

HARCOURT.

J. H. Cameron and family took by C. B. train last evening for Rusof Rev. Mr. Stevens as pastor of the black horse to place yesterday afternoon, of Newcastle; McKay and
 and Hamilton, of Kingston, reumy.
 and Lala Smith, of Richmond, are active, the Livingston family.
 black, who has been visiting her
 by private conveyance.
 for some time, returned home to
 F. and Dr. Murray McLaren of St.
 Eureka on Monday, en route to went to Dalhousie on Saturday come today, having also visited Haines of Fredericton, and Mr.
 Bouchou, reached here today.
 by train south. Mr. Barnes reis by private conveyance.
 onnell went south on Monday, and report says, will be accompanied on Sunday in Shediac, re-mously, reumy.
 ain McLaren and J. W. McDermott the world's fair, leaving here early night.
 rshel went to Millerton this morn-Miller-Ross and Mr. C. R. Cumming and Mr. C. R. Cumming are on.
 tary of Waltham Mass., is visit-
 he Eureka hotel.
 on who is part of his vacation
 Kingston returned on Monday.
 then is visiting his brother, Mr.
 John Wright of Joazeiro Mines are Mr. John Beck.
 ale and Miss Stevenson, spent
 at Kent Junction.
 Lord, who has been visiting here
 reeks returned to Moncton today.
 REX.

"White and dazzling
 in the moon's fair light she looked."

Nothing remarkable about that! She was fair to look upon, as a matter of course; and the dazzling effect was produced by her white robes—cleansed and brightened by a liberal use of

LOGAN'S STERLING SOAP.

That's one of the peculiarities of Sterling Soap.
 Clothes washed by it always attract attention by their purity and brightness.

WM. LOGAN, — ST. JOHN, N. B.

BALLOON

Fly Traps!

Wire Plate
 Covers
 and other seasonable articles to keep out flies!

SHERATON & KINNEAR,
 38 King Street. [Telephone 258.]

CASH GROCERY.

WHEAT is far Healthier for Summer Food than OATS.

SEE THE VARIETY:
Wheat, Oats,	Corn Meal - Granulated,
Wheat Flakes,	" " " " Fine,
Cracked Wheat,	Hominy,
Pettijohn's Breakfast Food	Tapiooca, - Granulated,
Roller Wheat,	" " " " Pearl,
Granulated Wheat,	" " " " Flake.

Oat Meal, - Fine Ground,	Macaroni,
" " " " Rolled, Canadian,	Rye Flour,
" " " " " " American,	Graham Flour,
" " " " " " Flakes,	Brown Bread.

CANNED GOODS CHEAP.

TEAS: Oolong, 40 cts. lb., compares with 50c.
" Blend, 40 " " " " " " 50c.
" Black, 20 " " " " " " 40c.
" " 24 " " " " " " 35c.
" " 30 " " " " " " 40c.
" " 40 " " " " " " 50c.

HARDRESS CLARKE,
 73 SYDNEY STREET.

C. FLOOD & SONS,

Direct Importers of Violin, Cello and Guitar Strings of the best quality. Wholesale and Retail.
 Our prices are lower for the same class of goods, being bought from the manufacturers direct and delivered in St. John without breaking bulk, in original cases.

In Pianofortes

We have for thirty years kept a large and well selected stock from reliable manufacturers. Our sales to Artists, and the very flattering testimonials from us in seeking from any person wanting a First Class Piano at an honest price to visit our Warehouses. They will find a larger stock of HIGH GRADE CANADIAN PIANOS from manufacturers—we mean men who can and do superintend the instruments from first to last, and are known as the masters of their trade.

We also have in stock the HALLET & DAVIS, and WILLIAM BOURNE & SON, of Boston, and the greatest of German Pianos, RONISCH, of Dresden. All for sale low for cash or instalments.

Write or send to us for anything in the music line.

C. FLOOD & SONS.

A. GILMOUR, For Summer Wear.
 TAILOR, LIGHT TWEED SUITINGS,
 72 Germain Street. SERGE SUITINGS, LIGHT TROUSERINGS,
 LIGHT VESTINGS.

