Thirteen Couples Are Made Happy

Ogilvie-Clarke.

A most attractive wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Clarke, 248 Tremont street, Albert County, when Miss Brenda Maude Clarke, of Newport, Rhode Island, was united in marriage to Mr. Peter Lewis Ogilvie of Hatfield, Point, N. B. The ceremony took place in the bay window of the living room, beneath a bower of gladiolas and autumn flowers. The bride, who carried a bouquet of white asters, looked charming in a gown of white satin with over-drapery of georgette, headed with tulle. The veil was caught with lily of the valley. Double ring service was performed by Rev. Chas. W. Bousharris of Newton. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Fred A. Clarke of Newton; Mrs. Leroy W. Baxter of Eden Park, only sister of the bride, was matron of honor, who wore pearl gray silk and carried pink asters. The groom's attendant was Dr. L. W. Baxter of Providence, R. I. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Mildred D. Baxter, niece of the bride. A large display of presents were displayed, including cut glass, silver and linens. A salad supper was served by Mrs. Fred A. Clarke, who wore blue silk. The bride's cake was cut by the bride after the reception, which was attended by relatives and friends from Winterton, Providence, Newport and Jamestown, Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvie left for Canada on their honeymoon and will reside at Hatfield's Point, N. B., Canada.

MacIntyre-Prescott.
A wedding of much interest was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Clayton Prescott, Albert County, on Wednesday evening, September 1st, at seven o'clock, when the Rev. I. B. Colwell pastor of the Baptist Church united in marriage the eldest daughter, Jane Catherine to Mr. Willard MacIntyre of Norwich, Conn.

The spacious drawing-rooms had been tastefully decorated for the occasion and the bridal party stood beneath an arch of green and white, while the decorations throughout were of marigold and pink. The bride was charming in a gown of hand embroidered white duchess satin, court train with shell pink lining, conventional veil and coronet of orange blossoms. She wore a string of pearls the gift of the groom and carried a shower bouquet of shell pink roses and white orchids. She was attended by her sister, Miss Sue Prescott, gowned in orchid satin with gold lace trimmings, who carried a bouquet of orchids and roses.

Little Miss Frances Duren of Boston, daintily dressed in white georgette acted as flower girl. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. O. S. MacIntyre of St. John. The bride's mother was lovely in a gown of black silk velvet, with corsage bouquet of American beauty rose buds.

The wedding march was played by Miss Eunice Curry, Boston, with violin accompaniment by Crandall O. Prescott, Sussex, N. B. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Miss Kathleen Prescott, youngest sister of the bride sang "All Mine Alone."

Following the reception a buffet luncheon was served, Mr. and Mrs. MacIntyre left by automobile for Moncton enroute to Fisher's Island, Mass., where the honeymoon will be spent, later returning to their future home in Norwich, Conn., where the groom has a large pulp business.

The bride travelled in a heaver colored velour suit, with duvetine hat to match. Their many friends remembered them with beautiful gifts. One of the most appreciated was a purse from the Baptist Church, where the bride had served as organist for several years.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Estelle MacIntyre, mother of the groom and Miss Mariel MacIntyre, St. John; Mrs. L. H. Burnaby, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacIntyre, Bear River, N. S.; Miss Grace MacIntyre, Springfield, N. B.; Mrs. James Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schurmann, New York; Mrs. J. Armstrong, Toronto; Mrs. S. Sinton, St. John; Mrs. Jesse Prescott, Miss Ethel Prescott, Miss Ethel Davis, Sussex; Mrs. James Magee, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Prescott, the Misses Prescott and Master Ronald, Wolfville, N. S.; Miss Laura Bray, Moncton.

The groom is a son of the late Rev. W. E. MacIntyre and was graduated from Acadia in 1916. Later he studied law and while practising in Vancouver enlisted with the 19th Battalion and remained in the service until the end of the war. The bride graduated from Acadia in piano with the class of 1915. Mr. and Mrs. MacIntyre carry with them the hearty good wishes of the home friends.

Murray-Cameron.
Hillsboro, N. B., Sept. 6.—The marriage of Miss Laura Bernice Cameron, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Cameron, Hillsboro, N. B., and Mr. J. Ross Murray of Moncton, took place at the St. John's Presbyterian parsonage, Moncton, N. B., on Saturday, Sept. 4th. Rev. Mr. Ramsay officiating. The bride wore a becoming suit of tulle with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Murray left by auto for an extended tour through Nova Scotia and P. E. Island. On their return they will reside at Cameron street, Moncton. The groom holds a position with the Canadian National Railways. The bride is one of the popular young ladies of Hillsboro and a large circle of friends wish the newly wedded couple a happy voyage through life.

Shields-Jackson.
Toronto, Sept. 7.—A pretty house wedding took place at the home of Mrs. S. Glasser, Montreal avenue, when Miss Sara Edith Jackson of Pittsfield, Mass., became the wife of Mr. Ernest O. Shields of St. John, N. B. Rev. Mr. Kearney performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by Mr. M. F. Connor, was attended by little Miss Marguerite Elliot, S. Glasser's daughter, and Master Edgar Kensinger, as ring bearer. On their return from the Muskoka Lakes, Mr. and Mrs. Shields will reside at 53 Macdonell avenue.

