

PROVINCIAL NEWS

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Sackville

Sackville, Oct. 10.—Miss Hicks left this week for Wolfville, N. S., where she will resume her work at Acadia University.

Miss Johnson, who has been spending some time here, guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mackenzie, and Miss Elsie Johnson of Dartmouth, who has been in town for a few days, leave Thursday for Montreal.

Miss Ada Ford left Saturday for New York, where she will take a special course at the Pratt Institute.

Mrs. B. A. Triles and her sister, Mrs. Kennedy, left Wednesday for Halifax, where they will visit friends.

Mrs. Unlache of Halifax, is visiting in town, guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Wood, York street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Robinson and Mrs. A. E. Wry, have returned from a very pleasant motor trip to Boston, New York and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. H. Goodwin of St. John has been spending a few days in town, guest of Mrs. Seabright.

Mrs. Harry Ford of Moncton, is visiting here this week, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ford.

Mrs. MacGee of Pictou, spent a few days here this week, guest of Mrs. R. Triles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walker Anderson have returned from a very delightful trip to Montreal, Toronto and Niagara Falls.

Miss Alice Hanson, who has been spending the past month in Sydney, guest of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Reed, returned home on Monday.

Hostesses at the golf tea on Saturday afternoon were Miss Lillian Hart and Miss Margaret Black.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mackenzie have returned from a pleasant trip to St. John and St. Stephen.

Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Hart are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Monday, Sept. 27.

Mr. Stewart Murray, who has been spending some time in the West, returned home the first of the week.

Mr. R. D. Innes spent the weekend at his home in St. John.

Miss Jean Turner was taken to the Halifax Hospital on Saturday to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner.

A large number of automobile parties went to Moncton on Friday and Saturday to attend the English play, "Mad of the Mountains."

Mrs. W. O. Bell of Amherst, was a weekend guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Bell, at Mount Allison Ladies' College.

Mrs. C. W. Knapp and Miss Eliza Knapp spent Wednesday in Moncton.

Miss Laura Mahoney, daughter of Hon. P. G. Mahoney, Meirhoe, was conveyed to the Moncton City Hospital, Friday afternoon for special treatment.

Mrs. Edward Ogden and children returned last week from Emerson, Kent Co., where they have been visiting the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Ogden.

A very pleasant social gathering was held last Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Melissa Brown. The return of a three months leave of absence of Mrs. Brown's son, Lieutenant LeRoy Brown of the Royal Air Force of England gave occasion to this reception in his honor. Many relatives and friends from Mount Whaley, Fort Lawrence, Sackville and Amherst were present and gave Lieutenant Brown a hearty welcome home, after three years service overseas and four months detention in a German prison camp. Many interesting souvenirs of the war were brought home by the guest of the evening and drew much attention. The music and the singing was much enjoyed and in due time dainty refreshments were served. On behalf of those present the rector of Mount Whaley extended to Lieutenant Brown words of welcome home and appreciation of the honors won by him in his distinguished service overseas and of good wishes for the future to which address a suitable and feeling reply was made by Lieutenant Brown. After singing the National Anthem the gathering dispersed carrying with them the memory of a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. E. R. Richard was in Moncton for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Humphreys of Sussex, have been spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fawcett, Upper Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Saturday, Sept. 25th.

Mrs. H. P. Goodwin and family, who have been spending the summer at Point de Bate, left Monday for Gaspe, where they will reside in the future.

Mr. Russell Scott spent the weekend in Moncton.

Mrs. J. V. McKean and her son, Douglas of St. John, spent the weekend here, guest of Mrs. F. W. Murray.

Mrs. Harry Cochrane entertained very pleasantly at tea at her home, York street, on Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Turner (formerly Miss Olive Carter) and Miss Edith Trueman.

Mrs. James Cadman of Sunny Bree, was in town on Thursday.

Mrs. Carter who has been visiting relatives in Sackville, has returned to her home in Springhill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Patterson of Woburn, Mass., and their daughter, Mrs. A. Reed of Reading, Mass., and Mrs. Anna Sibley of Springfield, Mass., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Horsler, left yesterday by motor for their respective homes.

Mrs. James A. Hicks has returned from Fredericton, where she has been spending some time with her son, William.

Mrs. Marjorie McCord left last week for Moncton, where she will spend some time.

A number of friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carter, Point de Bate, motored to their home on Monday evening and gave them a surprise party, in celebration of the tenth anniversary of their marriage. A very pleasant evening was spent in games, music and social chat. The bride and groom of ten years were the recipients of appropriate gifts. A delicious lunch was served before the guests departed for their homes.

Miss Audrey Winter of Mount Allison Ladies' College, spent the weekend at her home in Moncton.

Mrs. Herbert Goodwin and two daughters, Winnie and Kathleen, left Tuesday for Gaspe, Quebec, where they will in the future reside. Miss Edith Goodwin, who is stenographer at Tingley Bros. and Duncan, will join the family at Christmas.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Carter of Mount Whaley, entertained a number of their relatives and friends in honor of the latter's sister, Mrs. M. L. Brown and Lieut. L. L. Brown, who are leaving for Western Canada on Saturday. With a few appropriate words by L. G. Miner, Mrs. Brown was presented with a beautiful ring from her sisters and children. The best wishes of their many friends go with them for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are removing shortly to California, owing to the poor health of the former in a milder climate will restore him to health and vigor once more. They will be followed by a number of their many friends who are leaving for a pleasant trip and safe return.

Mr. Charles Macdonald has returned from a trip to Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Wheaton and little son, William, who have been spending the summer with the former's mother, Mrs. James Wheaton, Upper Sackville, left recently for their home in Moncton. Mr. Wheaton had not been here for the past thirteen years.

At the Sewing Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church, Little Shomogue and graduates of Mt. Allison, were present on Friday evening, presentation to Mrs. Amos Hicks, one of its faithful workers, who is leaving shortly for California. On behalf of the society, Mrs. Humphrey, the president, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mrs. Hicks with a fine suit case, as a token of regard and appreciation as well as a reminder of the many pleasant hours spent together. Though completely taken by surprise Mrs. Hicks responded appropriately, thanking the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness.

</