WOMAN'S LIFE WAS SAVED BY OXYGEN A New Cure for Peritonitis Discovered. Remarkable Results Attained at Beth Israel Hospital, New York—Case Cured in Two and a Half Weeks.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Remarkable results attained in treating peritonitis with pure oxygen at Beth Israel Hospital have raised hopes that a way has been found at last to combat this dread disease. These are now in the hands of President McKinley, and which place the stamp of death upon 95 per cent. of its victims. A striking illustration of the efficacy of the oxygen was given yesterday when there was discharged from the hospital, Mrs. Anna Abias, a sufferer from peritonitis, whose case upon her admission was at first given up as hopeless. Mrs. Abias was the first to receive the oxygen treatment. On the day when she was taken to the hospital two and a half weeks ago, Dr. William Seaman Bainbridge, the noted scientist, had been discussing with Professor Henry Mansfield Silver, the hospital's chief surgeon, a theory that oxygen, if tried, would prove a cure for peritonitis. It was but an hour afterwards that Dr. Silver received the summons to make a heroic effort to save the woman's life. When Anna reached her side he found she was suffering with general peritonitis, and that her temperature was 103 degrees. Seeing that the old method of draining off the bacterial substance in the region of the peritoneum would be without avail in her case, he resolved to follow the suggestion given by Dr. Bainbridge. After the usual treatment had been given the wound was so treated that it left room for a small tube. This tube was connected with a tank of oxygen, which was run through water to thoroughly purify it, and after the flow had continued for three minutes the tube was withdrawn. Mrs. Abias evinced such remarkable improvement from the very start that other peritonitis sufferers were similarly treated. There are now in the hospital four other persons who have been given the cure. All have shown improvement equaling that of Mrs. Abias, and it is expected that when they too have been in the hospital for two weeks and a half they will be able to go home as well as they ever were.

NEW ZEALAND SOCIALISTS OBJECT TO THE EXPENSE May Hold a Demonstration of Unemployment as a Protest Against Welcome to the U. S. Fleet.

WELLAND, N. Z., July 16.—The Socialists in Auckland are threatening to hold a demonstration of the unemployed as a protest against the public expenditures incidental to the reception of the American fleet. In the House of Assembly last night, Mr. Holcomb, one of the members, said that there was danger that the visit of the American fleet might cause the colonies to place dependence on the United States rather than on the Motherland. He therefore requested that the invitation had been given.

CHASING A HORSE THIEF ON THE NORTH SHORE Owners of Stolen Animal and Wagon are Hard After Sam Russell.

CHATHAM, July 15.—Sam Russell, the thief who over two weeks ago stole a horse from George Amos, ten miles above here and a wagon and harness from R. A. Murdoch's three miles above town, hitched the outfit together and drove furiously to Kent Co., is still at large, but is being hard chased from place to place. George Amos has received his horse from Thomas Beers with whom Russell swapped the horse and now Mr. Beers is hot foot after him. News reached here today that Beers traced Russell to a house where a wedding celebration was taking place but arrived one hour too late to make a capture. Beers chased him eight miles farther, but was mystified by cross roads. The thief is said to be in the vicinity of Buctouche. His outfit now consists of Murdoch's wagon and Beers' horse and harness.

FLEET DUE AT HONOLULU HONOLULU, July 16.—The United States fleet is due to arrive at Honolulu at one o'clock this afternoon, according to a wireless message which came in during the night. At the time message was sent, the ships were 163 miles from this port.

THE CORKERY ESTATE CASE SETTLED TODAY Original Offer Has Been Accepted by Mrs. Mullin. She Will Receive $4,388.11 and the Use of the House Until May of Next Year.

In the equity court this morning the case of Mullin vs. Corkery was settled. The defendant agreeing to pay the plaintiff the sum of $4,388.11 and also permitting her to remain in the house on Paradise Row until May next. By the terms of the settlement both parties to the suit are to pay their own costs, and the Probate court contested suit in the estate of the late Johanna Corkery is to be dropped and all parties are to pay their own costs. It is further agreed by the parties to the suits in question that Mrs. Mullin is not to contest the will of the late Michael Corkery, she is to have the furniture in the house. During the hearing of the case the defendant stated that he was willing to pay the plaintiff the legacy of four thousand dollars, but the suit was for that amount plus interest on same for 20 years which amounted to over the principal. The defendant had no objection to the plaintiff residing in the house until the first day of May next. It is understood that the defendant before the hearing of the case agreed to pay the legacy, but refused to pay the interest thereon, and also to allow the plaintiff the sum of $600 during her lifetime. This was not accepted by the plaintiff at first but later the plaintiff agreed to accept it, but the defendant would not then agree to it. M. G. Teed, K.C., and D. Mullin, K.C., represented the plaintiff, Attorney General Hazen and Dr. A. O. Earle and A. A. Wilson, K.C., for the defendant. The case of Mullin vs. Currie et al was taken up after twelve o'clock. This is an action to set aside a deed, which in the case of Mullin vs. Currie et al was executed to refund the creditors.

