WHAT A PLEASURE.

It is indeed a pleasure to open your door and find a bottle of pure milk, fresh from the farm awaiting for use on the breakfast table. In contrast with this picture a milk which has had a good long ride on some freight car and feels a little old by the time it reaches your door. If you want the former bottle to greet you, call the Lancaster Dairy Farm, Phone West 418, and our man will call on you. If you want the other kind of milk our line is busy. WHAT A PLEASURE.
