

THE HOME
THE WORLD

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

THE MOVIES
THE PLAYERS

Here are Related Facts and Fancies Concerning the Activities of Individuals and Organizations, the Home, Fashions and Other Matters.

LADIES' CURLING CLUB
HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Election of Officers Held Yesterday Afternoon — Mrs. Richard Hooper Re-Elected President—Successful Year—Presentation of Prizes.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' St. Andrew's Curling Club was held at the St. Andrew's Rink yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Hooper the president was in the chair and in her address spoke of the successful year just passed. She emphasized the importance of sport as a necessary relaxation in these times of stress and pointed out that those who entered sport in the right spirit and "played the game" fairly found that it was a character builder and that they were helped in every other way.

The annual reports were read by Mrs. J. Pope Barnes, acting for the Secretary, Miss Jean White, who is absent from the city. The club is in a good state financially though owing to war conditions the membership is very much smaller than in previous years.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

President, Mrs. Richard Hooper. Vice-president, Miss Edna Austin. Sec'y treasurer, Miss Jean White. Board of Management, Mrs. E.

A SLUGGISH LIVER
CAUSES
LOTS OF TROUBLE

When the liver becomes sluggish it is an indication that the bowels are not working properly, and if they do not move regularly many complications are liable to set in.

Constipation, sick headache, bilious headache, jaundice, heartburn, water brash, catarrh of the stomach, etc., all come from a disordered liver.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are a specific for all diseases or disorders arising from a slow, sluggish, lazy or torpid liver, and they have been universally used throughout Canada for over 20 years with the greatest success.

Mrs. W. A. Harrison, 7 Poplar Grove, Halifax, N.S., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you concerning the great good I have received by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a sluggish liver. When my liver got bad I would have severe headaches, but after using a couple of vials of your pills I have not been bothered any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ATHERTON SMITH, MRS. J. POPE BARNES, MRS. A. PIERCE CROCKETT, MRS. R. COWAN, MRS. CLARENCE FERGUSON, MRS. HOOPER AND MISS WHITE WERE BOTH ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION.

Several matters in connection with the methods of playing matches were discussed and settled by vote.

A special vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. J. Pope Barnes, followed by the singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," for her unremitting interest in and work for the club.

The prizes, which were done up in white paper with the club colors blue and white, were then distributed to the winners.

The Esterbrook cup which has been played for twelve years was this year won by the rink skipped by Mrs. E. Atherton Smith.

Miss Jean White Mrs. A. P. Crockett and Mrs. Lindsay of this rink received special prizes. Mrs. Smith presented a special prize to Mrs. Haycock.

The McKean Cup was won by the rink skipped by Miss Jean White.

In the Bonspiel prizes were awarded to Miss Clara O. McGivern, Miss Austin and Mrs. Cowan. Mrs. Cowan received another Bonspiel prize.

In the Doubles prizes were won by Mrs. Verner McLellan and Mrs. E. Atherton Smith.

For points prizes were given Miss Austin, Miss McGivern, and Mrs. Clarence Ferguson. Miss Austin received two prizes for points.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

President, Mrs. Richard Hooper. Vice-president, Miss Edna Austin. Sec'y treasurer, Miss Jean White. Board of Management, Mrs. E.

Music in the Home

SONGS THAT LIVE.

More songs are being written today than ever before, but few of them are destined to live. Of course, there are such established favorites as "Neville's" "The Rosary," and occasionally one like "Little Grey Home in the West" or even "A Perfect Day," which might be said to fall into the "enduring" catalogue.

As a rule, however, the songs written in these times are not of the kind that deserve to last. Ragtime ditties and mere jingles too often reach the largest sale. "There'll be a Hot Time in Old Town Tonight," for instance, being credited with a sale of 750,000 copies.

