

all above just there! It was a lovely service, so far removed from the crude style of a few years ago. Thank God. I didn't miss it myself! J. R. K.

We all thought Lyon very much improved and quite enjoyed having them here for lunch. They were up about 10.30 a.m. I stayed till about noon. I asked Mr. Mackenzie to come with them, as Mr. Rean was coming up on business, but he had his other man with him and couldn't come. There was no room for Mr. Rean. I think this is the last P.S.!!

him. So many people have spoken of that picture of Mary as being symbolic (?) of the spirit of aviation.
It really is a splendid picture. I Mr. Wilson (Stacy) is very proud of it.
Mary was the dearest boy when he was home at Christmas. He was so happy to be here & to be able to do so many things for us all. We were fixed up the tree etc. on Christmas Eve and I want always to remember him as he was that night! He was will probably change him, but I have that one precious memory.

John & Mary are coming up this afternoon for the week-end. I saw Mary yesterday, felt very sorry for her. She is going to try to get a job for six months as the B's says that is
