

Commissioner Nicholson presenting Long Service Medal to S/Sgt. J. R. Prudence at Halifax, on Sept. 17, 1951.

Cpl. R. D. Waugh who is employed at Division Headquarters. He served with the Canadian Army from 1914 to 1920 and with the Nova Scotia Police prior to joining the RCMP in April 1932. His former home was Dublin, Ireland.

Cpl. W. V. MacKinnon, MM, served with the Canadian Infantry from 1914 to 1919 and with the Nova Scotia Police. He is now stationed in Halifax with the C.I.B. His home town is Sydney Mines, N.S.

Cpl. D. Clarkson who has served at many points throughout Canada and was born in Falkirk, Scotland. He is employed in the Division Headquarters offices.

"Marine" Division

S/Sgt. J. R. Prudence who was born in Barrow-in-Furness, England, and served with the Preventive Service afloat before joining the "Marine" Division in April 1932. During the war he served with the RCNR (R) and held the rank, on discharge, of Lieutenant-Commander (E).

Of the ex-members is ex-Cpl. S. F. Hall who originally came from Vivian, Man., but who has made Nova Scotia his home for many years. During his 20 years' service with the Force he served at many points throughout the Dominion.

Ex-Cpl. L. W. Ennis who was born in Elmsdale, N.S., and resides in Halifax, N.S., served with the Nova Scotia Police and then with the RCMP for over 20 years.

The requirements for the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Long Service Medal are that a member should serve 20 years of qualifying pensionable service, with good conduct. In making the presentation Commissioner Nicholson commented that it was appropriate that the first Long Service Medals presented by him in his capacity as Commissioner of the Force were to members of this division.
