

HAS SEEN 42,000 IN POLICE COURT

Police Court Clerk Henderson Gives Remarkable Address in Every Day Club

Of all the offenders who have passed in front of Police Clerk Henderson in the present police building in King street east were formed in line two and a half to three feet apart, the procession would reach from Indian town along Main, Dock, King, Charlotte, Union and Brussels streets to the Marsh bridge, and on out the Marsh road into Kings county to a point several miles beyond Hampton. It would take an express train more than an hour to pass from end to end of the line.

LITTLE CECIL COOPER DIED FROM HIS BURNS

Seven-Year-Old Boy Playing Near Stove When Nightdress Caught.

Cecil Cooper, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cooper, of 141 Mecklenburg street, died on Saturday as the result of burns sustained that morning while he was playing near a self-feeder stove. Mr. Cooper, who is employed as an engineer in the American laundry, had just left the house about an hour when he received a telephone message conveying the sad intelligence. He immediately drove to the house and found his seven-year-old son lying on the floor and apparently dead.

HAS NOT DISAPPEARED

St. John School Teacher in the West Has Not Been Lost.

A despatch from Winnipeg Saturday told of the disappearance of Miss Lillian E. Murray, a school teacher, from Winnipeg. Miss Murray is a St. John lady. The despatch stated that she was suffering from brain fever and that her sister, Miss M. A. Murray, a nurse, had arrived there with the purpose of taking care of her.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. J. McCaffrey, of Fredericton, came to the city to the funeral of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Monday. James D. O'Leary, of Sackville, was registered at the Victoria Monday.

W. E. Stillen, of St. Martins, was at the Royal Hotel, Monday. Miss Alma Huggard, of Norton, who has been visiting in Hartford (Conn.), arrived on the Boston train Monday.

Miss Frances Pipes left for Halifax last Friday week, by the steamer Corsican. Mr. George Mathew, who was taken ill during the week, is reported convalescent. Everyone regretted the cause of Mrs. Mathew's recall from New York, where she had gone to remain some weeks.

Miss Florence Wilson, daughter of Judge Wilson, of Fredericton, is the guest of Miss Barber, of Colving street. On Wednesday Miss Edna Austin, of Mount Pleasant, entertained during the afternoon in her honor. The function took the form of a dinner and a very enjoyable and sociable time was spent.

On Thursday Miss Barbour entertained at the tea hour in honor of Miss Wilson, and in spite of the very stormy weather quite a number of young people were present. Mrs. Fred. Foster poured tea, Miss Alice Ketchum, Miss Hannah Logan and Miss Helen Frick assisted.

Mrs. Walter Allison and child, who have been spending some time with relatives in St. Louis, returned home on Monday. Mrs. Schofield and children are spending some weeks at Mr. James McAvilly's home, during the winter.

Miss Lou Parks' numerous friends will regret to hear that she is confined to the house with a fractured arm, the result of a fall on the ice last week. Miss Olive Stone is visiting Mrs. A. B. Hannay in Ottawa.

SESSIONS CONCLUDED

Epworth League and Sunday School Institute Work Friday.

The Epworth League and Sunday School Institute of the St. John district held their third meeting Friday in Centenary church.

In the morning a conference on the work of the Sunday school was led by Rev. S. T. Bartlett. The conference was held under four divisions. E. R. Macdonald had charge of the teacher training department, J. N. Harvey of the adult department, Miss Ebel Hawker of the home department, and Mrs. Matthews of the primary department.

At the afternoon session Rev. J. Heaney presided. Rev. S. T. Bartlett led a round-table conference on Epworth League work giving suggestions how to organize Epworth leagues in country circuits; how to deal with the weekly topic; how to make the Epworth league service and the weekly prayer meeting mutually helpful, and how to maintain the forward movement.

Eighteen burial permits were issued last week by the board of health, as follows: Phthisis, three; old age, cerebral hemorrhage, two each; pneumonia, heart failure, burned to death, collapse after operation, tuberculosis, cardiac disease, fracture of spine, one each.

