sporls

Intramurals Men's. . .

On November Stew Duncan On November 2nd, a antastic swimming and diving competition was held. Our Walker Randy Phillips Kim Walker, Randy Phillips, Tim job well dône. Winners of various events include:
D. Sissons - 50 yards freestyle; T. Platt - 50 yard backstroke; B. Ritchie - 50 yards yards breaststroke; B Ritchie 100 yards Individual Medley Kappa Sigma - 200 yards Medley Relay; LDS - 100 yards Inner Tube Relay; LDS - 100 yards Egg ' n Spoon Relay; $G$ O - 1 meter diving contest; Forest - Splash diving contest.

Medicine displayed their aquatic prowess in claiming team championship points.

Our "participants of the week" award goes out to the famed aquatic stars of the LDS unit. These exceptional athietes claiming victory in both novelty contests of the swimming and diving event. Good job, guys!

On Tuesday, November 5 our Basketball, Golf and Freethrow event was held. A direct credit to Doug Sefcik and Rodger Wiedemann for a job well done! Placing first in the "Golf" section of the event was Leigh Goldie of Phys. Ed. and L.D. Cantine of Dents. Dents claimed champion laurels in the "Freethrow" section as Drew Cahoon provided a superb show of hooping talent.

Initial games in our basketball schedule commenced last week. Last year's second division champions, Delta Upsilon, was promoted to First Division and displayed their A" 47-33.
Big news from last week is the final results of the Indoor Soccer competition. The defending champions, Chinese Students' Association, again placed first with a tight 3-2 victory over Medicine. Big hero was Mike Shiu who netted two goais for the Chinese team. Obtaining the last tally was Chan Pak Lin. Replying for Medicine was K. Ghali and $P$ Zuberbaler. Our thanks goes fine job the referees who did a games.

Up coming event is our track and field activity. Tuesday. November 19th is the deadline date and Saturday November $23 r$ is the day of competition. Action begins at 9:00 a.m. in the Kinsmen Fieldhouse.

Unit Managers of the week are Leo Malowamy and Brian Stewart of Medicine. Both of these extremely dedicated young men have been operating on their fellow students to participate in Intramural activities. Their success has been evident in many victorious results obtained by the Medicine unit. Keep up the good work fellows!

A reminder to all you fun-seekers about co-recreational activities! The co-rec raquetball tournament will occur this weekend on November 16th and 17th. The tournament draw is available for observation by entrants. Co-Rec bridge continues successive Tuesdays beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Room Winston Car Rally will Co-Rec

Saturday on November 16th Entry deadline date for prospective entrants is Friday November 15th. This year's rally sponsored by the Winston Tobacco Company. To enter one needs to submit a Winston cigarette package front or 1.00 fee. This car rally will be an event maintained for beginning car rallyists. Awards will be presented to the individual champions, and to the unit receiving the most participation points

Don't forget the $\mathrm{Co}-\mathrm{Rec}$ Wolleyball tournament on Wednesday, November 17th. Keep in touch for information regarding this event.
If you require any information about Intramurals Office in the Men's Intramural Physical Education of the Physical Education building. for the participation ane yours Come out and enjoy your fun

And Women's

Last Thursday night saw the successful completion of successful completion of Intramural Volleyball. Six teams Intramural Volleyball. Six teams Physical ent robin and demonstrated Eacation demonstrated the most endurance and emerged victorious.

Broom
Broomball runs Tuesday and 7.9 and Bowling will take place this Saturday in will take place The Paddleball Tournament The Paddleball Tournament November 23 and the Squash Tournament on Squash November 30. Watch for sign up sheets or sign up at the Women's Intramural Office.

Women's Intramural free-skating will take place Monday evenings from 7 p.m. - 9 p.m. from November 18 to Dec. 2. Keep Fit will now run on Wednesday as well as Tuesday and Thursday in the Fending Room from 12:00-1:00.

The Novelty Swim Meet was great success with Kappa Alpha Theta winning the most novelty events.

B'ball PANDAS ready

by Peter Best

The Pandas basketball team pens their Canada West University Athletic Association (CWUAA) schedule on the weekend with two home games against the University of Beria Viketes.
Beginning Friday evening at 6:30 U of A fans will see a Panda team with some important changes from last year. Frist, Pandas have a new coach: Debbie Shogan is replacing Kathy Broderick. Master's thesis in on her Education after in Physical Education, after studying a the and Western Ontaskatchewa The Ontario.
h mixture of veterank with a mixture of veterans and are leagye all-star players Holloway guards Kathy Monda Deena Mitchell and Nicole Robert and forwards Charlote Shmyr and Diane Chisholm.

Among the first-year P are two players, Jennifer Cooper high Rita Spect, who were in high school last year. Three experience ples have two years experience playing for Alberta colleges. Nora Way and Sonja Smeland were both at Medicine Hat College, and Valerie Kallis Noray for Red Deer College. Norah Triska, last season's team Shogan player this year.
Shogan expects that her team will be competing in a Victoria should league this year. with most of bery tough plavers back of last season's payditions UBC some talented achans. UBC, the defending all-star have lost their still, hik Silcott, but they Saskatchewan has one of thers players in the country in $k$ Kussler the country in Karen Kussler. University u young tor who had a very expected to be last year, are

But even with

PANDA volleyball in Victoria

The Panda Volleyball team leaves for Victoria on Thursday night to play in the first of three C.W.U.A.A. tournaments that are being held to determine the league's representative in the Canadian championships. The games will be held November 15 and 16, and Pandas will meet Lethbridge, Calgary, U.B.C. in the round robin U.B.C. in the round robin tournament. Pandas leave for Victoria on the heels of a good performance last weekend tournament held lut of 8 ar. The giris won 5 robin to meet Sas the round

Women's curling

Any women interested in reprsenting the $U$ of $A$ in the C.W.U.A.A. women's curling championship should be trying year the team will not be selected on an all star basis, but will rather be chosen as an entire ink. The playdowns will be held early in lanuary and the held selected wilt. and the team C.W.U.A.A. championships the February 7th and 8th Furth details will be released as soon the tournament is organized 4 sul and then put scored of 15-9, 15-9 against put up a tough battle final. Cals won the Cals in the but Pandas the tournament university teams at the of the and gained valuable experience for their upcoming matches.

opposition the Pandas should do well. Shogan says that her team has a lot of potential. Their success will be proportional to the degrec that they fulfill that potential.
ersatilo A will play a very ersatile style of basketbal under Shogan. They'll try to emphasize good defense usually. with help-ou man-to-man coverage. On offense Pandas will fast break whenever they can. When they don't get the opportunity 10 rum they ll use a set offense; with as much free-lancing as possible

Looking to the upcoming games with Victoria, Shogan says that the Pundas will have to work extra hard on reboundine! if they're to win. The Vikettes are a strong team and they have the leaque's best rebounder Edna Ritchie Pandas' games start at 6:30 Friday and Saturday nights in the Main Gym.

The other two C.W.U.A.A tournaments will be held after the Christmas break. Pandas will enter steveral local pournamems important of these will be the $U$ of A Invitational, which will be held the last weekend of November.