But it is the song "with a tear in it"—songs such as "Listen to the Mocking Bird," which promises to last forever, and which was composed by a Philadelphia, Septimus Winner, who, during his life, wrote many successes under the nom de plume of "Alice Hawthorne"—that goes on and on from year to year. And it is because of the tears that are in it, the responsive chord which it strikes in the hearts of those who are "growing old," that "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is one of the most popular sentimental songs ever written, and it is because of the poem of this song that the name of Eben E. Rexford, though he wrote many others, will be long remembered.

Music in the Home

SONGS THAT LIVE.

More songs are being written today than ever before, but few of them are destined to live. Of course, there are such established favorites as "Neville's" "The Rosary," and occasionally one like "Little Grey Home in the West" or even "A Perfect Day," which might be said to fall into the "enduring" catalogue.

As a rule, however, the songs written in these times are not of the kind that deserve to last. Ragtime ditties and mere jingles too often reach the largest sale. "There'll be a Hot Time in Old Town Tonight," for instance, being credited with a sale of 750,000 copies.

But it is the song "with a tear in it"—songs such as "Listen to the Mocking Bird," which promises to last forever, and which was composed by a Philadelphia, Septimus Winner, who, during his life, wrote many successes under the nom de plume of "Alice Hawthorne"—that goes on and on from year to year. And it is because of the tears that are in it, the responsive chord which it strikes in the hearts of those who are "growing old," that "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is one of the most popular sentimental songs ever written, and it is because of the poem of this song that the name of Eben E. Rexford, though he wrote many others, will be long remembered.

Music in the Home

SONGS THAT LIVE.

More songs are being written today than ever before, but few of them are destined to live. Of course, there are such established favorites as "Neville's" "The Rosary," and occasionally one like "Little Grey Home in the West" or even "A Perfect Day," which might be said to fall into the "enduring" catalogue.

As a rule, however, the songs written in these times are not of the kind that deserve to last. Ragtime ditties and mere jingles too often reach the largest sale. "There'll be a Hot Time in Old Town Tonight," for instance, being credited with a sale of 750,000 copies.

But it is the song "with a tear in it"—songs such as "Listen to the Mocking Bird," which promises to last forever, and which was composed by a Philadelphia, Septimus Winner, who, during his life, wrote many successes under the nom de plume of "Alice Hawthorne"—that goes on and on from year to year. And it is because of the tears that are in it, the responsive chord which it strikes in the hearts of those who are "growing old," that "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is one of the most popular sentimental songs ever written, and it is because of the poem of this song that the name of Eben E. Rexford, though he wrote many others, will be long remembered.

Music in the Home

SONGS THAT LIVE.

More songs are being written today than ever before, but few of them are destined to live. Of course, there are such established favorites as "Neville's" "The Rosary," and occasionally one like "Little Grey Home in the West" or even "A Perfect Day," which might be said to fall into the "enduring" catalogue.

As a rule, however, the songs written in these times are not of the kind that deserve to last. Ragtime ditties and mere jingles too often reach the largest sale. "There'll be a Hot Time in Old Town Tonight," for instance, being credited with a sale of 750,000 copies.

But it is the song "with a tear in it"—songs such as "Listen to the Mocking Bird," which promises to last forever, and which was composed by a Philadelphia, Septimus Winner, who, during his life, wrote many successes under the nom de plume of "Alice Hawthorne"—that goes on and on from year to year. And it is because of the tears that are in it, the responsive chord which it strikes in the hearts of those who are "growing old," that "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is one of the most popular sentimental songs ever written, and it is because of the poem of this song that the name of Eben E. Rexford, though he wrote many others, will be long remembered.

Music in the Home

SONGS THAT LIVE.

More songs are being written today than ever before, but few of them are destined to live. Of course, there are such established favorites as "Neville's" "The Rosary," and occasionally one like "Little Grey Home in the West" or even "A Perfect Day," which might be said to fall into the "enduring" catalogue.