TWENTY THOUSAND IN CASH PICKED UP IN TRAIN SHED Express Messenger Was Careless About Looking After the Packages Given to Him.

WINNIPEG, July 15.—Twenty thousand dollars' worth of brown wrapping paper was found in the train shed of the C. P. R. yesterday as the result of a search through the train shed. The package, thus revealing its contents. It is said to have been handed by one of the express messengers to a man, who found he had too much money on hand, and was too inexperienced to handle the sum of $20,000. The valuable package had been handled like an ordinary bunch of laundry, among a lot of packages with which it was wrapped.

The date of her demise has not yet been fixed, but it is expected that her excursions will be the ships of the first squadron.

PREVENTED GHOST FROM RAMBLING Severed the Sinews in the Foot of the Corpse. Lower Court Discharged the Accused, But Court of Appeal Sent the Woman to Jail.

LONDON, July 15.—The Pall Mall Gazette's "Trick" correspondent sends an account of a strange case illustrating the superstitions current in the Dalmatian Alps. A widow was accused of mutilating a corpse, and also of disturbing the repose of the dead, by severing the sinews in the foot of Mathe Duda, a deceased landowner, at Sanona, near Spalato. It seems that in this locality exists a deep rooted superstition that an evildoer will after death be compelled to wander about eternal in the shape of a greatly distended spirit, to the terror and discomfort of himself and all beholders. And as Duda's daughter-in-law had reasons for fearing that he might become a "Bukodlak," as the Dalmatian Venetian has it, she employed the widow to cut the ligament in one foot and thus prevent any ghostly ramblings later. The lower court discharged the prisoner because she was convinced of the truth of the superstition and had acted from motives of piety, but the Court of Appeal reversed the decision and sentenced her to three days' imprisonment for mistreatment of a corpse.

MET SUDDEN DEATH AT REED'S POINT Reuben Greenwood Succumbed to Heart Failure. Young Man Belonging to Campobello Fell Dead While Crossing Street—Identified by Contents of Pocket.

REUBEN W. GREENWOOD, of Campobello, met sudden death at Reed's Point at ten minutes past noon today. The young man was walking across the square opposite the St. John Hotel, carrying a suit-case, when he suddenly collapsed. Several men who were near rushed to his assistance and carried him to the sidewalk, out of the heat of the sun. Among the first to reach him was J. A. Armour, who has had considerable experience in hospitals, and as a nurse. Mr. Armour thought the man was dead, but in deference to the opinions of those around he directed the work of attempting to revive him until the arrival of a doctor. Some difficulty was experienced in getting a physician, but in response to telephone calls Doctors MacDonald and Malcolm and Coroner Berryman finally arrived. Everything possible was done to resuscitate the unfortunate man, but he was beyond assistance. The cause of death is supposed to be heart failure. Chief Clark, who came along, went through the pockets of the deceased and took charge of his effects. From papers in his pockets it was learned that the young man's name was Reuben W. Greenwood, and that he is a son of Capt. Charles Greenwood, of Wilton's Beach, Campobello. He had in his pockets the address of several people in Vancouver, and it was ascertained that he was returning home from the Pacific Coast. Coroner Berryman ordered the body conveyed to Chamberlain's undertaking rooms, where it will await instructions from the relatives of the deceased.

SAYS INTEMPERANCE IS NOT PREVALENT Among Young People in Rural Districts. So Declares Judge Haulington at Sunday School Session—Others Hold Different Opinions.

HAMPTON, N. B., July 16.—The sessions of the Church of England Sunday school conference were continued this morning, opening with Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. The session proper began at 9 o'clock and during the morning two very excellent papers were submitted, and if the practical suggestions they contained were not effected from the minds of the large number of Sunday school workers, both clerical and lay, who were present, by much of the talk that followed them, they must prove of great benefit to teachers who put them into active operations. The first paper was by Mr. T. B. Kidner, Supl. of manual training, whereas he laid down certain principles logical and psychological, by which "teacher training" for Sunday school work may be effectively brought about. Resolutions of thanks and a request for publication were unanimously adopted. The second paper on "The Temperance Department in Sunday Schools," by Mrs. Davidson, of Bethesda, was of a high order and full of common sense suggestions, although the president deprecated the whole subject being made at all prominent in the lives of the young. It might be necessary in cities, but his experience was that it was not a vice among a rural population. Canon Haulington emphasized his contention in a long address and declared he had not seen cases of drunkenness among the people of the parish during his residence in Norton. The chairman's views did not appear to be in line with those of the audience, and a few of the clergy so expressed themselves. However, it was stated by the secretary, Rev. E. B. Hooper, that the subjects treated would receive the best consideration of the committee to whom the papers would be submitted. The conference adjourned at 11:30.

