PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

THE ROBINS PLAYERS.

For the thirteenth week of his summer engagement at the Alexandra Theatre Edward H. Robins with the Robins Players is going to produce one of the most sensational detective dramas ever presented on any stage, "The House of Glass." This play, when it was presented at the Grand Theatre, New York, enjoyed a run of one solid year to capacity business. It has only been released this summer, and the production to be given by the popular Robins Players, starting tonight, will be the first presentation on any local stage. The theatre cooling system has been placed in commission, and the theatre will be kept at an average temperature of 65 degrees.

"THE WHIP" AT THE GRAND.

The talk of filmdom in Toronto is the remarkable run of "The Whip" at the Grand Opera House, where this big feature enters upon its fifth week at the same theatre today. The reason for its popularity is easily understood by those who have seen it, for it contains all the elements necessary to a successful action picture. It is a picture that one can see again and again. It advertises itself on its merit. The Canadian rights are controlled by Toronto, Langan and Covert, in a novel musical act, and other entertaining features.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AT THE REGENT THIS WEEK.

There has never been a better Douglas Fairbanks picture than "Wild and Woolly," the feature attraction at the Regent all this week. Such is the opinion of the motion picture critics across the line. Clean fun, action that fairly gallops from start to finish, sub-titles that are a feature in themselves, make this entertaining story one that gives the star every opportunity to score, and he does it in his characteristically winning manner. There are stunts galore, and many of them new. Fairbanks rides, ropes and shoots his way straight to the heart of the heroine and wins the unbounded admiration of the rest of the Bitter Creekers. This production is directed by John Emerson. Added features will be shown, including the Canadian Topical Review and the Universal Weekly, with happy solos by Joseph Quintelle, the celebrated harpist of the Regent orchestra.

LEWIS' ALL-STAR BILL.

Tom Edwards, America's premier vaudeville artist, assisted by Alice Melville, is the headline feature of an all-star vaudeville program this week at Lewis' Yonge street theatre and winter garden. Other acts include the hilarious Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Payne in the domestic playlet "The Drudge"; The Symbionists, xylophonists; Flo and Ollie Walters, singers and dancers; Evans and Moore, presenting a "Review of Reviews." THIRTY-ONE CHINAMEN HALED TO THE STATION

Police Smash Way Into Alleged Chinese Gambling Resort With Axes and Hammers.

When two police patrol wagons ran thru a crowd of Chinamen holding a religious meeting opposite 24 Elizabeth street late Saturday night to reach an alleged gambling house at that address, no one seemed to mind one little bit. The crowd opened up, allowed the wagons to pass and seemed to be unconcerned. Then, however, the police, with axes and hammers, broke down the door of the den with axes and hammers. When the haul had been ensconced within the vehicles, the crowd opened up and allowed them to pass on their way to Agnes street police station.

PETROVA AT THE STRAND.

Can a woman plot out an accusing past by means of good deeds? Will falsehoods told by a mother influence her unborn child? These are some of the questions that are asked and answered in "The Waiting Soul," the magnificent Metro production which with Mme. Olga Petrova in the leading role, will headline the bill at the Strand Theatre today and tomorrow. "The Waiting Soul" can be well described as a photoplay of conscience. It affords Petrova an opportunity of displaying strong emotional power, and also, incidentally, of wearing many beautiful gowns. Another feature to be shown this week is the motion picture of the 48th
