THE MINING INDUSTRY.

commission to investigate the conditions under which they are compelled to carry on their business. The request should forever the controversy witch has been carried on for some time between those who claim to be oppressed and those who say over-capitalization and other evils which have been brought about by the proprietors themselves are responsible for the alleged stagnation. It should be possible to determine whether the mines are paying more than their share towards the burdens are shown to be fairly apportioned, all the circumstances being taken into consideration, then we suppose the managers of the mines will be satisfied. will cease all agitation and devote the energies which appear to have been unduly spent in grumbling to the work of earning dividends for their shareholders. The debt of the province is no doubt large-far larger than it ought to be considering the objects for which it was contracted-but agitation will not wipe it out. A great part of it was entered into for the purpose of opening up the vince are worthy of as much consideratraction it might as well remain where it is: if it cannot afford fair wages to the ing such a memorial if it should prove

Nevertheless we hope the government will pay the deepest attention to the prayer of the memorialists and that everything possible will be done to restore harmony and prosperity in the min-

INDISCREET Our estcemed morning contemporary Colonist sneers at as the promoters of was in a frame of mind on Sunday that legislation did not ask for a subsidy or was entirely out of harmony with the spirit of the day of rest. It said things which must in the usual hour or two build the Crow's Nest Southern road. Parliament at present. George always flict. which must in the usual hour or two devoted to meditation have sadly disturbed the serenity of a mind seeking the approval of conscience. The responsibility for the entire failure of the government's notorious railway policy is thrown upon the Dominion government, accompanied by a slap at Mr. Bodwell as a Victorian whose motives as an advocate of a competing line are entirely mercenary. That is a phase of the submitch that the usual hour or two devoted to meditation have sadly disturbed the Crow's Nest Southern road. The pointed out that the revenue of a province which was much in need of funds would be greatly augmented as a job worth eight or nine thousand dollars a very accompanied by a slap at Mr. Bodwell as a Victorian whose motives as an advocate of a competing line are entirely mercenary. That is a phase of the submitch that it would be taken to provide a full limits of the upon the did not weak much in need of funds would be taken to provide a full lict.

Parliament at present. George always build the Crow's Nest Southern road. The merchange of the political horizon looks a trifle brighter for the Conservative party and there is a job worth eight or nine thousand dollars a very find the political horizon looks a trifle brighter for the Conservative party and there is a job worth eight or nine thousand dollars a very find the political horizon looks a trifle brighter for the Conservative party and there is a job worth eight or nine thousand dollars a very find the political horizon looks a trifle brighter for the Conservative party and there is a job worth eight or nine thousand dollars a very find the political horizon looks a trifle brighter for the Conservative party and there is a job worth eight or nine thousand dollars a very find the political horizon looks a trifle brighter for the Conservative party and there is a job worth eight or a province which was much in near the political horizon looks a trifle bright or the political horizon. The more dided to permit non-union men to carry a fund the cr vocate of a competing line are entirely fore exportation, and that the utmost fairs of some financial institution, Per- of securing liberty to all who desire to mercenary. That is a phase of the sub- care would be taken to provide a full haps Mr. Foster would not mind either peacefully pursue their occupations ject, we submit, that it would have been supply of fuel for Canadian smelters.

