Christmas Housefurnishing Club Points to Consider To-Night in the Council of the Fireside.

Let us summon a household council in the home of every reader of this paper to-night. Let us offer for serious family consideration the following timely and important questions.

How much money do you expect to spend for Christmas? What policy do you intend to adopt—"useful" gifts or "fancy" presents?

Do the two necessities for expense—Christmas presents and housefurnishing—threaten to inconvenience you financially or restrict your plans from full materialization in either one of the two directions—or both?

We ask you to consider these questions now. We are not invading the privacy of your councils even by suggestion. We have a reason for asking; we want you to consider our Housefurnishing Club to-night also.

We will open credit accounts with 1000 responsible people who agree to take $25.00 worth of housefurnishings (or more) at cash prices, from the carpet, curtain, furniture or picture departments before December 20.