SUGAR C. ROLL John Hopkins,
 HAMS, BACON. 186 Union St.

Social and Personal.

St. John—South End.

Miss Edith Boucher is visiting Annapolis.
 Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones left this week for a visit to Weymouth, N. S.
 Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Street are visiting Digby.
 Mrs. Goss nee Miss Mabel Reel, with her infant is on the way out from England to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reel, German street.

Mrs. E. T. Sturdee and children are spending a few weeks at The Willows, Reed's Point.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tippet and family are also visiting Reed's Point.

Mrs. Douglas Hason issued invitations to a number of her friends for an afternoon at home on Wednesday last, to meet Miss Wythe of England, who is her guest. The dinner party of rain prevented many from accepting Mrs. Hason's hospitality, but many braved the storm and spent a very pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. G. C. Coster with her two children will accompany Mrs. and Miss Hason to Germany next month, where they will spend the coming winter.
 Mrs. D. B. Lawson is visiting Halifax; she is registered at the Clarendon House.
 Dr. Barton arrived from England last week, and left again via New York, on Thursday last; during his short stay he was welcomed by many old friends.
 Mr. James Dwyer, New York, is in the city, visiting his parents, Senator and Mrs. Dwyer.

The marriage of Miss Esther A. Woodley daughter of Mr. John Woodley of this city and Captain Sterling B. Lordy of the Grand John Smithers was solemnized on Wednesday evening last at the residence of the bride's father. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. O. Gaiter. Miss Ida
 Woodley acted as bridesmaid while Mayor Wm.
 Macdonald acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Lordy will spend their honeymoon in P. E. Island.

Truro.

Judge Taschereau of Ottawa and Miss Taschereau spent Friday in our city en route to St. Andrews.
 Dr. J. T. Steeves accompanied by Mr. Clark Bell of New York and Attorney General Blair left last week for the Miramichi to enjoy a fortnight's fishing there.

Mr. W. H. Tilley has been visiting Havelock lately.

Miss Edith Hillard and Miss May Hillard of Fredericton are the guests here of Mrs. B. R.
 Stevenson.

Mr. John Kerr and Mrs. Kerr have returned from a sojourn of some days at St. Andrews.

After a very pleasant visit to St. John where he has hosts of friends Mr. Wm. M. Donald left on Friday for his home in Staten Island, New York.

Mrs. Thomas R. Christian and her daughter, Miss Beattie Christian, who have been spending the past year in Boston, arrived here last week, and are staying at Mrs. Morris V. Paddock's.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. George H. McKay are congratulating them upon the birth of a little son.

Miss Lawson and Miss K. I. Smith of Windsor are the guests here of Mr. A. O. Skinner, Coburg street.

Mr. C. A. Everett has been making a visit to summer, P. E. I.

Mr. F. Brock will be a passenger by the steamer
 Etruria leaving New York for Liverpool this week.

Mrs. Albert Gregory, of Fredericton, and her children have been making a stay here with Mrs.
 Hurd Peters, Charles street.

Mr. W. H. Burns, accountant of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, has been transferred to the Montreal agency, his departure being generally regretted by a large circle of friends in this city. The Amateur Musical club, of which Mr. Burns was a most talented member, held a very enjoyable smoking concert in his honor on Monday evening, and, through Mr. George B. Hegan, presented him with a handsome pipe as a souvenir of many pleasant meetings.

Miss Rhett, of North Carolina, has been for some weeks the guest of Dr. and Mrs. John Berryman
 here.

Miss Constantia Carter left St. John last week to enter the Brooklyn Homeopathic Hospital.

The friends of Mr. Chas. G. Hope, of Montreal, were pleased to see him in town a few days ago.

Miss Emma Jack of Wright street is making a visit to relatives in this city.

Mr. G. A. Riley of Lancaster has returned with a party of American friends from a fishing expedition to the club grounds at Miramichi.

Mrs. J. D. Turner accompanied by Miss Minnie and Mr. Ida Turner, is spending this summer at Bocabec.