well for the Colonist to avoid the dis
Even with such prospects and quarantees

Even with such prospects and quarantees is to prevent the carriage of deadly is to prevent the carriage of deadly weapons by anyone and prompt dealing cussion of. Newspapers have been ordered by their proprietors to advocate a charter would be granted. The governdered by their proprietors to advocate a charter would be granted. The governcauses which were not in the best in- ment which was beseeching the Domin- that he may be gratified. Mr. Borden violence. Experience on the Fraser terests of the country. Even editors are | ion to come to its assistance in building sometimes more hirelings, with the option railways for the development of the re- Able he is, no doubt, and moderate in of writing as they are bid or making way sources of the province and the legislafor others with a more pliable disposi- ture which was willing to pleage the defer to, but not one to inspire the de- Herald has misapprehended the spirit in tion. Fortunately for the country, such credit of the constituencies it represents votion which was compelled by Sir John which a certain article in the Times was instances are rare. The public journals for a large amount for the same object, Macdonald and is voluntarily accorded to written. The following paragraph was of the Dominion are usually actuated by patrionic motives, and the men engaged sion to a company to build at its own Borden would not imply the advent of not on the surface: upon them generally write from convic- expense a line which would result in an Foster. It would take a new generation "Japan is too valuable an ally to be tion. This business of prying into mo- increase of our provincial trade by mil- of politicians and the possible mellow- lost to tives opens up a very wide field. People lions of dollars yearly. Beyond doubt ing influence of time to bring about such present time; and after all the grievance have been heard to wonder at the mysterious influences which seem to direct the currents of thought in our own British Columbia Legislative Assembly legislature had not made the timely discontinuous and the control of the currents of thought in our own British Columbia Legislative Assembly legislature had not made the timely discontinuous and outstances of time to bring about such a consummation. The time which would be consummation. The time which would be consummation and the political matter all the green and arter all the green lame; are green lame; and arter all the green lame; are green lame; and arter all the green lame; are green ish Columbia Legislative Assembly. legislature had not made the timely dis- the chance that in a moment of weakness Members have gone there pledged to ad- covery that public opinion was too power- the lieutenants of the party might be vocate a certain policy and have either ful for them to cope with. The privilege carried away by the enthusiasm aroused Commons of the estimate of £2,000,000, remained neutral or have worked like the legislature granted was attacked by one of George's bitter attacks on the Britain's share of the cost of the Pacific Trojans to achieve something the very through the courts, which shows that Grits who turned him out of a job and cable, calls attention to the fact that antithesis of the course to which they monopoly will fight to the last ditch in should select the rejected of St. John that important work is well under way had bound themselves. Of course the defence of its privileges.

Colonist to bring it up.

to alter the whole face of nature and large part of their prosperity to the turn the waste places into "hives of in- business which has been magnanimously dustry"-that the effect would be pre- turned over to them by railways which Times pointed out that it was absurd States cities with our wealth will probhands with the administration of Dunsmutr in such an ill-balanced ar
Compelling the railways to fulfil the obto ask the Dominion government to join ably be extended over the whole Dominrangement. The federal authorities were jects for which they were intended. The nature of the task which Kruger Indians, and only three white asked to double the subsidy given by the Premier has set his face against competion as the capitalists who live out of it. If the wealth of the country cannot pay for the means necessary to its extraction as the capitalists who live out of province and surrender all rights of contition—his organ cannot deny that—and it is apparent that the electors have as the capitalists who live out of province and surrender all rights of contition—his organ cannot deny that—and it is apparent that the electors have as the capitalists who live out of province and surrender all rights of contition—his organ cannot deny that—and it is apparent that the electors have as the capitalists who live out of province and surrender all rights of contition—his organ cannot deny that—and it is apparent that the electors have as the capitalists who live out of province and surrender all rights of contition—his organ cannot deny that—and it is apparent that the electors have as takings, if there were any, to the government of British. Columbia. The master minds in the business governer that the electors have as a result set their faces against the Premier. There is a strong suspicion that master minds in the business governer that a strong suspicion that master minds in the business governer that a understanding magnitude of the problem, and requested the same magnitude of the problem. is; if it cannot afford fair wages to the workmen who are spending their lives in its exploitation, if it be necessary to engage Orientals and fill our province up with an inferior class of people in order with a capital shall receive dividends upon investment, the treasure might as well remain in the custody of the rocks which are present guard it. The eight-hour law was enacted ahead of its time, perhaps. It was passed through the House with-It was passed through the House with out proper discussion and brought into force without sufficient notice. But it is wand there will never arise a legistic lature with the courage necessary to repeal it. No doubt there are other grievances and it may be that the government of the interests of the people of the Doubt and the proper discussion and brought into force without sufficient notice. But it is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. There are no pleasing to the opposition at Ottawa, It is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. There are no pleasing to the opposition at Ottawa, It is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. There are no pleasing to the opposition at Ottawa, It is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. There are no othey, oats and barley. The per cent, on all disbursements. The to some decision, which would effect a to some decision, which the Libothy, oats and barley. The reduction of every demand mide upon it. But it is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. The to respond to every demand mide upon it. But it is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. It is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. The reduction of event, on all disbursements.

