

without so much as a moments notice. Who has got a lease of this present life? "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee." Alas! alas! it is to be feared that multitudes around us will have to exchange their slothful "time enough" for a heart-rending "too late!"

Reader, art thou one of those who say, or think if they do not say, "time enough?" If so let me entreat thee, most earnestly and solemnly, to hearken to a warning voice. Pause for a moment, and consider, God says, "Now is the accepted time, and now is the day of salvation." No foundation here, for "time enough;" no, nor anywhere in the inspired volume. Is Jesus not worthy of the best of our days, and all our powers? What sayest thou, beloved reader? I call upon thee, most urgently and solemnly, to come now just as thou art to Jesus. Fling far away from thee Satan's "time enough," and act on God's "now." Be assured there is no time to be lost. Every step you take, in your present course, is a step in the direction of the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone. Oh! do come, this moment to that gracious Saviour who stands with open arms, ready to receive all who come to Him, and who has said, "Him that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out."

Depth of mercy, can there be,
Mercy still reserved for me?

There for me the Saviour stands;
Shows His wounds, and spreads His hands!
