I like Pippa's song from Browning's "Pippa Passes":—

*"The year's at the spring,
The day's at the morn,
The morning's at seven,
The hillside's dew-pearled,
The sun's on the beam,
The lark's on the wing,
God's in His Heaven, —All's right with the world."*

*Every morning the year is at the spring for the soul. We die once every twenty-four hours, says Pygmalion and every morning are re-created to life in the world.
Where do we go when we go to sleep? is the great question we never would all like answered. Nevertheless every day is a fresh beginning, and every day let us believe that "God's in His Heaven, all's right with the world."*

—EMMA SCOTT-RAFF.

What the Spider Told

"I was spinning a web on the rose vine," said the spider, "and the little girl was sewing patchwork on her doorstep. Her thread knotted and her needle broke and her eyes were full of tears. 'I can't do it!' she cried; 'I can't! I can't!' Then the mother came and told her to look at me. Every time I spun a nice thread, and tried to fasten it to a branch, the wind blew and tore it away. This happened several times, but at last I made one that did not break, and fastened it and spun other threads to join it. Then the mother smiled.

"What a patient spider!" she said. "The little girl smiled, too, and took up her work. And when the sun went down there was a beautiful web in the rose vine and a square of beautiful patchwork on the doorstep."—The Young Evangelist.

THE EQUITY LIFE ASSURANCE COM- PANY OF CANADA

Guarantees more to its policy-holders generally for their premium payments than is guaranteed by any other Company or Society doing business in Canada. Canadian total abstainers sacrifice immense sums of money by failing to get the terms it offers.

Inquiry at Head Office, written or personal, will satisfy you of the fact.