The doubt have been very demand mide upon it. But it is gratifying to observe that the Libothy, oats and barley. The reduction of event, or tic to, the policy of the government. probe too deeply into these matters. The friends of the Times whom the encouragement of any kind from the province. They asked for permission to

of the leader of the opposition or the of the province at heart and place the sorry. No constituency has ever stuck member for North Nanaimo. The At- welfare of Victoria above all other con- to Mr. Foster long; and the feeling of The owners of mining properties in torney-General's soul floats in an atmos- siderations, were convinced that competi- constituencies is generally a pretty fair British Columbia have petitioned the phere several degrees removed from such tion in transportation was necessary to index of the feeling of the country. A Dominion government to appoint a royal sordid influences. The Premier, too, has secure healthy business conditions on the leader who cannot win the permanent been taken in hand by circumstance and coast and in the interior. It was evil confidence of the few people with whom gently placed in a position where noth- dent to all from the first that the gov- he often comes personally in contact is ing in this world need trouble him save ernment was antagonistic to the V., V. not likely to add to the strength of the to Atlin, where he will report to J. W. Creditors of Green-Worlock & a gang of pesky strikers. We have & E. The Premier and Mr. Hunter party as a whole. A man who could McFarlane, heard the patriots who are given to much maintain as practical railway men that not carry a city with all the strength, speaking proclaim their own political vir- there is no such thing as competition be- influence and wealth of the C. P. R. kan, in its account of his wanderings, tues and the vices of those who think tween railways. If they will read the ranged on his side, with that corporation on May 4th, and followed the line of the differently from them; we have seen the evidence which has thus far been col- threatening the ruin of the city if his telegraph with a dog team 230 miles to agents of corporations flitting through the lobbies; and when the vote was taken the Dominion government to inquire into of the elements necessary to a successwe have been too astonished to more that very matter, they will be constrain- ful politician. Mr. Foster also still has at the head of Dease lake. From here than inwardly wonder at the potency of the eloquence which has brought about competition of railways in the United the potency of the eloquence which has brought about competition of railways in the United than inwardly wonder at the potency of the admit they are mistaken. The many enemies in his own party, men who the went down the Dame's landing. There are many more will probably live as long as he and who such a marvellous change of opinion. States with the two great Canadian tre not of the calibre which forgets and But we have scrupulously avoided even lines, in conjunction with unreasonable forgives. On the whole it seems as if of the latter are old men who have rea suggestion of mercenary influences; and charges in localities where there is no the better course for the financial critic mained in the district for thirty years we think it a mistake on the part of the competition, in spite of the fiscal tariff, of the opposition would be to give up and have made good money in mining. have resulted in the handing over of a scheming and either reconcile himself to They don't wear queues, speak good Eng-It was pointed out at the time the large part of the trade of Ontario to a life of service in the ranks of the party lish and their surrous government's railway policy was brought American business houses. The border which made him or give up the public down-that mighty conception that was towns of Michigan and New York owe a life which does not pay altogether. went farther and maintained that that whole was the object of those who drew up the which has been begun in British Columcisely the same as no policy at all. Some were for the most part built with the plan or scheme of development. The bia against the building up of United the whistle bought at too large a price expeditions which are admittedly an government needs all the strength it sorted to the campaign would have been quartz lode. The lode is in a granite mortgage to $40,000. They also secured thoughts to get the estate in shape. The true that extravagant inflation is at the bottom of the failure to earn dividends.

The Dominion government has re
The Chair was taken by C. E. Redfern.

