Ottawa, December 30, 1910.

Rev. Sir,

Referring to official letter of October 26th of last year in which you were authorized to purchase household equipment to the extent of $75.00 for Victoria McVicar and Florence Severight, ex-pupils of the Crowstand Boarding School, I have to ask you to be good enough to report by return mail what action was taken. Only one account has been received and that is for goods supplied the latter pupil.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Rev. W. McWhinney,

Principal,

Crowstand Boarding School,

Kamsack, Sask.
