

Mrs. Livingstone, half tub butter and 3 bottles of preserves.
Perkins, Ince & Co., 50 lbs. of mixed nuts and 2 boxes raisins
A. V. DeLaporte & Co., 1 turkey and 6 ducks.

A friend, 1 turkey and 1 goose.
Fulton Michie & Co., 14 lbs. of raisins and 14 lbs. currants.

Mr. A. M. Smith, box of raisins
G. P. Bezley, side of beef and roast beef.

Mr. Dunbar, barrel of oatmeal.

" A. Reid, 8 gallons of milk.

" McMillan $\frac{1}{2}$ case herrings.

Mrs. Kemp, 7 loaves of bread.
Lloyd Bros., large cake and charlotte russe.

Mr. Pell, 11 doz. loaves of bread.

Mr. Brown, 50 lbs. fresh and salt meat.

J. A. Lylle & Co., 5 gallons of vinegar.

Alfred H. Dickey, 4 bags of potatoes.

Wm. Warwick & Co., 50 sheets scrap pictures.

Mr. Wm. Gooderham and Mr. John Macdonald, illustrated Sunday School papers.

Methodist Book Room, illustrated Sunday School papers.

R. Walker & Sons, 8 Scotch caps, 5 felt hats, 5 boys' suits, and half dozen suits under-clothing.

Mr. Parks, half doz. cloth caps.

Mrs. Reid, cast-off clothing.

Also other donations without name of sender.

The managers also beg to acknowledge with thanks the following contributions to the childrens' Christmas Tree :

Mr. S. B. Brush, promoter, Mr. Kilgour and Sunday School teachers, 9 doz. oranges, 9 doz. apples, and 25 lbs. cake.

Mrs. (Dr.) Smith, box mixed candies.

Mrs. A. M. Cosby, 100 bags of mixed candies.

The Misses Joseph, 100 bags of mixed candies.

Mr. W. W. Parke, box of mixed candies

Watson Bros., 20 lbs. mixed candies.

Mrs. Sullivan, Trinity Square, 6 lbs. mixed candies.

Mr. S. B. Brush, 100 New Year's cards.

Mr. R. Kilgour, 100 festival boxes and 100 Xmas cards.

Mr. John Hallam, $10 worth of toys.

Mrs. H. Nelson, $6 worth of toys.

Mr. Sears, New York, per Mrs. Humphrey, $10 worth of toys and books.

Too much thanks cannot be given to the Messrs. Taylor Brothers for supplying annually the paper on which the Reports are printed ; also thanks to Dr. Adams (Dentist) for gratuitous services.