The Chair was taken by C. E. Redfern. The Dominion government has removed the duty on all mining machinery that cannot be obtained in Canada, it has complied with the request of the men interested in lead properties, and the construction of the heated term. As an evidence of the heated term. As an as tired of the subject as they are of and conveyed the impression that the presentatives in l'arliament who conwill give a bonus on every ton of lead is tired of the subject as they are of smelted in the country! Now there is complaint of customs duties. Will nothing less than annexation to the United in the mistaken idea of making a point in the morphism of the statement who considered in the country! Now there is in l'arliament who considered to have bewitched government was prepared to subsidize the morphism of the country. Now there is in the morphism of the statement showed be wound up. The present conditions in the undertaking. There is but one complaint of customs duties. Will nothing less than annexation to the United in the province were such as to frustrate the mistaken idea of making a point the morphism of the statement showed be wound up. The present conditions in the undertaking. There is but one complaint of customs duties. Will nothing the made and there will be made and there States satisfy the desires of these worthy gentlemen who abound so freely in the neighborhood of Rossland? The mines of Vancouver Island, and of the Nelson and the Boundary Creek districts appear to be doing fairly well, yet they are contending with precisely the same difficulties as are set forth in this important meaning with precisely the same are set forth in this important meaning with precisely the same difficulties as are set forth in this important meaning its state in which property the subsidy which the Dominion is will-marked by the struggle. What will happened and through business and give competition with the existing transformed have cost more to the tribes.

The people are deeply disappointed and business is depressed. For a time the province is settled. The people are deeply disappointed and business is depressed. For a time the province is settled. The people are deeply disappointed and business is depressed. For a time the province is settled. The people are deeply disappointed and business is depressed. For a time the province is settled. The people are deeply disappointed and business is depressed. For a time the province is settled. The people are deeply disappointed and business is depressed. For a time the province is settled. The people are deeply disappointed and business is depressed. For a time the province is settled. The people are deeply disappointed and through business and give competition with the existing transfer to the tribes.

Many of the customs of the old Hud-very condition of workers is not of the tribes.

Many of the customs of the old Hud-very condition of workers is not of the tribes.

Many of the customs of the old Hud-very condition of workers is not of the tribes.

Chairman Redfern said that he figured to put values upon all the assets.

A Chairman Redfern said that he figured to put values upon all the assets.

S. Perry Mills thought it was an easy the wild happened to put values upon all the tribes.

S. Perry Mills thought it was the province desire—to the tribes. they have good ground for restiessness. line to the north end of the Island a The railway policy which was to revolu- subsidy is asked which we believe no tionize the business of the province has government will be prepared to give when upon their day's labor for their daily failed to secure the construction of a all the circumstances are taken into consingle line of road. There is a certain sideration, and which have been alluded the banner of unionism? So fail single line of road. There is a certain sideration, and which have been alluded amount of activity in the interor, but it to in the Times before. We advise is not the result of, but rather antagonis- our contumacious contemporary not to

A POLITICAL DERELICT

is not the man to create enthusiasm river proves this.

LORD ROBERTS'S REWARD.

approve of the reward which the Imperial Parliament has bestowed upon the working. All the ganizer is complete and all who depend a large number of the unions have contained within themselves the elements which brought about their own dissolu tion. But a leader may arise with the faculty of maintaining harmony, and then the state will be confronted by a problem which will test its stability-or Mr. Foster is not anxious for a seat in ganized labor and united capital in con-

The passage in the British House of motives are not "metallic." Nothing so base could stem the tide of patriotism which flows so fiercely in, say, the veins of the Times except in so far as we, in common with all who have the interests them that they bad good reason to be in its slimy bed will not take long.

FINISHED HIS LABORS. Census Enumerator for Cassiar Has Re- Asked Them turned to Skagway-His Wanderings.

Geo. Coutts, census enumerator for Cassiar, has arrived at Skagway en route

He left Atlin, says the Skagway Alas-

Indians in the country than there are whites, and a number of Chinese, Most When at Glenora Mr. Coutts met an employee of the Chinese government who had come to disinter the bones of all dead Chinese in the district for shipment to China. While the great fortunes that There are few men within the bounds were taken out of the Cassiar in the old of the Empire, even in the ranks of the days has denuded the district of its value country is rich with pay for hydraulic perial Parliament has bestowed upon the man whose presence wrought such a Glenora, are in the hands of the Hudson had set before the army was greatly are seen in the country. The transporta-

VANCOUVER CARNIVAL.