As a rule, however, the songs written in these times are not of the kind that deserve to last. Ragtime ditties and mere jingles too often reach the largest sale. "There'll be a Hot Time in Old Town Tonight," for instance, being credited with a sale of 750,000 copies.

But it is the song "with a tear in it"—songs such as "Listen to the Mocking Bird," which promises to last forever, and which was composed by a Philadelphia, Septimus Winner, who, during his life, wrote many successes under the nom de plume of "Alice Hawthorne"—that goes on and on from year to year. And it is because of the tears that are in it, the responsive chord which it strikes in the hearts of those who are "growing old," that "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is one of the most popular sentimental songs ever written, and it is because of the poem of this song that the name of Eben E. Rexford, though he wrote many others, will be long remembered.

Music in the Home

SONGS THAT LIVE.

More songs are being written today than ever before, but few of them are destined to live. Of course, there are such established favorites as "Neville's" "The Rosary," and occasionally one like "Little Grey Home in the West" or even "A Perfect Day," which might be said to fall into the "enduring" catalogue.

As a rule, however, the songs written in these times are not of the kind that deserve to last. Ragtime ditties and mere jingles too often reach the largest sale. "There'll be a Hot Time in Old Town Tonight," for instance, being credited with a sale of 750,000 copies.

But it is the song "with a tear in it"—songs such as "Listen to the Mocking Bird," which promises to last forever, and which was composed by a Philadelphia, Septimus Winner, who, during his life, wrote many successes under the nom de plume of "Alice Hawthorne"—that goes on and on from year to year. And it is because of the tears that are in it, the responsive chord which it strikes in the hearts of those who are "growing old," that "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is one of the most popular sentimental songs ever written, and it is because of the poem of this song that the name of Eben E. Rexford, though he wrote many others, will be long remembered.

Music in the Home

SONGS THAT LIVE.

More songs are being written today than ever before, but few of them are destined to live. Of course, there are such established favorites as "Neville's" "The Rosary," and occasionally one like "Little Grey Home in the West" or even "A Perfect Day," which might be said to fall into the "enduring" catalogue.

As a rule, however, the songs written in these times are not of the kind that deserve to last. Ragtime ditties and mere jingles too often reach the largest sale. "There'll be a Hot Time in Old Town Tonight," for instance, being credited with a sale of 750,000 copies.

But it is the song "with a tear in it"—songs such as "Listen to the Mocking Bird," which promises to last forever, and which was composed by a Philadelphia, Septimus Winner, who, during his life, wrote many successes under the nom de plume of "Alice Hawthorne"—that goes on and on from year to year. And it is because of the tears that are in it, the responsive chord which it strikes in the hearts of those who are "growing old," that "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is one of the most popular sentimental songs ever written, and it is because of the poem of this song that the name of Eben E. Rexford, though he wrote many others, will be long remembered.

Music in the Home

PRAY FOR OUR MEN

On this day, Good Friday, which is not a holiday but a holy day in every sense of the word, members of all women's patriotic societies are asked to pray especially for our soldiers in the field and the success of the allied forces. There is not a thinking woman surely who does not offer up daily prayers for the fighting men, but a united effort is asked and in every place, in churches and in homes, prayers will go up asking for victory and a lasting peace. "Not till we are a nation on our knees will victory come" we have been told, but it is a fact that it seems hard for us to grasp. "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of" and it may be that great things may be wrought by the prayers of women fervently and faithfully uttered today.

Let us follow the good counsel of John Oxenham

"And pray! For prayer doth much avail.

To lift the world to nobler things. Pray, work, and live as unto Him, The Lord and King of Kings."

GOOD ADVICE FOR ALL

Goldwyn Using Food Trailers.

In accordance with the request of the food administration future Goldwyn Pictures will carry trailers urging the public to save foodstuffs.

Following are a few of the food administration's slogans that will be used on trailers with Goldwyn Pictures.

Keep the home fires burning, but don't cook so much on them.

Bread and guns will beat the Huns. Win the war with bread and lead.

