GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF SAINT JOHN

NEW YORK AROUSED BY TALKING MOVIES

Attraction Now Creating the Most Theatrical Excitement on Broadway Will Be Heard at Unique Theatre Monday—Real Talking Pictures at Last—No Advance in Price.

The perfect synchronizing of voice and picture has at last been realized and those who have been in New York or Boston during the past two months and have seen or heard the talking pictures that are being shown at Warner's Theatre, New York, or the Colonial Theatre, Boston, were simply amazed at this remarkable innovation which has been such a stupendous success even in the bigger cities. The Unique will be the first theatre in the Maritime Provinces to show the wonderful DeForest Talking Pictures, a veritable different invention from the one playing in the theatres referred to, but equally remarkable. The popular Charlotte street theatre will doubtless be crowded to capacity both matinee and evening from Monday to Wednesday, when the dream of picture goers will become a reality. Further details will be given tomorrow. Because of the Unique's invariable adherence to admission scale, there will be no increase in prices.

LATE JAMES KEYES
The late James Keyes, whose funeral took place yesterday afternoon, will be greatly missed in Exmouth street United Church congregation it was said by a member last evening. Mr. Keyes was for many years the leader of a class in the Exmouth street church and had always been much interested in church work, his father having been for many years a local preacher.

UN-X-LD BREAD PRIZES
In last night's Un-X-Ld Bread advertisement the third prize was stated as being a pass to the Arena. The prize is a pass to one of the rink's choice resting with prizewinner.

A live turtle on whose shell was found carried the date 1815 was found recently in Connecticut.