Committee Making Good Progress-Merchants' Exhibits Will Prove Attractive.

The citizens' committee on the Van-conver Street Fair announces that the conver Street Fair announces that the progress so far made by it has now made $22,000. The creditors would like to get what there was in the estate of assured. Vancouverites have decided not to leave to the amusement part of the show all the attractions. On the the show all the attractions. On the creditors wanted was a concise recommendations were also valued to the creditors wanted was a concise recommendation as to what could be the creditors wanted was a concise recommendation as to what could be concised the creditors wanted was a concise recommendation as to what could be concised the specific forms the speaker had been the receiver for the estate of Belyea & McGregor. Upon finding it indebted to the Gregor. Upon finding it indebted to the creditors wanted was a concise recommendation as to what could be concerned to get what there was in the estate of Gregor. Upon finding it indebted to the Gregor. Upon fi contrary, while insisting that these amusement features will be varied, number of erous and first class, they have taken concise recommendation as to what could be done with the property. He moved that the creditors request that the trustees. In his opinion the statements and recommendations asked for at the last meeting had not been prepared. The insignation made by some

The surprise of Monday's voting for the Queen of the Carnival was the bold him in the matter. There was great difficulty in putting values upon the assets of such an estate as this one. The trustees could not always divulge just what Blackburn for first honors. Voting will only continue for the next two days, and the result will soon be known. As each day passes on the balloting becomes more and more active, and some startling which required the most careful handore and more active, and some startling changes are to be looked for before the Queen is definitely elected.

To put values upon some assets for a lesser remuneration, and state what might lead to trustees being charged it would be.

IN NO IMMEDIATE DANGER.

Berlin, July 31 .- The court marshal at Cronberg, speaking of the Dowager Empress Frederick, declares that Her Majesty, concerning whose health alarming reports have again been circulated, is in immediate danger.

INFLAMED FEET.

by one of George's bitter attacks on the Grits who turned him out of a job and a should select the rejected of St. John for the leadership. They would be sorry for it immediately afterwards and the country would be likely soon to convince them that they had good reason to be should select the rejected of St. John for the leadership. They would be sorry for it immediately afterwards and the country would be likely soon to convince them that they had good reason to be should select the rejected of St. John for the feet that foot Elm will not relieve and cure. Refuse substitutes and imitations that injure the manufactured and the stations prepared. The actual work of depositing the cable in its slimy bed will not take long.

Britain's share of the cost of the Pacific cable. It soothes and coors buttons, the singrowing toenails. There is no sore, painful, or disagree-that from the feet that Foot Elm will not relieve and cure. Refuse substitutes and imitations that injure the feet. Foot Elm is 25c, a box at all druggists or by mail. Stott & Jury, Bowin in its slimy bed will not take long.

To Resign

Co. Estate Dissatisfied With Trustees.

A Meeting on August 12th Will Consider the Question of New Management.

At a meeting of creditors of the estate of Green, Worlock & Co., held in the advisory committee had not of board of trade building yesterday afternoon, the resignation of the trustees. Robert Beaven and J. Stuart Yates, was the credi They don't wear queues, speak good Eng-lish and seem prefectly satisfied with asked for, and a committee appointed in good shape, and care should be taken to recommend a trustee or trustees to to make a judicious move in the matte manage the affairs of the estate at a revious meeting on the 9th having de- estate, who passed a resolution that the ided upon this course in order to give preferred creditors should be paid in full. the trustees an opportunity to prepare a financial report showing the assets and Wootton was appointed to have the judge liabilities, the receipts and disbursements award what was to be received by the of the estate, and to report upon what trustees. The estate was a peculiar one they thought should be done with the It was "rotten to the heart's core." estate. At the meeting on the 9th all Robert Benven had done a great work in was not harmonious, and at the meeting yesterday there was no attempt to Tates's resignation a solution conceal the disatisfaction which was felt ter was afforded. He did by a unifority of the creditors in the administration of the affairs of the es-