Soap is made from fat. So don't waste soap. Germany has got to be cleaned up.

To give our boys in France a good square fighting chance, we'll send the wheat and meat no matter what we eat.

Every vegetable on the table means a Hun on the run.

The food you save in the kitchen goes to the soldiers' mess at the front. We can spare our Allies' share for "Over There."

FASHION PARADE

The Fashion Parade held by the Y. W. P. A. at Dykeman's came to a close last night after three successful evenings. Among those acting as models were Miss Audrey Turner, Miss Beatrice McGuffigan and Miss Anna Goodspeed. Miss Charlotte Dodge and Miss Helen Church were assistants.

"Do you regard our friend as a statesman?"

"No," replied Senator Sorghum. "He's the sort of a man that gets credit for being a statesman when he's only a publicity expert."—Washington Star.

VAUDEVILLE

PICTURES

New Policy Now in Effect

THE RAG-TIME TRIO

Three Musical Synopses—Lively

NELLOS

Man and Woman, Sensational Juggling.

DAN GRACEY

Singing and Talking Comedian

JESSIE PARKER CO.

Sparkling Comedy—"Twin Beds at 3 a.m."

PHOTO PLAYS

FRI., SAT., MON.

"Her Circus Knight" 2-Reel Comedy

TUES., WED., THUR.

W. S. Hart in "The Last Card"

EXTRA TONIGHT—Honey & Long

—Black Face

Gem Orchestra in select programme

Afternoon—2.30—Admission, 50c.

10c., 15c., Children, 5c.; Balcony,

10c.; Lower Floor, 15c.

Evenings, 7.15, 8.45—Entire house

15c.; First 10 Rows Lower Floor,

Reserved, 20c.

GEM THEATRE

WATERLOO STREET

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Mar. 25—Miss Nellie Newcombe returned from River Glade on Saturday much benefited by the three month's treatment at the Sanatorium.

Miss Hazel McQuade of Hillsboro, spent a few days in Albert last week.

Miss Bessie Graves who attended the Millinery openings in St. John returned to Albert on Saturday.

Fenwick Barnhart of the Salisbury and Albert Railway staff was operated upon for appendicitis at his home in Hillsborough on Saturday by Dr. Cornwall of Riverside.

Miss Mildred Murray left today for a month's visit with friends in Toronto.

A variety shower will be given by the young lady friends of Miss Grace Wood at the residence of Mrs. Isaac C. Prescott, Albert, on Wednesday evening. Miss Wood's marriage will take place the later part of the week.

Miss Dora Matthews and nephew John Matthews of Montana who have spent the past three months visiting

Miss Matthews sister, Mrs. Stanley Young of P. E. Island are now the guests of another sister Mrs. M. Temple Wright of Hopewell. They expect to leave for their home in Montana on Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gunter of St. John are rejoicing in the advent of a daughter Mrs. Gunter was formerly Miss Edna Hayward of Riverside.

St. John's, N.B., March 28—The sealer Fogots, with fourteen thousand pelts, and the sealer Eagle with twenty-six thousand, arrived today.

Deadlock exists between the crews and the owners as to the prices payable for seals, the men demanding twelve dollars per cwt. while the owners offer only ten dollars.

FIREMEN KNIT

Specialty Film Import staged an interesting performance on Tuesday afternoon, in Montreal, says "The Canadian Moving Picture Digest."

When they screened a private showing of firemen and soldiers knitting socks under the auspices of the Women's Social Organization. There were present at the screening at the Pathe offices Lady Meredith, Mrs. Green, Misses, Mrs. Chief, Fremblay, and Deputy Police Chief Mann, and they all expressed themselves as well satisfied with the screening. The film will be shown next week at Loew's Theatre.

LEAVING ST. JOHN

M. Bernstein who has been for some time general Sales Manager for the Famous Players Film Service in this city has been transferred to the Montreal office of that concern and will leave on Saturday for his new position. Joseph Kaufman, who was formerly manager of the Globe Films in St. John will take Mr. Bernstein's place here.

