Ottawa, June 5-(Special)-When the House met today, Solicitor General Fitz-patrick introduced two bills, one to amend the penitentiary act and another re garding the Quebec harbor commissioners.

Both were read a first time.

On the orders of the day being called,
Sir Charles Tupper called attention to the scope of the royal commission appointed to investigate electoral corrup tion. He said that he would like to see added in the commission in addition to the other parties and things mentione "any fraudulent practices, persons of means connected therewith." The judges should also be in a position to grant im munity to witnesses. In his epinion power should also be taken to compel the Terrible Reports of Cholera and Starvation.

> Sir Wilfrid Laurier-The object of the commission was to probe to the bottom of the election frauds, which could not be tolerated in a free country. In appointing a commission the government gave the most free and ample power pos-sible to the judges to proceed in such way as would accomplish the object in view. Suggestions of Sir Charles Tupper would be referred to the minister of justice, who was their guide in the matter. Provision would be made for the payment of witnesses. Sir Wilfrid objected to the judges being asked to consult with the
