

X. And be it enacted, That any woman married or who shall be married to a natural born subject or person naturalized under the authority of this or any other or former Act, either of this Province or of either of the late Provinces of Lower or Upper Canada, shall be deemed and taken to be herself naturalized, and have all the rights and privileges of a natural born subject.

Women married to British subjects to be ipso facto naturalized.

XI. And be it enacted, That the said Justice of the Peace or other persons as aforesaid, for administering the oath or affirmation above mentioned, shall be entitled to recover and receive from the person to whom the same may be administered, the sum of one shilling and three pence and no more; and that the Clerk of the Peace or Clerk of the Recorder's Court shall for reading and fying the Certificate of Residence, and preparing and issuing the certificate of naturalization under the Seal of the Court, be entitled to recover and receive from such person the sum of two shillings and six pence and no more; and that the Registrar of the County shall, for recording the said last mentioned Certificate be entitled to recover and receive from such person the sum of two shillings and six pence, and a further sum of one shilling and three pence for every search and certified copy of the same, and no more.

Fees upon the said oaths and certificates.

XII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no person shall be disturbed in the possession or shall be precluded from the recovery of, or prevented from purchasing or disposing of any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this Province, on the ground of his or her being or having been an Alien, or on the ground of any person from or through whom he or she may claim being or having been an Alien; and any such purchase or disposal of property by such person or persons shall be held and taken to be as valid and effectual in law, as if Aliens may hold and transmit real property.
