exhibits the carcase of a two-year-o ifer of quality unsurpassed, 850 lbs dressed weight, and which cost in the neighborhood of $100. This animal was purchased from Mr. Torbet, and is certainty an object lesson to farmers, that it still pays to rake the right kind.

Mr. Ingham makes an excellent display of all kinds of meats and poultry, showing that he is determined to keep up the reputation of a long established and growing trade.

Brown Bros,' Fine Showing.

In Stall No. 2 Brown Bros, still carry on a prosperous trade that was established by their father over 35 years ago. Their amition leads them to be anxious to be second to none in Canada. The beet, mutton, is and poultry supplied by this firm has become a household word in fining of the best familles and some of the leading restaurants of Toronto. Their showing is one of the finest to be seen, and includes 76 quarters of prime beef, 50 Southdown lambs, 5 choice yeal calves, 400 turkeys, 20 airs of ducks, and 12 of the finest marble white sucking pigs for roasting purposes that one could wish to see. The Nasmith Company, Leader Restaurant and other well-known places have already given Brown Bros. large Xmas orders.

This firm reports business unusually brisk this season, and altho ample preparations have been made they do not expect to have any of their Xmas stock left over after Monday night.

Mr. A. Farr, in Stall No. 5, is known

Mr. Farr's Splendid Stock.

Mr. A. Farr, in Stall No. 5, is known
"far" and wide for the excellence of the meats and poultry which he provides from year to year for his many customers. Mr.
Farr has a good show of Xmas steers such helfors and a fine assortment of fowl of all finds, and especially a fine display of limbs.

Griffiths' Good Supply.

Mr. A. Griffiths, who occupies Stall No. 8, always keeps on hand a good general supply of all kinds of meats. His Xmas supply of beef, lamb and fowl is of the best quality, and he reports business good at this festive season. estive season.
Game at Adams & Jones Messrs. Adams & Jones, who occup Stalls Nos. 17 and 19, and also conduct oranch business at 749 East Queen-street have an excellent lot of beef, mutton an fowl of all kinds of prime quality. Cards with the names of prominent citizens grace the many joints of beef, as well as the poultry, showing the immense trade they are doing. Their showing is made attractive by the display of Pinglish phensan: and hares, which were seat to them direct from the estate of the Marquis of Bute, in Bedford, England. But these are not for sale, being out of season. This firm reperts a large trade and business good.

Mallon Has a Great Display.

M. P. Mallon, son of John Mallon of the well-known firm of that name, occupying Stalls, Nos. 26 and 28, makes a specialty of all kinds of the best of cured meats. Besides these, however, he exhibits a very excellent lot of three prize helfers and ten Southdown lambs and all kinds of poultry. Mr. Mallon, tho not long in business for himself, is doing a large and growing trade with many of the best families and restaurants of the city, including T. Eaton & Co.

Prize Veal at Moxon's. Prize Veal at Moxon's.

John Moxon, No. 27, exhibits the carcases of a pair of twin calves six months old, which weigh 400 lbs. each, dressed. They were purchased from R. G. Freeman of Essex County, Ontario. Mr. Moxon prides himself on his grand exhibit of fine, seasonable meats, including 26 prime cattle, 30 lambs, a large number of turkeys and other fowl.

J. J. Walsh Hess Prize Cattle

J. J. Walsh Has Prize Cattle. J. J. Walsh 'Has Prize Cattle.

J. J. Walsh, wholesale and retail dealer, who is still at his old stand, has, without doubt, one of the targest and best exhibits of Xmas meats offered to the public this season. The sides of ten prize steers, purchased at the late Provincial Fat Stock Show at Guelph, decorate the front of the stall. Forty Southdown lambs, 200 turkeys, and all kinds of game and poultry, all artistically arranged, and covering every inch of space in the large premises occupied by Mr. Walsh, make a display worthy to behold.

hold. Many fancy cards, bearing the names of prominent citizens and proprietors of leading hotels, decorate a large number of the choicest joints. Amongst these may be seen the English Chop House, Elliott House, E. B. Clancy, Phil Davey of the Tremont House, and Harry Morgan of the Merchants Restaurant. Mr. Walsh reports a rushing trade.

A ROMANCE AND A PENSION.

Geo, Carpenter Died and His Wife Drew a Pension-Now Another Geo. Carpenter Turns Up. Watertown, N.Y., Dec. 21.-A peculiar pension case has been brought to the attention of the Pension Department by At torney F. N. Fitch of this city. During the war of the rebellion, George Carpenter, sor war of the rebellion, George Carpenter, son of a physician, at Massena, N.Y., became enamored with a young woman, but his parents opposed their marriage. He went to sea and was absent several years. Upon his return he married the woman. He claimed to his wife that he had been in the army, but did not draw a pension. He drifted around the country, flushly dying in a smallpox hospital in St. Louis in 1872. Mrs. Carpenter applied for a pension. She was granted one, it being believed that her husband was George Carpenter, who served in a Vermont regiment, it has now been discovered that the George W. Carpenter, whose pension Mrs. Carpenter, whose pension Mrs. Carpenter, whose pension Mrs. Carpenter, whose pension Mrs. Carpenter, w. Carpenter, whose pension Mrs. Carpeter drew for several years, served in Co. of the 14th Maine Infantry. The Geor W. Carpenter of the Vermont Regime has now made application for a pensihmself.

CASWELL OFF TO PHILADELPHIA. Carbon Co. People Have to Be Interviewed Again-Food for Next Year's Council. It was supposed that the Board of Con trol would have met to-day; but it appears the Board of Control that a private effor should first be put forth to put the Carbon Light Company's contract thru. To this end Mr. Caswell was instructed to proceed to Philadelphia to interview the Carbon Company people. Mr. Caswell left the city on Thursday evening for Ottawa, and from thence will proceed to the Quaker City. There is a general feeling in the City Hall that the Board of Control is soling far out of its way in authorizing the succession of expeditions to Philadelphia. The Mayor has hardly returned when Mr. Caswell is sent over the ground again. The aldermen seen around the hall yesterday seemed to think that the only course open to the Council at its final meeting for the year is to cut the knot which the Board of Control is unable to untie, Questions will be asked about Mr. Caswell's trip. The matter will make the Council meeting a lively function.

The Local Board of Health has decided not to close the Adelaide-street premises for habitation until further investigation has been made.

French Premier scores Again.

Paris, Dec. 21.—The Chamber of Deputies on request, to-day, of M. Waldeck-Rousseau, the Premier, by a vote of 309 to 192, decided to postpone M. Laste's motion to the Major Cuignet incident until all the other orders of the disposed of, thus shelving the Nationalist attack indefinitely and giving the Government a vote of 200-rideron.