Coffey-Bridges.
A quiet but pretty wedding took place at Kingston Rectory on Monday evening when Irene Veronica Bridges was united in marriage with Harry Morley Coffey, both of St. John. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Henry Waterton, Rector of Kingston. The bride was becomingly attired in a sand colored suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of asters. Mr. Edward Piers was the groomsmen and Miss Jennie Coffey, bridesmaid. The service opened with the hymn "O Perfect Love." Mrs. Waterton played the Wedding March and also sang "God With You," by Stodden while the register was being signed. After the ceremony an excellent wedding supper was served at the residence of the bridegroom's mother, of which a number of friends partook. Mr. and Mrs. Coffey will reside in St. John.

Strange-Keirstead.
A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, September 8th, at the Charlotte St. United Baptist Church, West St. John, when Miss Dora Keirstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Keirstead, was united in marriage to Cecil E. R. Strange. Mr. and Mrs. Strange left immediately after the ceremony on a short honeymoon trip, after which they will take up their residence at 156 Gullford street, W. E. Many beautiful presents were received.

Campbell-Starr.
The marriage of Miss Margaret Allyne, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Starr, to Major Gidden Campbell, M. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Douglas Campbell, of Weymouth, N. S., was solemnized at 12.30 yesterday in St. Barnabas' church, Yon. Archdeacon Crowfoot, rector of St. Paul's church, officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Starr, while the groom was supported by his brother, Dugald Campbell, of Weymouth. Peniston Starr acted as best man, Cedric Alward, brother and cousin of the bride, acted as ushers. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left for a trip through Nova Scotia, before going to Weymouth, where they will reside.

McCluskey-Tierney.
The wedding of two popular young people of the North End took place in St. Peter's church yesterday morning at seven o'clock, when Rev. Edward Scully, C. S. S. I., united in marriage Miss Mary Alice Tierney and John D. McCluskey. The bride was given away by her cousin, William Kiernan. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Florence Kiernan. John J. McManus supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. McCluskey left on a honeymoon trip to upper Canada and on their return will reside in Lancaster.

Hatfield-McDade.
At St. Alphonsus church, Hampton yesterday morning, Miss Mary Josephine McDade and George Wilfred Hatfield were married with nuptial mass, by Rev. A. P. Allen, of the Cathedral staff. The bride is the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McDade of Hampton, and the groom hails from Walkham, Mass.

Sansom-Cameron.
At Trinity church yesterday afternoon the Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong married Mrs. Bernice Cameron and Herbert R. Sansom, both of this city. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Earle, and the groom was supported by Gordon Moore. After the ceremony the happy couple left on a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at 249 Rockland road.

Bradshaw-Gillespie.
A very pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at ten o'clock at the residence of Mrs. James H. Gillespie, 222 King street, West St. John, when her daughter, Myra Clare Bradshaw, was united in marriage to Guy George Bradshaw. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Poole, and the bride was given away by her brother, Wm. Gillespie. After the wedding ceremony a dainty luncheon was served and the bride and groom left on the noon train for a wedding trip in the eastern provinces. On their return they will reside in this city.

Strange-Keirstead.
A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends in the city and elsewhere took place yesterday evening at six o'clock in the Charlotte street Baptist church, West St. John, when Rev. J. H. Jenner united in marriage Miss Doris A. Keirstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vernon Keirstead, of West St. John, to Cecil Edwin Randolph Strange, son of Mrs. E. L. Strange, also of West St. John. The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York. They will reside in West St. John.

Dwyer-O'Neill.
A wedding of much local interest took place in the Cathedral yesterday morning at 7:45 o'clock, when Miss Mary Florence O'Neill, of 109 Elliott Row, and Joseph Francis Dwyer, manager of Dwyer Bros., Fairview street, were united in marriage by Father Carroll, of Fredericton. The bridesmaid was Miss Gertrude O'Neill, sister of the bride, and the groom was supported by Dr. L. J. Fleming. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer left on the Boston boat for a wedding tour.

Hayden-Colwell.
At the residence of Captain and Mrs. M. E. Colwell, 200 Watson street, St. John, a pretty wedding took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when their daughter, Miss Jennie M. Colwell, was married to Mr. James E. Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hayden, of Hartland, N. B. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. R. Robinson, assisted by the Rev. Wm. Howe. The bride looked charming in a wedding dress of white Georgette and satin with bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by little Miss Eleanor and Edith MacFarlane who carried baskets of sweet peas. After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served and the happy couple left for a tour of the province before settling in their new home at Riley Brook, N. B.

The bride's going away suit was of navy blue. The residence was decorated for the occasion with golden glow and the various autumn flowers. Among the many gifts received from their many friends were many pieces of cut glass and silver with several fine cheques.

The out of town guests included Mrs. S. A. Fairweather and family, of Hartland, Conn.; Mrs. John Quinn, Riley Brook; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayden and Miss Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Joyce, Collins, N. B., and Miss McDonald, of Prince Edward Island.

The bride has been very popular in musical circles in St. John where she was well known as a soloist.