The fifth session of the hen stealing case was held before Justice Mason on Friday afternoon. Harry Gailey, the complainant, and Mark Covey were examined for the case of temperance, has opened a new branch of the Epworth League. The league would succeed in its effort to gather in the young people, when its members could give the assurance of efficacy and answer with the words "come and see."

Rev. N. McLaughlin addressed the institute on the subject of order and reverence in conducting all the meetings, the wise selection of leaders and ever keeping in view that the junior league must be the feeder of the senior league and that the church of the future will draw its forces from the boy and girl members of the junior league of today.

A helpful discussion was held before the institute. The institute concluded its labors at the evening session. Rev. James C. Crook occupied the chair. J. N. Harvey spoke again on the adult Bible class and gave a short history of its organization. There were now, he said, 100 classes in New Brunswick and about 100,000 in America.

In the absence of Rev. H. D. Marr, Rev. W. Squires gave a very practical address on the subject of the Sunday school and missions.

Rev. S. T. Bartlett talked on the question Does a Sunday School Pay? He said that eighty-five per cent of churches have entered the church through the Sunday school. In the Methodist Sunday schools of Canada alone there were 330,000 pupils.

After votes of thanks were passed to Rev. J. S. Heaney, Rev. S. T. Bartlett, the church officers and others, the meeting adjourned.

GOVERNMENT TICKET IS OSMAN AND RYAN

Hillsboro, Jan. 30.—The local government party in continuation here this morning nominated C. J. Osman, M. P. P., and Sanford S. Ryan, M. P. P., as the standard bearers for the legislature at the coming election.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

About 400 people who left their comfortable Carleton homes on Saturday afternoon to witness the harbor in the Ludlow had an experience during Saturday night's hurricane that they will not forget in years.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

LOCAL NEWS

Registrar Jones reports three marriages during last week. There were fifteen births, ten of the infants being boys.

It is said that Chief Justice Barker will continue as head of the equity court for the present, and that Judge White will go on circuit.

Seven candidates were baptized in Watrood street Baptist church Sunday morning and were received into the church at the evening service. Since Rev. Gideon Swin became pastor of the church four months ago thirteen baptisms have taken place.

O. McGuire, a C. P. R. trucker, met with a painful accident, having his right hand badly crushed and some of the bones broken, on Saturday evening while loading cases of merchandise in one of the sheds at Sand Point. He was taken to the emergency hospital where Dr. F. L. Kenney attended him.

Eighteen burial permits were issued last week by the board of health, as follows: Phthisis, three; old age, cerebral hemorrhage, two each; pneumonia, heart failure, burned to death, collapse after operation, tuberculosis, cardiac disease, fracture of spine, one each.

The fifth session of the hen stealing case was held before Justice Mason on Friday afternoon. Harry Gailey, the complainant, and Mark Covey were examined for the case of temperance, has opened a new branch of the Epworth League.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

At Chubb's corner on Saturday afternoon F. L. Potts sold the freehold lot on the west side of the harbor in the name of the William M. Jordan estate, to L. P. D. Tilley for $1,800.

L. P. D. Tilley sold the following property belonging to the Robert A. Jordan estate: 150 acres of land in St. John and Stoker Lake to David Lynch for $105; a canvas tent to R. J. Cox for $20 and an acre of land in Hill posting boards to D. O'Connell for $85.

OBITUARY

Miss Elizabeth Smith.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, a native of this city, died Friday morning in New York, where she had been visiting her brother since Christmas. She was the last surviving daughter of the late Francis Smith, a son of the late H. L. Smith, of Macaulay Bros. & Co. Besides her brother, A. M. Smith, in New York, she leaves two other brothers, Frank and John, in the west.

Miss Margaret Keefe.

Miss Margaret Keefe, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe, who had been suffering from a severe attack of pleurisy for more than a week, died Friday morning in the great regret of a large family circle and numerous friends. Miss Keefe had been a student for a few years in the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Halifax. She spent the summer in the country, to the great benefit of her health, but she was not able to withstand the illness which attacked her lately. Deep grief will be felt over the early death of a bright and promising young woman and there will be much regret for the family in their bereavement.

