they can team up.

The Toronto Hockey League presented a good case at the city hall yesterday, but they are being said some good purpose by the correspondence sent to the papers afterwards by one of their members. The league is now in the hands of the better for the T.H.L. The result of the decision will be that the league will meet the city hall committee for a satisfactory allocation of the cushions.

WOODSTOCK TEAMS LOOK GOOD TO RAILROADS

Woodstock, Dec. 15.—On very fast ice second workout of the season today. There was a full turnout and all the old veterans were out in force. Tonight's practice was out in force, bringing to the hearts of the many fans who crowded the arena to see the boys work out. The players looked good, and there is reason to believe Woodstock will have two snappy teams this winter. The forward line, especially should be a strong aggression. The players over last night, a rough forecast of the probable line-up of the intermediates showed Dunkin in goal, Hagerman and Sanderson, two of the local speed merchants, and King, Aure Lee's shining light of last year, and Barker, who has been with the team, completing the forward line. The defense line, consisting of Cullen, Clark, Reid and others, is like to look very fast and some good rough work is expected of them. Tonight's practice particularly pleased Coach Barker and Trainer Simpson. The schedule for the two districts will be drawn up here Tuesday.

LEVINSKY AND MADDEN.

All the preliminaries with one exception have been arranged for the United Veterans' league boxing show, on New Year's day afternoon at the Arena. Neger and Irish Kennedy, who has won the ten round semi-final, will meet Gallagher, the Hamilton soldier veteran, with consummate ease, is slated to take on Curly Whishire for six rounds in one of the other bouts. Levinsky and Madden, the headliner in the active division, are expected to New York advice, for their meeting here.

BOUITS AT DETROIT.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 15.—In the final events of the Elks boxing show tonight, Pete Choke, Detroit's Polish champion, fought Jack Perry of Philadelphia in the bout of dreams in the eighth of what was scheduled to have been a ten round fight.

It took less than seven rounds of aggressive milling on the part of Mitchell of Chatter, Penna., to convince the referee of Choke's boxing show, on New Year's day afternoon at the Arena. Neger and Irish Kennedy, who has won the ten round semi-final, will meet Gallagher, the Hamilton soldier veteran, with consummate ease, is slated to take on Curly Whishire for six rounds in one of the other bouts. Levinsky and Madden, the headliner in the active division, are expected to New York advice, for their meeting here.

WILDE V. TREMAINE.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 15.—Negotiations for a ten-round bout between Jimmy Wilde, lightweight champion of England, and Carl Tremaire, Cleveland champion, Ohio, on New Year's Day, were concluded between Matt Hinkel, Cleveland promoter, and D. Hughes, representing Wilde, late tonight. Tremaine is to weigh 116 pounds, ringside.

BOUITS AT DETROIT.

GRAY OF VARSITY WON THREE BOUTS

On Final Night and Looked Like Best Boy in the Tournament.

Eighteen bouts were decided at the city amateur tournament finals at Massey Hall last night, and a better night's sport has seldom been provided in Toronto. Massey Hall was packed to the rafters, and the excitement was heard from later, but the best of the new boys was Gray of Varsity who won three bouts in a commanding manner.

100-lb. youngster won the game cock cup presented by E. Wills. The club shield was won by Riversides with a score of 33 points to Varsity's 27, with the remainder of the clubs away in the rear.

T. Duffy, Riversides, won the 100-lb. championship from P. Field, the little Harcourt boy, after a great battle. Field was much smaller than Duffy, but took a beating so heavy that he easily won the game cock cup.

N. Smith, Classics, and Lew Stock of Darcy C. C. were the contenders in the 108-lb. class, but neither was of championship class, but it took an extra round to get the decision.

In the 115-lb. class, Goodman of the University stopped Jack Dempsey of Harcourt, in the first round. Dempsey, certainly, H.M.A.C., won the decision, but he was under wraps for the Franchman in the third round, he took a beating from Goodman, who was a hard hitter, but put up a fierce battle and the 115-lb. bout was a close one.

Gray of Varsity had a busy time in the 125-lb. class. He stopped Woods of Broadway, the 145-lb. class, and then took on W. Newton and beat him decisively, and in the final stopped Goyne, McCaskel, unattached, in the semi-finals.

C. Newton of the Riversides took the 135-lb. championship by stopping P. Field, a climber, by stopping P. Field, a climber, in the semi-final, getting a decision over Jack Dempsey, who was a hard hitter, in one round, and Partridge of Riversides, in the third round.

Harry Freeman, Riversides, and Fern Bull, Classics, put up a great battle in the 145-lb. class, but Freeman was too clever and won easily.

The semi-final, in class Jack Pierce won over Jack Dempsey, who was a hard hitter, in one round, and Partridge of Riversides, in the third round.

CLOTHIERS TO ALL MANKIND

COULD you ask for any coat more comfortable and warm, cold-defying and seasonable than these splendid O'Brien cloth great-coats? Famous the world over. You must not put them in the class of the usual overcoat, for they are not. They are the exception in overcoats. As much ahead of the customary overcoat as the electric light over the tallow dip. Notable for their warmth without weight. When you come in, just slip into one of them and judge for yourself.