With The Regal.

M. Brown who was manager of the Superfeature Film Company has accepted a position with the Regal Film Company, Ltd., in their St. John exchange.

N. J. Wooten, of Perth, N. B., is adopting a new policy in his theatre and will show Aircraft Paramount and Select Pictures, starting early in April.

CONCERT AT SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE

Another successful entertainment was held at the Seamen's Institute last evening under the auspices of the Y. W. P. A. There were a number of seamen present to whom refreshments were served at the close of the programme. The men expressed themselves as very much pleased with the entertainment, endorsing every number, and giving three cheers for the ladies who provided it. The program was as follows:

Piano solo, Mr. Curry.

Songs, Miss deSoyres.

Violin solo, Miss Mary McLaren.

Songs, Miss Jean Anderson.

Songs, Mr. Henry.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

Matinees Start at 1.45 and 3.15 Today, So As to Finish Our Shows to Make Way for the Musicales at 4.30.

POPULAR CHARLIE RAY

—In His Best Picture—

"HIS MOTHER'S BOY"

A Sweet and Homelike Tale of a Plain "Home Boy" Who Saved the Family Investment in an Oil Venture

Eddie Polo and Vivian Reed

—IN—

"THE BULL'S EYE"

Serial Story

The Vitaphone Riot Squad in "DUMMIES AND DECEPTION"

Watch for Easter Programme

IMPERIAL

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

7.30 and 9

CAESAR RIVOLI

The Man of 100 Roles, Who Changes His Clothes Quicker Than a Lady Changes Her Mind

COLEMAN'S Musical MANIKINS

AL. H. WESTON and IRENE YOUNG

PAUL LA VARRE AND BROTHER

CHAS. R. SWEET

Hand Balancing

Comedian and Singer

Serial Drama—"THE MYSTERY SHIP"

UNIQUE

Pathe's Wonder Four-Star Serial

"THE HIDDEN HAND"

MYSTERY CROWDS MYSTERY

Makes One Gas for Breath

SOME FRESH WATER CREATIONS

CHIFFA GORGE—Scenic

HE'S HERE AGAIN—

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

"THE ADVENTURER"

SPECIAL EASTER OFFERING

LYRIC

Positively One of the Most Remarkable Subjects We Have Ever Shown!

EDGAR LEWIS' GREAT

ACHIEVEMENT:

"THE BAR SINISTER"

A Truly Great Production

CELEBRATED CAST

NEXT WEEK—Annette Kellerman

in the Million Dollar Spectacle

Watch for an Announcement Absolutely Extraordinary

GOOD FRIDAY

—4.30 O'CLOCK—

With Due Reverence and Patriotism

For Our Fighting Heroes

—Through Soldiers' Comforts Association—

PATRIOTIC MUSICAL

A PRAYERFUL HARMONY FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE ALLIED ARMS

Brass Band Selections, Orchestral Numbers, Vocal Offerings,

Sir Douglas Haig, British Fleet on Guard, Other Timely Pictures.

25c

FOR ANY SEAT

25c

Receipts Wholly for Soldiers

AFTER FIRST SHOW

-IMPERIAL-

AFTER FIRST SHOW

Pearl White at Her Best in Today's Serial

Tonight at 7 and 8.30—All Day Saturday

STAR THEATRE

You Have Never Seen Such Thrills Before

PEARL WHITE in "THE FATAL RING"

—CHAPTER 13—

Carlsake, with the diamond, boards a ship bound for Arabia. Pearl leaps onto the hawser after it has been thrown from the wharf. She flees from Carlsake, scales the entire ship, then leaps into the waters below. Carlsake throws a hook after her, but by mistake drags her into the paddle-wheel of a ferry-boat. Ye gods!!!! Poor Pearl.

Fatty Arbuckle and Mabel Normand