

2 Oct. 1920	Prince Rupert, B.C.: "Liberalism and western Canada."	D 4673
6 Oct. 1920	Edmonton: Liberals and Progressives.	D 4681
8 Oct. 1920	Camrose, Alta.: Liberals and Progressives: government extravagance.	D 4697
9 Oct. 1920	Wetaskiwin, Alta.: Government extravagance.	D 4705
11 Oct. 1920	Calgary: General political situation.	D 4709
12 Oct. 1920	Revelstoke, B.C.: Political conditions in Canada.	D 4723
13 Oct. 1920	Kamloops, B.C.: Tariff reform; national railways.	D 4728
14 Oct. 1920	Vernon, B.C.: Business interests and the Conservative government.	D 4738
16 Oct. 1920	Nelson, B.C.: Combines investigations; tariffs.	D 4747
18 Oct. 1920	Cranbrook, B.C.: The financial policy and methods of the Conservative administration.	D 4758
19 Oct. 1920	Lethbridge, Alta.: Tariff and agricultural policy.	D 4765.
20 Oct. 1920	Medicine Hat: The Liberal party and the natural resources of the prairie provinces.	D 4778
22 Oct. 1920	Moose Jaw, Sask.: Government autocracy vs. the Progressives.	D 4789
25 Oct. 1920	Regina: Reunion of the Liberal party with farmers and labour.	D 4807
27 Oct. 1920	Saskatoon: The doctrines of the Liberal party.	D 4814
28 Oct. 1920	Prince Albert: Agricultural policy.	D 4828
2 Nov. 1920	St. Boniface, Man.: The Liberal party and the farmer and labour groups.	D 4841
2 Nov. 1920	Winnipeg: Control of natural resources.	D 4844
3 Nov. 1920	Winnipeg: The place of women in the new Canadian political era.	D 4854
3 Nov. 1920	Dauphin, Man.: Progressive movements vs. the big interests.	D 4860
4 Nov. 1920	Minnedosa, Man.: The need for representative government.	D 4864
5 Nov. 1920	Brandon, Man.: The control of natural resources.	D 4867
8 Nov. 1920	Yorkton, Man.: The Meighen government and the need for an election.	D 4871
18 Nov. 1920	Aylmer, Ont.: The government vs. progressive forces.	D 4877