DENTALS NOSE INTO ALLAN CUP FINALS

WINNIPEG, March 14.—Backed up against their own goal for two-thirds of the distance, the Toronto Dentals held off the Saskatoon Pilgrims, and by coming through in the dying minutes of the game with a goal managed to reach the finals of the Allan Cup series here tonight, as though the easterners were beaten tonight 3 to 2 they won the round by a total of 8 to 7. It was a tough loss for the Pilgrims, who showed a wonderful reversal of form and played the Toronto off their feet for most of the distance, but their old weakness of not finishing prevented them from taking advantage of an easy chance to beat the O.H.A. champions decisively tonight.

With the Saskatoon puck-chasers leading 2 to 1 and the score being a tie on the round, Willard Box gave the Dentals the goal that was needed to entitle them to meet the Victorias on Friday and Monday nights in the final Box dodged through a field of players in centre ice, but when being blocked by the defence made a long, low lift, which beat Morgan, though it probably was one of the easiest shots hoisted at the young goalkeeper during the evening. There were only 45 minutes left to play and the Toronto lined up across the ice and prevented the hard-working Pilgrims from putting over a counter.

Saskatoon Pilgrims 3.
Toronto Dentals 2.
Dentals win round 8-7 and will play Winnipeg Victorias, present defenders, for silverware.

THISTLES SORRY TO LOSE WALTER M'UTCHEON

Popular Club Member Presented With Cabinet of Silver by Clubmates on Eve of His Departure to Hamilton.

The largest gathering that ever crowded into the Thistle Club rooms was present at the North End club last night. Practically every member of the Thistle Club was present at "Walt" McCutcheon night, to do honor to the best scout and the most popular member that the Thistles have. Mr. McCutcheon is leaving the city for Hamilton today, having accepted an important position with the W. E. Sanford Company there. He will have charge of all the Ontario branches of the Oak Hall stores.

It will be hard to fill Mr. McCutcheon's shoes among the Thistle Club, but yet it is a fact that a number of the boys present at the farewell banquet tendered to him last night were not only filling his shoes, but will be on filling them until the end of their days.

Given Cabinet of Silver.
That the Thistle Club appreciated Mr. McCutcheon's sterling services was shown in a sterling manner, when after an excellent dinner at the club rooms, he was presented with a magnificent cabinet of silver by Phil Fetterly on behalf of the club.

After the grinning tables had ceased to groan, President Bert Heaman of the curlers tapped on a cup and announced that he was not going to inflict a speech on the assembled multitude, but would rather make a few remarks.

Mr. McCutcheon came to us several years ago quietly, and has won his way into all our hearts," said Mr. McDonald. He then told of several incidents that explained just how this state of affairs had come about.

"We can't tell you how sorry we are that you are going away, Walter," he continued. "We will miss you more than words can tell, on the bowling green, on the ice, and when we want to have a good game of cards."

Phil Fetterly, who spoke next, stated that the loss of the Thistle Club was someone else's gain.

"What is it about," Walter McCutcheon, that we like?" continued Mr. Fetterly. "Why has he won our hearts? Some say it is his wonderful gift of song. Possibly so. Some say it is his faculty of combining the useful with the beautiful, but the true reason of his greatness is his utter unselfishness."

(Cheers.) He cut himself out of the last Detroit tournament in order that another member could take his place. I hope that another Joseph will arise to save the situation. (More cheers.) At this point, R. D. McDonald, the IT PAYS TO BUY THE BEST

BONSPIEL TONIGHT AT LONDON CURLING

General Meeting To Be Held Tomorrow Evening at 8 o'Clock.

Old Man Winter is having a slow and lingering death around the London Curling Club, so much so that the Lyle street gang are able to announce that they will stage another "last" curling spean at the rink tonight commencing at 7:15 o'clock. All the members are asked to be present.

Mr. Fetterly, in presenting the parting gift of the club to Mr. McCutcheon, stated that he hoped it would be a link between the club and the departing member, and closed his address by wishing the popular Walter all the good things possible.

Walter Replies.
Mr. McCutcheon declared that he could not express his feelings in anything that he had done for the Thistle Club had been his pleasure.

Mr. McCutcheon said that he had a token of this kind to remember the Thistle Club by, and Mr. McCutcheon, who is the most honest of men, that I have ever been connected with, came to the club practically a stranger.

EDDIE BRENNAN VS. YOUNG M'GOVERN AT HYMAN HALL SAT.

Good Fight Promised Patrons for St. Patrick's Day.

It is an old, old proverb that an Irishman dearly loves a fight. Therefore there should be a large attendance at the mill between Eddie Brennan, boxing instructor of the Liberal Club, and Young McGovern of Toronto, to be held at Hyman Hall on the evening of the 17th of March. This McGovern is some husky youth, and those in the know predict that he will make Eddie go along in their ten-round encounter.

Brennan is in excellent shape, and should give a good account of himself. He has trimmed some good ones since last performing before a London crowd, and it is safe to say there will be a lot of his friends present at the ringside at Hyman Hall Saturday night.

Gunner Ed Cranston of the Red Battery will take on Jack Kelly for six rounds. Both these boys are fast and should put up a good scrap, fit even for the hot blood of an Irishman.

Everitt and Cookson will go on for four rounds, while there will also be some wrestling that will be worth while. Tickets are on sale for the fight at the National poolroom.

TILLSONBURG JUNIORS DEFEAT STRAFFORDVILLE Tillsonburg Junior N. H. team, defeated Stratfordville here tonight in one of the fastest games of the season, 5-4. The first period the visitors played at the close of the period.

In the second period the locals showed some team work and scored three goals to the visitors' one. The last period was a tough, the players of both teams looking. Hearn was seriously cut in the left cheek and had to be attended to by the referee. A large crowd of rooters came from Stratfordville.

The line-up: Tillsonburg: Baker, Carroll, Keyes, Barker, Hearn, Williams, Referee—W. Fewster of Simcoe.

LEADING BOWLERS ON JOB AT GRAND RAPIDS Grand Rapids, Mich., March 15.—All three leaders in the American Bowling Congress here withstood the attacks of yesterday's work, but two new second place games appeared in the standings, the five-man and individual event high marks being threatened.

The big attack came in the five-man event, where no fewer than four teams tried to pass the 2,352 of the Hotel Naves of Toledo. The most threatening onslaught came from another Toledo Club, the Mitchell Six No. 1 team, which ran up a score of 2,115.

Joe Shaw of Chicago furnished the competition in the individual event, going into second place with

STRATFORD PROTEST ON BOARDS TODAY

N. L. Moguls Forced to Listen to Prize Oratory.

There will be one fine pow-wow at Palmerston today when the Northern League moguls gather like the wise old owls that they are, to listen to the speechifying of the Stratford and London junior hockey club representatives. The Moguls' rep will endeavor to prove that the L. A. A. A. was putting it all over the league and the Stratford club by playing Suter and McKay against the poor Moguls in the series in which the Moguls got licked for the Northern League.

McKay and Suter played for the 11th against the Owen Sound woodchoppers, in which the northern axemen eliminated the soldiers from the N. L. intermediate finals.
