

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Dec. 10.—Great success attended the bazaar sale last week, not only from a financial point but also as a very pleasant social affair. It was open on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, and on Saturday afternoon, and largely attended. Great credit is due the promoters, Miss Mary and Miss Robert, Miss Puddington and Miss Purdy, all of whom worked hard from beginning to end. The articles offered at bargain prices were almost endless in variety, and being artistically arranged, made the handsome room very attractive. Miss Denham, Miss Anna MacKeen, Mrs. H. F. Puddington, Mrs. J. M. Robinson and Miss Thomson assisted at the tables.

A warm welcome is extended to our former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Longley and Master George, of Prince Albert (Sask.), who are spending a week here with Mrs. and Mrs. C. O. Foss. They are going to Windsor (N.S.). Miss Wilkinson, of Springfield, paid a short visit to Rothsay stopping at the Kennedy House, where on Tuesday she entertained two guests her sister, Miss Mary Wilkinson, and Miss Laura Birch, who are attending Northwood. Many friends here will be interested in the marriage of Miss Ellen Taylor and Mr. Guy Blanchard, which will take place today at Ottawa. Miss Taylor has visited her several times and the groom is a brother of Mr. Paul Blanchard.

Mrs. Daniel is laid up with an attack of grippe.

Mr. Moffet Bell came home from Kings College on Monday and hopes to go to the front with the second contingent.

On Saturday evening the Junior of Northwood gave a delightful entertainment of which will go to the patriotic relief fund. Among those attending from St. John were Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. M. B. Edwards, Mrs. Kenney, Miss Celia Armstrong, Mrs. Lebrun, Mrs. Leonard, Miss Tilley, Miss Alice and Margaret Tilley, Miss Tread, and others.

Mrs. Murray MacLennan, of St. John, was among Rothsay friends on Wednesday. Miss Mary Robertson, Miss Puddington, Miss Purdy and Miss Madge Robertson to name a few, were present. The proceeds of the sale, $130, were handed over to the Rothsay Red Cross Society and the money will be immediately sent forward to Europe for hospital supplies.

Miss Edith Hegan, of St. John, lunched with Miss Madge Robertson on Monday and was with her on Tuesday. Miss Hegan is going as a nurse with the second contingent.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peters and son, Dr. and Mrs. B. Edwards and daughter, of St. John, were guests at the Kennedy House, where also Mrs. Starr entertained her son and six other of the college boys at dinner.

Mrs. Kenney spent the week-end at the Kennedy House, where also Mrs. Starr entertained her son and six other of the college boys at dinner.

Mrs. Muriel Gillis was week-end guest of Mrs. Kate Smith Brock.

Lieutenant Doble was on Tuesday a visitor from St. John at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Steele.

Mrs. Andrew Blair entertained informally on Tuesday for Miss Alice MacKeen.

On Saturday evening the creek is being greatly enjoyed. After a visit to the river on Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allison, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Price, Miss Puddington, Miss Allison, and Mrs. Purdy were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blanchard.

Netherwood will close with its usual Christmas supper on the 18th inst, when many graduates are expected to be present.

Many friends of Mrs. E. S. Carter are expected to know she is confined to her room with rheumatism.

Mr. F. Bryden, of Winnipeg, spent a day or two here at the Kennedy House.

Tomorrow afternoon a few of Mrs. R. E. Puddington's friends are invited to have a birthday tea with her.

Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, of St. John, is expected this week-end to visit at the home of her son, Mr. John M. Robinson.

Mrs. Dorothy Hooper, who has been guest of her aunt, Miss Hooper, left on Friday for her home at Kingston (Ont.).

Friday and Saturday were spent by Mrs. George McArthur at Sussex, with Mr. McArthur, who is there on business.

The Monday evening club which has been studying Hamlet, under Miss Eleanor Robinson's leadership, is to hold its closing meeting at the home of the Misses Gilbert on Monday evening.

Mr. John Williams, of the 26th battalion, was here from St. John last evening at dinner guest of his aunt, Mrs. W. J. Davidson.

On Nov. 28, were received here last week by a number of their friends, who were greatly surprised to learn of the very busy event. The Misses MacMonagie have been spending the past summer and autumn in California with relatives. A few weeks ago Mr. Flewelling left St. Stephen for Los Angeles to claim his bride and will make his future home in that city, while Mr. and Mrs. Stuffer will reside in Riverside. Mr. Flewelling and Mrs. Stuffer have always been favorites among their St. Stephen friends, who wish them every happiness for the future.

Mrs. Maude Marks most pleasantly entertained a family party at dinner on Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Blair entertained several ladies informally this afternoon at her home.

A delightful social evening was enjoyed in Elder Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening. The younger members of the club were the entertainers. There was a splendid musical and literary program, and the evening was most social and informal. Misses Mildred Todd and Elsie Lawson were the hostesses during the evening, and a bevy of young ladies served refreshments.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, Dec. 9.—Mr. Neil McDougall, of Cheltenham (N.B.), who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Alex. McEwen and Miss Clara Kerr, returned home this week.
