Work of this character was divided into three classes, first that in which the feminine side predominates, second the class which by common consent is relegated to men, and third the department of debatable industries in which the capacity of men and women is about equal.

Going back to the war of 1812 the speaker stated that out of a population of sixty or seventy thousand all the men of eligible age were needed to PRIZES AT GLEN MAWR. Among the prizes distributed at Glen Mawr School closing was a prize in Latin won by Edith Williams and one in music by Josephine Faton. A prize men of eligible age were needed to guard the frontier at the St. Lawrence, Niagara and Detroit. Women than raturally did the work formerly done by men, but at the close of hostilities for the best short story, presented by Mr. Allan Sullivan, was won by Alison Stewart, and the prize for the girl who stands highest in the estimation of teachers and class was won by Miss George Royce, there was nothing to show that they were anxious to retain the work along agricultural and other lines that had

FOR RELIEF OF BELGIANS STATE OF WORK REPORT

Many Delegates Believed Statements Were Too Pessimistic and Not Acceptable.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Standing Committee of the Sustentation Fund Reported a Deficit.

The delegates at the Methodist conpart of yesterday afternoon in a debate following the reading of the state of work report. Many and varied opinions were expressed on this matter, but the majority were of the opinion that the statements were far too pessimistic and should not be accepted. The report which aroused such hostile criticism was read by Rev. Stephen Bond. It was stated that the condition of church matters was not such as many had fondly believed.

tendance at Epworth Leagues had decreased, and it was a matter of regret that many young people thought that their attendance at this meeting was an occasion to absent themselves from the weekly prayer meeting. There is almost a complete extinction of class meetings, and there is a marked decline in attendance at prayer meetings. An increasing number of church members neglect to attend more than one service each Sunday and spend the evening in the entertainment of their friends and questionable amusements.

Declared Too Pessimistic.

This report was emphatically declared as being too pessimistic. H. H. Shaver said that it was "brimful of pessimism." This is a sample of reports handed in every year on the state of the work, and it is time for samething different on the best telesomething different or the best tal-ents in the country will become discouraged.

Another speaker said it would not be justice to pass it. He had con-demnation also for the methods of conducting modern prayer meetings.
Too much time is occupied in singing and in addresses from the minister, and too little opportunity is given to the congregation to share in the service. E. A. Caswell stated that the former minister of marine, has given up his official residence in the imperial navy department, indicating that his retirement, which has hither-from being the case.

from being the case.

Too Much Talking.

Rev. Mr. Robinson, a superannuated minister, said that he thought there was too much talking from the pulpit and not enough preaching in the modern services. He recommended the basic industries of the country are already suffering. Another 150,000 men must go, This will make displace-must go, This will make displace-themselves to give back positions to the men who enlist. its deep sense of the great loss sustained by the British Empire by the sudden and tragic death of Lord perfect. sudden and tragic death of Lord Kitchener. When the words 'Kitch-ener is dead' flashed over the wires, there went out upon the wings of those words a subtle influence that arrested the world's thought and empire's idol lay. His exalted character and works will live. His place in history will be luminous, He had achieved enduring recollection, not so much by solitary deeds of greatness as by fidelity to life's details, and that modest Christian living that regards small deeds and minor duties. "We pray earnestly that our beloved King George may be sustained by divine grace in this time of great: trial, and that divine wisdom may be vouchsafed to the men who direct the affairs of the British Empire, and that they may be saved from fear as to what the issues of righteousness shall be."

Reported a Deficit. The standing committee of the usientation fund reported that allotments to the various circuits totaled 6999, but owing to many circuits failing to meet their required share this committee must report a deficit. The amount actually received was $6533. made a total of $6732 committee was read at the morning session. The sum of $90,727 has been raised for all purposes during the year, $13,778 was given to missions, an increase of $1278. The average attendance was 42,170, and there are now 20,564 Sunday school members who are also church members. Dr. Aikens addressed the conference and stated that Billy Sunday was the only man who could save Toronto. No matter what we think of him or his methods, he brings souls to Christ, and, therefore, it is not our duty to criticize him.

COAT HAD NOT ENOUGH FLARE TO SUIT HER

Woman Sued in Division Cour for Return of Money Paid to Tailor.

Judge Morson in the division court yesterday heard the case in which Mildred Ellard ordered a suit from H-Borkofsky, which she had hoped t wear on the opening day of O. J. C. or at least on the 24th of May. At she did not get it on time she sued for the return of moneys she had paid Borkofsky and also for damages, Mrs. Ellard, the mother, had also ordered a suit, but claimed it was not satisfactory, the coat being too tight and not enough flare to suit her.

Borkofsky wanted to make sure of his money for the two suits and refused to hand over Miss Ellard's suit until her mother's was paid for. Miss Ellard showed receipts for deposits she had paid, and claimed it was a separate order from that of her mother.

Despite the claim that the suit was not much use to her now the judge ordered that the daughter's sait be handed over to her. Nothing was done about the mother's suit, as the tailor said it was according to the pat tern selected by Mr. Ellard.