Mr. John McCarthy who has been visiting his father, left by Sunday night's train for his home in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. Van Horne's private car "Saskatchewan" arrived here last Saturday morning. It contained the following guests who spent the day in the city en route to Halifax: Mr. H. P. Thompson, of Minnesota, Miss Washburn, Senator W. H. Allison of Iowa, and Miss Lowery. The party were entertained at luncheon by Mr. H. P. Thompson.

Mr. Lewis J. Almon who accompanied his wife on her journey to England as far as Rimouski, returned to town on Tuesday.

Mr. Herbert Green has been sojourning at St.
 Andrews.

Miss Ida Foster has gone to Sackville, where she will be the guest of her brother Mr. Robert P.
 Foster.

Mr. Charles McCookery who came to attend the funeral of his brother the late Mr. Louis McCookery left again for New York on Saturday.

Miss Florence White of Shediac is visiting friends
 here.

Rev. Mr. Hurley and his wife of Cambridge, Mass., have been stopping for a fortnight at "Willow Mount" with Mr. and Mrs. DeMay.

Miss Barton, formerly of this city, but who has resided for some years in New York, arrived here a few days ago, on a visit to her old friends.

Mr. William Fensley, Q. C., will sail from Liverpool today for home.

Miss Katie Bruce, who has been attending school in the United States, is here, spending her vacation with her father, Dr. R. Bruce, Coburg
 street.

Mr. George Brown of the C. P. R., left for Bathurst on Monday morning to enjoy a week's salmon fishing.

The congregation of Carmarthen street Methodist church held a reception last Friday in honor of their new pastor, Rev. Mr. Wightman and his wife.
 The affair passed off very pleasantly. Refreshments were served throughout the evening by the ladies in charge.

Miss Grace Robinson, daughter of Dr. Robinson, of Annapolis, has been visiting St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Dinges Scribner are camping out at Williams' Landing.

The Misses Allen of Fredericton are now the guests of their friend, Miss Lottie Steves, at the provincial lunatic asylum.

Mr. E. W. W. Frink left on Tuesday last for Toronto. He expects to pay a visit to the World's Fair before returning home.

Mr. T. T. Hamond and the Misses Mansford have gone to Hampton, where they intend to remain for a few weeks.

The friends in St. John of Miss Laura Smith, daughter of Mr. Fred Smith, deputy minister of marine and fisheries, Ottawa, who was so much injured some time ago in England by being thrown from a coach, will regret to learn that her condition is not at all improved. Her sister is with her now in England.

Mr. Frank Pierre, who has been for some weeks
 the guest here of Mr. Fred Stone, German street, has returned to his home in Worcester, Mass.

Mr. William B. Baxter left on Wednesday morning for Houlton, Maine, to spend two weeks' vacation there.

Mrs. Tuck, (formerly Miss Mary McMillan) arrived here a few days ago from Winnipeg. She is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Bell, who is here spending the summer up the St. John river.

Mrs. Edward J. Bourke, formerly of this city, who Bourke, returned home on Thursday from a long sojourn in Southern California. On her way back Mrs. Bourke made a visit to her son at Lynn, Mass.

Mr. H. C. Martin has removed his family from Nova Scotia to this city; they will reside on King street east.

Mrs. Charles J. Kerr and her daughters spent last Saturday at Houlton, where they were the guests of Mr. W. F. Kaye.

Mr. James Macdonald, of the post office department, leaves this week by the steamer "Parlati" to spend a well-earned vacation in Scotland.

Mr. Frank Deane of New York, who is in town lately, on his way to visit his mother Mrs. Adina Paddock, at Kingston, King's county.

Intelligence has been received from Kansas City, Missouri, of the death of Mr. Walker C. Firth, on July 16th, at the age of 64 years. He was a native being a son of the late Captain Firth of St. John,
 but for some years he has resided in Chicago, Ill., where his remains were taken for interment. He was thirty-seven years of age and leaves a widow, who was with him when he died, as was also his sister, Mrs. Allen.

Col. Joseph J. Tucker returned last week from a very successful salmon fishing expedition at the Tobique.