Co. took place in 1894, seven years ago. The estate was a large one and a wide trustee.

diversity of assets entered into the busi- Noan Shakespeare favored acting ness. The creditors also were many, rather than indulging in past experiranging from those who had only small ences. The cost of management, it was peal it. No doubt there are other grievances and it may be that the government will be able to redress some of the interests of the people of the Dominion as a whole would not be fit to equalities complained of. It will not be forgotten that there were times when certain mines were earning large dividends. They were sold, and under the management came a change. Was now management came a change. Was the whistle bought at too large a price

If or in vain for severity years, and so acapteless of the people of the Dominion that the task of attacking at the proposal was left to the National street. This property, at the time of the assignment, had been mort agaged to the Law Union & Crown Life time of the assignment, had been mort agaged to the Law Union & Crown Life time of the assignment, had been must be attacking at the dire results which would follow it the face of the testimony which the face of the testimony which the face of the testimony which have been cannot begin too soon. The the whistle bought at too large a price

The colonist has several times hinted too the National street. This property, at the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about Atlin. The highest peak in the country is more mountainous than about a distinct the form of the estate. He had been action for $10,000 at the country is more mountainous than about to avoid pressing burdens for which its determination of valiantly defending. The programme of the government in they were not responsible too hardly up-assets from it at $422,000.

Our esteemed contemporary announces them.

Col. Gregory, continuing, said the trustees had not shown a disposition to make clear the affairs of the estate. He said that the insinuations of J. Stuart did not wish to see the business of the estate continued simply to give a nin.

attractions.

The surprise of Monday's voting for had not received a counteous reply from him in the matter. afterwards with misrepresenting affairs.
Knowing the value of R. Beaven he carried by a vote of 188 to 107. hoped the resolution would not be seconded. As for himself his resignation was Coigdarippe were unanimously app

Andrew Ohlsen seconded the motion. E. V. Bodwell, solicitor for the estate, pointed out difficulties in connection with such a motion. Trustees were not open to resign their office, nor had the creditor to report at a subsequent meeting of the tors the power to say they must resign. creditors.

tion was allowed.

J. Peirson objected to the way in soreness of chafed, swollen and sweating feet. It soothes and cools bunions, corns and ingrowing teenalls.

to the $125 a month, which was bei paid, that there was 5 per cer collection and receipts, and 2½ on all disbursements. With I per cent. having been received of creditors, he felt that the paym $22,000 for the management ing could be made in no statement submitted did not ly an understanding of the affair estate. It would have been be of the assignment rather than with such a poor unders

E. Bragg thought that the true alone were not to blame. He also the advisory committee to act with them. The trustee given too great latitude of the increase in the amount of the re muneration. Four years was too meeting of Alex. Wilson, a member of the advismeeting to be held on August 12th.

The meeting was an adjourned one, the first meeting was of the debtors of the straightening matters up. dren who were creditors of the estate.

The assignment of Green, Worlock & The creditors should look to their own interests and maintain R Re-core was the capital bag unduly distended by means of water or wind? The mining men have no right to blame the province if through the instrumentality of promoters they have been induced to pay too high a price for their properties, nor have they been discrete in so, nor have they been discrete in so. The waste of the capital bag unduly distended at an excuse for the present conditions of affairs to be placed before the province if through the instrumentality of promoters they have been induced to pay too high a price for their properties, nor have they been discrete in issue.

THAT RAILWAY POLICY.

The lode is in a granite of the campaign would have been at an end long ago. Lord Roberts as a tan end long statement intelligible. He figured the province was found to be at the present

Messrs. Kinsman, Shakespeare and trustee or trustees willing to accept the

Col. Gregory explained his method of dealing with the difficulty, and the mother than the board of trade building on August The meeting then adjourned to meet in 12th at 2.30 in the afternoon.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Old Bone of Contentio

The Craigflower Road Sub Again Brought Up at Coun cil Meeting.

