

(2). The officers and members of the Council, hereinafter provided for, shall be selected from the male members of the Society over twenty-one years of age, who are in good standing, of the following classes—Honorary, Benefactors, Life and Regular members; provided always that the nominees for the office of Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Curator and Librarian, shall be proposed in writing by the Council. And, it shall be optional with the Council to nominate any one person for any two of these offices.

(3). The officers shall enter upon the discharge of their respective duties immediately after the close of the Annual meeting, and shall continue in office until the election of their successors.

ARTICLE VI.

THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENTS.

The President shall take the chair at all meetings of the Society and Council at which he is present, and shall regulate and keep order in the proceedings. It shall be his duty to state and put questions, according to the sense and intention of the meeting, and to carry into effect the Constitution and By-laws of the Society. In the absence of the President, a Vice-President shall preside; and if the President and Vice-Presidents are absent, the Members present may elect a chairman.

ARTICLE VII.

THE TREASURER.

The treasurer shall have the custody of the money, bonds and other securities of the Society, and deposit same in the name of the Society, in such chartered bank as the Council may direct. Funds so deposited to be withdrawn by cheque signed by the Treasurer.

He shall keep regular accounts of his receipts and expenditures, in suitable books provided for the purpose.