WIMANS "DEAD" IN MIMIC DUEL American Then Polishes off Several Opponents With Frozen Wax Bullets.

LONDON, July 15.—Before the regular Olympic games opened at Shepherd's Bush today there was a series of new and exciting duels fought in a secluded corner of the exhibition grounds. Nobody's honor was at stake and several of the duellists were killed, while wounds without number were dealt out. It was the competition for honors of the well known Paris club which exists to enjoy and promote the apparently exciting sport of harmless duelling. The competitors use ice cooled pistols and frozen wax bullets. They wear a light protection over their clothes and a mask suggesting a diver's helmet, which an American at the competition today christened a peacock hat. There were eleven competitors, representing France, America, Russia and Sweden. Captain Winans, the crack American shot, was instantly shot in the heart by Major Ferrus of France. Mr. Winans acknowledged that he had received a death wound, but he survived to kill, subsequently several of his opponents and came out high on the list of winners. Every man engaged was frequently killed by several of the duellists. Mr. Winans is enthusiastic about the sport, which he is trying to popularize in England.

TELL OF HARD TIMES ON ITALIAN SHIP Three Sailors Appeared in Police Court Today. Wanting Legal Assistance—They Say They Were Very Badly Treated—Threats Made Against Them.

Three young sailors were called at the police station today. They had a long tale of hardship at sea. They were Fred J. Coles, a 20 year old Australian, G. Whitney, of the United States, and a colored youth named Joe James, of Antigua, B. W. I. Whitney seems to be the leader of the party, and says that the three of them, along with Wm. Stephenson of the United States, and a young Frenchman, were pitted against thirteen Italians on board the big Italian ship Andria, which arrived here a few days ago. Lorenzo Campodonic is the master of the ship, and the young sailors claim that because they were not Italian they were used rather roughly. They shipped on board the Andria at Newcastle, Australia, bound for Chili, and were to be paid off at that port unless the ship was to return to Australia. Now that the ship went to Chili, then to Barbadoes, was ordered to St. John, and is to load for England, they claim the right to be paid off here. Whitney, James and Stephenson have been paid off, but Fred Coles claims that the captain has refused to pay him, and that there is considerable money, probably $25 due him. If he runs away he loses his money, while if he goes on the ship he is afraid of his life, as there has been talk of a watery grave for him. Stephenson has shipped and left for the States; Whitney goes away tomorrow, the negro has not yet shipped. The Frenchman ran away from the ship at Chili and left his earnings behind him. Whitney said he did not like to go away until he saw his Australian chum treated right. Speaking of life on board the Andria the young sailors say it took them about four days before they could get used to eating the food given them. The food was rotten salt pork with bad mackerel and worms, and any dirty work to be done on board the ship was given to them to do. The colored sailor says that he was told that if it was not for the few English speaking sailors on board the ship Coles would be thrown overboard. Coles states that he was cruelly treated while on board the ship and on one stormy night the captain called him while he was on the forecastle head. He did not hear the captain on account of the noise made by wind and sea, and when he finally arrived on deck the captain put his fingers round his throat and threw him to the deck. The skipper's finger scratched the young sailor's throat. Coles has retained the services of E. R. Hebble and will try to obtain his release from the ship here and get what money is coming to him. He says that Capt. Campodonic maintains that the articles do not call for his discharge here, and does not wish to let him go because there is a scarcity of seamen in the port.

WHITE MOUNTAIN EXPRESS WRECKED; ONE KILLED Ten Others Injured in a Serious Smash at a Bridge Near Greenwich.

GREENWICH, Conn., July 16.—The White Mountain Express on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, was wrecked here at 9:30 this forenoon. One woman, Miss Marguerite Armstrong, of Wayne, Pa., was killed and ten persons injured. The wreck occurred on the bridge over Greenwich Avenue and almost in the front of the railroad station. There were five passenger cars and all were thrown from the track and upset, the one in which the fatality occurred being turned completely over. Underneath the struggling mass of humanity was Miss Armstrong, who was crushed to death. The cause of the accident is not yet known, but is thought to have been spreading rails. Every tie on the bridge was torn up and every angle-iron on the cars broken. About a hundred persons were on the train which left New York east-bound at 8:40 a. m.