Provisions of By-Law to Be ried Out-Widening Gar-bally Road. O, the Craigflower Road, the Craigfl

Again serenely bobs, Our fancied respite, alas, takes flight And caim position robs. Eternal jaw has rung the changes Through universal ranges— When shall the agony stop?

-The Man on the Back Ben It was thus that one bard descr the somewhat prosaic subject of Craigflower road dispute at the council last night. Routine had just disposed of, and the aldermen were ginning to think of home, when the bone of contention was brought up. The communication from Fell & The communication from Fell & gory, which had been received and on the table a few weeks ago, was a read, and in connection with it Beckwith moved that the council c Hord By-law.

Ald. Stewart seconded the motion,
Ald. Cameron strongly opposed it.
saw no reason or sense in incurring saw no reason of sense in incurring large and unnecessary expense involute the council had no money to carry the work, and the people directly it ested as a whole did not want the opened. Alds. Hall, Williams Kinsman concurred with Ald. Came while the other members of the beginning of the motion.

upported the motion.

Ald. Kinsman pointed out that tition bearing 140 signatures had sent in to the council some time ago ing that the road be not opened up, ng that the rotal he had onlise to the fact that a number of depuations which had waited on board in the committee room were noroughly representative of the

Ald. Beckwith, however, thought fully 90 per cent, of people living i neighborhood desired that the by-la eft/in abeyance until this evening.

The usual number of communication included one from J. Ste read included one from Pierre, in regard to the construction of bridge at Point Ellice, enclosis letter from England and asking the council do nothing towards letting contract for building the structure. contract for building the stru-until he could present plans, etc. writer was of the opinion that ferro-concrete bridge is the one should be adopted, it being a stru-largely made of steel, with a substa-stone front. The cost of it was p by the letter enclosed as being app mately within $10,000. The com cation was received and referred t cation was received and terrical active engineer for report.

William Walter, agent general for province of British Columbia at Lor wrote notifying the council that he placed the advertisement of the sa he city debentures in the Times. Received, filed and city clerk instr o suitably asknowledge. F. Irving Taylor, secretary of the perial Automatic Voting Machine pany, acquainted the board of having ceived a new machine for municipa poses, which he invited a committ the council to inspect. The invit was accepted according to request mayor naming as a committee Kinsman, Williams and Cooley, citor and the returning

Thomas Hooper asked that a new walk be laid about his premises at corner of Menzies and Belleville str as the old one had not only wor but was becoming dangerous. Ref to the city engineer with power to James Smith wrote applying for t sition of superintendent of the contion work on the new Point Ellice when that position was created, ceived and placed on file.

C. C. McKenzie sent in a reques sewer extension on Stanley avenue, letter was referred to the city eng for report.

Brooks complained of a lrain in the Taylor mill locality. Ald. Beckwith urged to have reme He moved that the matter be refe to the city engineer for immedi port, and this course was pursued. John Smith, of the Fairfield dair; plied for permission to keep more the number of cows mentioned in th law within the city limits, his pla

Ald. Cameron believed that the quest should be acceded to, the place the letter explained, having give cause for complaint.

The matter was disposed of by r ring it to the sanitary officer for re A report from the city engineer, ing inspector and city solicitor was read as follows: To His Worship the Mayor and Boa Gentlemen:-The petition of James ard and others respecting the side in Donglas street, between Johnson andora streets, having been referred We have the honor to report as follow We are of opinion that the improve asked for is a desirable one, and as i be necessary that the proposed new be necessary that the proposed new ture should conform to the proper gra the street, several of the buildings fro on the street would be below the new We would therefore respectfully su to your honorable body that the co should meet the property owners af by the sidewalk, and suggest to them the council would be willing to lay a sidewalk to the proper street grade pi ing no claim be made by the pro-owners for compensation for any al injury which they may consider accru them in consequence of the building new sidewalk to the new grade.

On motion of Ald, Williams the r was received and adopted. It was a that the meeting for the considerati the matter be set for Monday after at 4 o'clock.

A report from the city purch respect to a letter from Erskine. Wi Co., that groceries not supplied u contract were purchased from diffe