The accused, C-36605 Pte. Guyette, S., having been warned and duly sworn elects to give evidence on oath, states:

O'Brien, Livingston and myself were drinking together on the 24 NOV 44. We were drinking Cognac and got pretty drunk. We went up town and went into the Hermans Cafe and found the English soldiers there. I decided to put them out and went over and told them so. I followed Pte. War outside and there we had a fight. I turned around and went back in the Cafe and Pte. Hunt followed me in. One of the boys told him to get out and Pte. Hunt walked over towards him, taking a Sten gun off his shoulder. That was when the fight started with him. I don't know who struck the first blow. He was knocked down and then we left. I do not remember meeting up with CSM Watson that evening.
