	Monday Sept. 15th/41		A heavy rainstorm during the night showed the roof drainage from the Administration Building to be out of order and inadequate. Men worked all night to avoid a break-through of water into the building. Though the water rose 7 inches in the basement, through the efforts of the duty watch no damage to equipment stored in the basement occurred. Flt/Lt R.G.Nunn assumed charge of the Link Trainer Section. The Station Warrant Officer and Headquarters Sergeant-Major installed in a new office in a more convenient location, near the main entrance to the Administration Building.
	Tuesday Sept. 16th/41		F/O O.R. Alty, Trade Test Officer, visited the Station to hold Trade Tests. F/O H.M. Bell also acted on the Board along with Sgt. W.P. Hague. The following classes were trade tested: <table border="0" data-bbox="1074 878 2375 1003"> <tr> <td>2 - Clerk Accountant</td> <td>1 - Electrician</td> <td>1 - Clerk Stenographer</td> </tr> <tr> <td>1 - Clerk Medical General</td> <td>1 - Laboratory Assistant Standard</td> <td>1 - Carpenter Standard</td> </tr> <tr> <td>1 - Cook</td> <td>1 - Nursing Orderly Standard</td> <td>1 - Clerk Accounts Std.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>3 - Equipment Assistant</td> <td>2 - Operators Telephone Standard</td> <td>1 - Clerk Medical</td> </tr> </table> A new parking lot for Station personnel was opened, filling a long-felt need.	2 - Clerk Accountant	1 - Electrician	1 - Clerk Stenographer	1 - Clerk Medical General	1 - Laboratory Assistant Standard	1 - Carpenter Standard	1 - Cook	1 - Nursing Orderly Standard	1 - Clerk Accounts Std.	3 - Equipment Assistant	2 - Operators Telephone Standard	1 - Clerk Medical