Wm. H. Seoley.

William H. Seoley died Friday at his home, Protection street, Charlton, aged sixty years. He had been in poor health for some time. He was proprietor of the Pacific House, Sand Point, and had a large circle of friends. He leaves one brother, Albert, and three sisters—Miss Eliza Seoley, Mrs. Richard Fitzgerald, of Church street, and Mrs. Wm. P. Doherty, of the west side.

Mrs. Charlotte Elizabeth Jones.

The death of Mrs. Charlotte E. Jones, wife of Rev. S. Weston Jones, which occurred in Birmingham (Eng.) on Jan. 21, will be regretted by many friends in this city, where she resided until her marriage. Mrs. Jones was the last of three daughters of the late Thomas W. Daniel, of St. John. She leaves three brothers—Rev. Edwin Daniel, of Port Hope (Ont.); Rev. A. W. Daniel, rector of Rothsay, and W. W. Daniel, of this city.

Mrs. Jennie McDade.

Mrs. Jennie McDade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McDade, died on Saturday at the residence of her parents, Mill street, of a tedious and painful illness. She was taken sick last June with some internal trouble and was sent to Boston, where she underwent an operation at the hands of an eminent specialist, but from the effects she never fully recovered.

P. Walter Lantulum.

P. Walter Lantulum died on Saturday afternoon at his residence, 104 Union street. He had been in poor health for some time. He was a prominent member of the church and was well known in the city. He leaves a wife and several children.

Mr. Robert Ireland.

The death of Robert Ireland took place at Salt Springs, Kings county, on Jan. 27, in his seventy-ninth year. He was born in Upland, Kings county, but most of his life had been spent at Salt Springs. He leaves his wife, one son and five daughters to mourn their sad loss.

Mrs. Robert H. Edwards.

Dr. Joseph Andrews, of St. Garden street, received on Saturday morning a telegram with the sad intelligence of the death of his sister, Annie, wife of Robert H. Edwards, who had been in poor health for some time. She was taken sick last June with some internal trouble and was sent to Boston, where she underwent an operation at the hands of an eminent specialist, but from the effects she never fully recovered.

Wm. H. Seoley.

William H. Seoley died Friday at his home, Protection street, Charlton, aged sixty years. He had been in poor health for some time. He was proprietor of the Pacific House, Sand Point, and had a large circle of friends. He leaves one brother, Albert, and three sisters—Miss Eliza Seoley, Mrs. Richard Fitzgerald, of Church street, and Mrs. Wm. P. Doherty, of the west side.

Mrs. Jennie McDade.

Mrs. Jennie McDade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McDade, died on Saturday at the residence of her parents, Mill street, of a tedious and painful illness. She was taken sick last June with some internal trouble and was sent to Boston, where she underwent an operation at the hands of an eminent specialist, but from the effects she never fully recovered.

P. Walter Lantulum.

P. Walter Lantulum died on Saturday afternoon at his residence, 104 Union street. He had been in poor health for some time. He was a prominent member of the church and was well known in the city. He leaves a wife and several children.

Mr. Robert Ireland.

The death of Robert Ireland took place at Salt Springs, Kings county, on Jan. 27, in his seventy-ninth year. He was born in Upland, Kings county, but most of his life had been spent at Salt Springs. He leaves his wife, one son and five daughters to mourn their sad loss.

Mrs. Robert H. Edwards.

Dr. Joseph Andrews, of St. Garden street, received on Saturday morning a telegram with the sad intelligence of the death of his sister, Annie, wife of Robert H. Edwards, who had been in poor health for some time. She was taken sick last June with some internal trouble and was sent to Boston, where she underwent an operation at the hands of an eminent specialist, but from the effects she never fully recovered.

SPECIAL VALUE Men's Heavy Reefers

with Storm Collars, regular $4.50 value. For $3.39 UNION CLOTHING COMPANY

26-28 Charlotte Street, opp. City Market ALEX. CORBET, Manager

dition. She was a noted worker in St. Paul's Episcopal church. At the time of her death she was secretary-treasurer of a movement which had for its object the erection of a home for working girls where they could find comfortable quarters at cost. It is presumed that the energy which she manifested in this and similar work hastened her end.

