ASTOR'S MILLIONS LEFT TO WHERE ROW

Vincent Astor, Not Yet 21, Gets His Father's Estate
A HUNDRED MILLION

Will of John Jacob Astor, Who Perished in the Titanic, Made Public in New York Last Night.

New York, May 6.—Council for the family made public tonight the will of John Jacob Astor, as drawn in this city in September, 1907, only a few days after his marriage to Miss Madeline Force, and approximately seven months before the perishing of the Titanic.

Vincent Astor, a son, who will come of age within the year, is made the principal beneficiary and residuary legatee. No hint as to the value of the local estate is given, and by the will, as far as possible, the custom of his forefathers in keeping his vast holdings intact. Valuable parts of the estate run anywhere from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000.

Aside from provisions for Vincent Astor, the will provides for unconditional bequests. One is $50,000 to St. Paul's school at Concord, New Hampshire, the remainder of the bequest is to relatives, friends and faithful servants. Nearly all other provisions of the will, as made public, deal with trust funds of which there are three: $5,000,000 for the young daughter, Maria, the child of his former wife, Ava Wilton Astor, and $2,000,000 for the expected posthumous child of the present widow. T. H. his latter clause provides for "each child who shall survive the testator other than his son William Vincent and his daughter, Ava Alice Marcell."

No provision for first wife. No provision whatever is made for the wife who divorced him; and if the young widow dies or marries again the $5,000,000 trust fund, together with the two houses and other property left to her, reverts to Vincent Astor. She receives, however, $100,000 until the income from the trust fund shall become available, the trustees are bound to pay her an income of $200,000 a year. There was an ante-nuptial settlement which she accepted in lieu of dower rights. The amount of this has never been made public. Rumors have placed it at $5,000,000.

Nicholas Biddell, of Philadelphia, who went to Halifax, with Vincent Astor to claim Col. Astor's body, receives a legacy of $20,000; Robert H. M. Ferguson, a close friend and trustee of his father's estate and now living in Silver City, New Mexico, gets $10,000; Douglas Robinson, a brother-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt, is bequeathed $20,000, and a similar sum goes to the testator's brother-in-law, James Roosevelt Roosevelt, of this city. John S. Armstrong, of Philadelphia, New York, a cousin, is bequeathed $20,000, a sum which Col. Astor's father also left him.

Employees Remembered. Other bequests are $25,000 to his secretary, William A. Dobyns, of this city, in recognition of "faithful services"; $10,000 to steward, Thomas Hade, "in appreciation of his many years of devoted service"; and $10,000 to Herbert A. Pinkman, superintendent of his country place at Rinebeck.

FATHER TO PLEAD FOR SON'S LIFE

Aged Parent of Avis Linnell's Murderer to Invoke Insanity Plea to Save His Son from Chair.

Boston, Mass., May 6.—Clarence V. T. Richeson's father, Thos. Varland Richeson, will appear before Governor Fox on Monday to make efforts to save his son from the death penalty. Not alone will the aged father, a veteran of the southern confederacy, but added to his plea, are added those of his brothers and sister. That his son is insane and has shown characteristics peculiar to unsound mind during many years, probably will be the basis of the arguments which Thomas Varland Richeson will set forth as a reason why his son should not be executed. Added to the spoken words of the Richeson family were the affidavits of Mrs. Lydia Edmonds, the wife of Moses Grand Edmonds, and mother of Miss Violet Edmonds.

AMERICAN WIRE CO. IS NEXT TO GO

United States Government Commences its Suit to Dissolve U. S. Steel Corporation—Steel and Wire.

New York, May 6.—The government began its suit to dissolve the U. S. Steel Corporation today by attacking one of its largest subsidiaries, the American Steel and Wire Company, with the intention to prove that ever since its organization in 1899 down to a year ago, it had been a party to pools, agreements or understandings to restrain trade. The testimony, taken before Henry F. Brown, of Philadelphia, special commissioner in the case, was given by two witnesses, Wallace Buel, of Port Chester, N. Y., a retired independent wire manufacturer, and Geo. E. Holman, president of the Bryden Horse Shoe Company of Chataqua, Pa., who with others was indicted and fined in the so-called "wire pool" cases about a year ago after a plea of nolo contendere.

Moores Openly Hostile to the French and it is Feared There will be Long and Serious Fighting.

Paris, May 6.—The disturbed situation in Morocco is causing fears here that the country will not be made a French protectorate without a long and bloody campaign and much shedding of blood. Reports from southern Morocco show that the tribes there are openly hostile to the French. It is now generally known that during the recent fighting at Elmaghza, where a French detachment engaged in reconnoitering was attacked by Moors, the French troops lost 17 killed and 27 wounded, many of them dangerously.

DR. PRICE KING GEORGE MAKES CHARGE OF THE FLEET

Strong and Popular Candidate Named in Support of Flemington Administration—Sure Victory for Good Government.

Cincinnati, O., May 6.—Under heavy skies that frequently spit rain, President Taft campaigned through southern Ohio today. In all he made ten speeches, many of them in a heavy warm spring downpour, that drove the crowds of country folk to shelter, lessened the carrying power of his voice and made his physician, Major Thomas L. Rhodes, think anxiously of West-
 Mr. Taft swings north and east again for the last busy day of his present Ohio trip.
 Mr. Taft began the day's work at Nelsonville, and ended it at Cincinnati tonight. From the time he left Parkersburg, W. Va., and crossed the Ohio river into his home state, the president continued to tell his hearers why he broke silence and attacked Col. Roosevelt. He covered again much of the ground he went over in Massachusetts and Maryland, but occasionally brought in new subjects. Most of his audiences were attentive and at times demonstrative.
 "What bosses are for me," asked Mr. Taft late today at Hamden.
 "What bosses am I upholding?" Mr. Roosevelt says they all are for me. I could go over the list and show you a good many for him." The President has nothing to do with getting rid of bosses. Bosses are made by local conditions. Would you think that if Mr. Roosevelt were nominated and elected president he would not have any more bosses?"
 "I cannot promise you any such thing if I am elected, because I am not engaged in going about cutting off heads of bosses. I cannot do it. It is not my function. It is the function of the people at home to reform matters. I do not recollect in the seven years that Theodore Roosevelt was president that he got rid of a boss that he had killed. I don't recall any of them."

HOME RULE DEBATED IN THE HOUSE

James H. M. Campbell Says Ulstermen Will Never Wear Fetters of Home Rule—Sir Rufus Isaacs's Tart Reply.

London, May 6.—In a House very sparsely filled, which is typical of the waning of public interest in speeches lacking any process of novelty, the home rule debate was resumed this afternoon by the House of Commons. James H. M. Campbell, former attorney general for Ireland, under the Unionist administration, declared that the government might entrap the King and mutilate the constitution and might sell Ulster into bondage, but it would never be able to compel the Ulsterites to wear the fetters.
 Sir Rufus Isaacs, the attorney general, retorted that the Ulsterites with their constitutional loyalty, they will be loyal so long as they can secure the majority in Ireland. Sir Rufus Isaacs argued that the Unionist allegations of outrages and unrest in Ireland, were the most damaging testimony of the failure of English rule and therefore were the strongest arguments in support of the home rule bill.
