

An unknown friend, in Jersey, has generously presented a silver Communion Service, with hangings for the pulpit, cloth for the table, and linen and books, — for which the thanks of the congregation are especially due to her.

PORT HILL AND LOT 11.

Rev. H. B. SWABBY reports, that the interior of the church at Lot 11 has been painted during the last summer, and presents a very creditable appearance. It is now complete, with the exception of hangings to the pulpit, reading desk, &c. A very handsome communion cloth has been presented by Lady Westmorland. The people have the will to give, but lack the power.

GEORGETOWN.

Rev. R. T. ROACH reports encouragingly. Divine Service has been regularly performed, and the attendance at the various stations evinces a steady appreciation of our beloved church's evangelical teaching.

At Georgetown, £20 9s. 11d. has been expended in necessary repairs upon the church, and improving the grounds.

At Hant's, on the Cardigan Road, a neat Building has been erected for Divine worship, and nearly finished externally, without as yet having received any aid from this Committee. A frame has also been got out, for a similar purpose, on the Union Road; and half an acre in each place given for the purposes of the church.

At Mount Stewart, the frame of a handsome church has been put up, and liberal subscriptions entered into by the people towards its completion.

At Morell, another congregation is forming, and a substantial frame was got out, in a single day, by the united