Mr. H. T. Todd and Mr. R. W. Grimmer of St. Stephen, were in town a few days ago.
 Dr. F. R. Barker left on Tuesday for New York, being summoned there by the serious illness of his brother.

Rev. Fr. Devlin, S. J., is here this week, giving a course of lectures on the subject of the Sacred Heart, Mount Pleasant.

The Misses Belle and Floeste Stockton left on Thursday to visit friends at Pettaquamscutt.

Mrs. Thurgar, of England, arrived here last week and is staying at Mrs. Morris V. Paddock's.

Rev. Mr. McIllick, formerly pastor of the Lester street Baptist church, but now of Manitoba, is with his wife. They intend remaining in St.
 John until the end of August.

Mrs. J. Russell Armstrong and her family, who have been spending some weeks at the Bay Shore, returned to town this week.

Mr. William Hilliard, formerly of this city, but now of New York, is spending a vacation with his people here.

Mr. P. J. Devlin, of the Protestant Orphan Asylum, is making a visit to her sister Mrs. Justus Fickett, at Kingston, Kings County.

Miss Helen and Miss Mary arrived here from Boston on Tuesday evening, on a visit to their relatives.

Mr. G. Westmore Merritt left this week for the Nepequin river, where he will join Mr. J. DeWolfe who is in salmon fishing there.

Mr. Henry J. Thorne left St. John a short time ago, is now residing in S. Paul, Minnesota.
 Mr. Thorne secured an excellent position with the firm of Cobb & Yerxa, which has branches in several eastern cities.

Dr. Daniel has been making a visit to Fredericton.
 Mrs. Susan Gregory of this city, who is summing at Seal Cove, Grand Manan, was thrown from a carriage a few days ago and severely injured.

The many old friends here of Major Joseph Howe who is in Montreal, will be pleased to learn that he is expected in St. John this afternoon on a visit to his father, Mr. John Howe, of Glenora.

Major Howe left home some years ago to enter the Force and has recently been promoted from the position of Inspector to that of Superintendent.

Mr. Jeremiah Harrison and his family are spending the summer at Westfield.

A quiet wedding took place at St. Mary's church last Monday, when Mr. William G. Lawton and Miss Alice De Veber were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. J. James.
 The bride was attired in a travelling costume. Mr.
 and Mrs. Lawton afterwards left for a trip to Montreal.

Mr. Beverly Stevens a brother of Mr. Stevens of the C. P. R. is visiting St. John. He has not been here before for twelve years, his home being now in Boston.

The friends here of Mr. John S. Eagles unite in wishing him every happiness on his recent marriage to Miss Wilbur of Dorchester.

Miss Annie McEw of this city is visiting at Mr.
 James Stevens' White's Cove, Queens county.

Mr. Thomas T. Thorne, formerly of St. John arrived here from Boston last Tuesday to spend a short holiday at his old home.

The marriage of Miss Alice Florina, daughter of Mr. Joseph Adams, and Rev. William M. Milroy of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, took place on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother.
 West end, Rev. A. J. McFarland being the officiating clergyman. The bride was given away by the same evening on an extended wedding tour and will make their future home near Pittsburg where Dr. Milroy is a professor in one of the leading colleges of Pennsylvania.

DELTA.

Miss Laura M. Munro left Tuesday morning for Truro, where she will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs.
 W. L. McCallum, for the summer months.

The Misses Mamie and Katie Swigg and Master Charles Swigg of Portland, Maine, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. J. Silvers, Waterloo street.

Miss Maude Kearns left last Friday morning for New York, where she will take part in an interesting event. Her many friends in St. John will miss her and wish her much happiness.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Mc-
 Andrews on the arrival of a little son.

Mr. Frank Starr left Wednesday for Halifax.

Miss Grace Jamieson is spending the summer months with friends in Cape Breton.

Miss E. Turnbull is spending her vacation in Annapolis.

Miss Minnie Chase of North End is spending her holidays at Fredericton.

Mr. John Montgomery who has been visiting his parents at Dalhousie has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce of the Shelburne N. S.
 Academy are making a short stay in the city.

Miss Annie Lawton who has been visiting for some time at Sackville returned home Wednesday.