Unfortunately, owing to ill-health, neither Dr. Andrews nor Mrs. McKeefe will be able to attend the funeral, which will take place this afternoon.

Sister Mary Louis.

Sister Mary Louis died Saturday morning in the Mater Maericius Home, after a lengthy illness. She was formerly Miss Mary E. Walsh, of Milford. She was a member of the community of the Sisters of Charity of St. John for thirty-two years and taught in the schools conducted by the sisters in St. John, Moncton and Fredericton. Her former pupils, as well as a large circle of friends, will hear of her death with regret.

Dr. D. Scovill Fowell.

Dr. D. Scovill Fowell, a former Kings county man, died suddenly on Friday last at his home in Somerville (Mass.). Particulars of his death have not been received.

Dr. Fowell was a son of Ormond E. Fowell, formerly of Clifton, Kings county. He was a grandson of the late Hon. W. P. Fowell, who was surveyor-general of New Brunswick for a number of years. Uncles of the late Dr. Fowell are Hon. G. H. Fowell, of Clifton, and W. P. Fowell, deputy surveyor-general.

Mrs. Andrew McIntyre.

Sussex, Feb. 3.—Judge J. M. McIntyre left Saturday evening for Dalhousie to attend the funeral of his mother, who died in Winnipeg on Thursday last. Deceased was 82 years of age and made her home in Dalhousie.

Mrs. McIntyre went to Winnipeg last fall to spend the winter with her son, Daniel, superintendent of education, and also intended to spend part of the time with her daughter, Mrs. Stewart Scott, of Moncton (Man.).

Mrs. McIntyre was the oldest inhabitant of Restigouche county. She was born in the county in 1823 and has been a resident of the county ever since. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church. Three sons—Rev. P. McIntyre, of North Carolina; Daniel, of McIntyre, of Providence, R. I.; Misses Julia, of Boston, and Katherine, Mary, Josephine and Margaret at home. The news of Mr. Lynch's death was heard with sincere regret here.

The body will arrive here tomorrow, and the funeral will take place from the residence of the deceased on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock with high mass at St. Dunstan's and interment at the Hermitage.

John W. Dickie, Gagetown.

John W. Dickie, 3-John W. Dickie, registrar of deeds and wills for Queens county, dropped dead this afternoon. His sudden death was a great shock to this village where he was so well known and so highly respected. He had not complained of any indisposition and at dinner time appeared as usual. He conducted a business of some $20,000 per year and was one of the best known lumber operators on Miramichi.

Mr. Lynch's children are: Dr. Berton, of Newfoundland; Thomas, of Bath, and Lee, attending college at Montreal. Mrs. Fagrim, of Providence, R. I.; Misses Julia, of Boston, and Katherine, Mary, Josephine and Margaret at home. The news of Mr. Lynch's death was heard with sincere regret here.

Weddings.

Carr-Carmichael. A very pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon at the home of S. B. Fokins, 7 Dorchester street, when his step-daughter, Alice Loretta Carmichael, was united in marriage to Ross Guthrie Carr, of Orville (Wash.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Graham, the presence of relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Carr left on the C. P. R. for their future home in Orville.

Miss Constance G. Smith, the local secretary of the Labrador mission, acknowledged with grateful thanks generous contributions of $100, $20, several of $10 and smaller amounts which have enabled her to send the sum of $200 to Dr. Grenfell for the new laundry in connection with St. Anthony's hospital. As Dr. Grenfell specially asked the St. John branch for this amount it is very satisfactory that through the kindness of interested friends it has been made possible to send it.

Corra Blake Robinson, North Head.

North Head, N. B., Feb. 1.—The death of Corra Blake Robinson, aged nineteen years and eleven months, occurred Thursday morning, Jan. 30, after an illness of two months. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robinson, and grand-

Advertisement for Dr. J. Collis Browne's Eucalypti Extract. The ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE. The Best Remedy Known for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, and CHOLERA. Wholesale Agents: Lyman Bros. & Co., Toronto, Limited.