Mr. N. W. J. Haydon has returned home from Boston.

Mr. G. Clarke and Mr. Dudley of New York who have been spending a few days in the city visiting friends, left Thursday for home.

Mr. Edward Stephenson returned from Salmon River last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Handress Clarke spent part of this week at Mahogany.

Miss May McRobbie is visiting her friends the Misses Davidson's at Apple Hill, Annapolis.

Miss Jennie Hall who has been visiting at Fred-ington has returned home.

Miss F. E. Kingsley is visiting her aunt Mrs.
 Mitchell, Newmarket.

Miss Mabel Schofield entertained about thirty of her friends to a drive, whilst party and dance on Tuesday evening. Miss Schofield made a charming little hostess and her guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

A tally ho drive was given by Miss Edith Skinner on Wednesday evening, in honor of her friends, Miss Smith and Miss Lawson of Windsor, N. S. A drive of nine miles was taken, after which the party returned and enjoyed a dance at Mr. Skinner's residence, Coburg street.

Mrs. J. E. B. McCready and daughter returned to the city Monday night after a tour up river, taking in Woodstock, Edmundston, Connor and Lake Temiscouata. On the upward trip she spent two weeks at the home of her brother in law, Mr.
 W. T. Spear, Fort Fairfield.

Mr. G. E. Fenety and son, G. Linden Fenety, passed through the city Wednesday on their return from a trip through the Annapolis Valley and Halifax.

Miss Florence White, of Shediac, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Jardine, Cragie Lea.

Miss Fie Macdonnell of Montreal paid a brief visit to the city last week and is now sojourning at St. Andrews for a few weeks.

Mrs. William C. Whitaker and her niece Miss Sadler, are spending a few weeks at Fredericton and Chatham, Miramichi.

Mr. Chas. Ididole, of Hastings, Nebraska, is here and his grandparent, Mr. and Mrs. John Ididole, of High street, North End.

Mrs. O'Brien, of Windsor, N. S., is visiting her uncle, Dr. C. H. Johnston, Germain street.

Miss Martha and Miss Susie Fraser, spent a few days of last week with their friend, Miss Jessie K.
 Smith of Sackville.

Miss MacNaughton of Truro, is the guest of her friend, Miss Beattie Taggart, Robbsey.

Miss Mabel Gibbs is visiting friends in Gardner,
 Maine, and expects to visit Berton and other cities.
 Consistent amongst her luggage was her favorite violin.

The safe arrival of Mr. C. M. Botwick, Jr., in London, England, was wired to his friends here this week.

Miss Carter, of Point de Bute; Miss Treuman, Sackville, and Mr. H. F. Black and Amherst, spent a few days in town last week. While here they were the guests of the Misses Gray, Main street.

Mr. G. W. Whitney and Miss Whitney, arrived here Wednesday evening. Miss Whitney will resume her studies in china painting, at her studio, 67 Sewall street.

Miss Jessie Hogarth Swann has returned from Boston, after a sojourn of several months at that city.

Miss Everett Morse, of Boston, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Gideon Prescott, Coburg street.

Miss Nellie Murphy, who has been employed as telegraph operator at the Fitchburg Depot, Boston, is visiting her mother on Richmond street, her many friends are glad to know she is improved in health.
 She is accompanied by her nephew, Master Tom Madigan.

Mr. J. E. Stanton, who is in poor health, is visiting Mrs. B. Walton, Greenwich, Kings Co.

Miss Bertha D. Polley of Boston, Mass. is in town
 this week on a visit to her brother.

Mrs. T. McCafferty and child, who have been visiting Miss Lucie McCafferty at her home in Orono, arrived home yesterday, after a very pleasant visit of three weeks.

ANNO.

St. John—West End.
 Misses Driscoll and Lewin entertained their lady and gentlemen friends at tea on the Bay Shore one evening last week.

Capt. William Price's family of Boston arrived here last week and will remain during the hot weather.

Miss Nellie White is expected from Fredericton
 this week.

Rev. Walter A. Taylor has arrived from Detroit, to visit his parents.

A marriage will take place in Gloucester,