THE ARTHUR ADVOCATE.

MOUNT FOREST EXPRESS, LUTHER, AND MINTO JOURNAL.

Agriculture, Commerce, and Education.

ARTHUR, (C.W.) SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 22, 1862.

No. 36.

Angry Words.

Angry words are often spoken in haste, and are often spoken in haste. Angry words are often spoken in haste, and are often spoken in haste. Angry words are often spoken in haste, and are often spoken in haste. Angry words are often spoken in haste, and are often spoken in haste.

The Bachelor's Love-Making.

A STORY OF NEW YORK.

You would have known it for a bachelor's den the minute you put your head in the door! Blue, spicy wreaths of cigar smoke, curling up to the ceiling—newspapers under the table, Castle soap in a tiny bronze card receiver, slippers on the mantelpiece, and coffee on a tray.

Parities.

A man about town observed the morning after a debauch, 'Had I leander practised swimming with ball the perseverance of my head, he'd never have been drowned.'

THE WIFE.

It needs no guilt to break the husband's heart. The absence of content, the muttering of spleen, the untidy dress and cheerless home, the forbidding scowl and desolate earth—these and other nameless neglects, without a crime among them, have hurried to the quick the heart's core of many a man, and planted there beyond the reach of cure, the germ of dark despair.

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.

As the newspapers are full of remedies for this dangerous affection of the throat—some of them very silly—we give one used by some eminent physicians, and we have never known it to fail if applied early.

THE RED RIVER COLONY.

This Colony is represented by the Northwestern as being in a state of universal discontent, with its government; and an objection to the United States is said to find advocates.

DEATH OF ABSALOM SHADE, Esq.

The Leader says the Town of Galt had lost an old and prominent resident. In our last issue we mentioned the serious illness of Mr. Shade, from congestion of the lungs.

THE ELEGANT POOR OF NEW YORK.

The New York World, speaking of the applications for food, on the part of the poor of that city, thus depicts one of the melancholy results of the war:

AN EMIGRANT TO BRITISH COLUMBIA FLEECE OF $500.

Early on Saturday morning police constable Nolan took into custody a man named John McCallum, who was drunk in the house of Mrs. McLaughlin, on Stanley Street, Toronto.

THE BACHELOR'S LOVE-MAKING.

Mark went home the happiest individual that ever trod a New York pavement. Indeed, so great was his felicity that he indulged in various gymnastic exercises not heeding the gruff caution of a policeman, who probably had forgotten his own courting days.

THE WIFE.

How far is it from Cores to Ryde? demanded a gentleman of a poor tired pedestrian. 'I don't know how far it is to Ryde,' answered the poor man, 'but it is a precious long way to walk.'

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.

Nothing hides a blemish so completely as cloth of gold. This is the first lesson that heirs and heiresses commonly learn. Would that equal pains were taken to convince them that the having inherited a good cover for blemishes does not entail any absolute necessity of providing blemishes for it to cover.

THE RED RIVER COLONY.

The Hudson's Bay Company to impose, by its nomination, a Government upon the Colony; and no time ought to be lost in effecting a change. What that change ought to be is not so easily determined.

Parities.

A Superintendent of police once made an entry in his register, from which the following is an extract: 'The prisoner set upon me, called me an ass, a precious dolt, a scarecrow, a ragamuffin, and an idiot—all of which I hereby certify to be true.'

THE WIFE.

A waggish old squire was one winter's day walking with the minister, when the private and fell. 'My friend,' said the reverend gentleman, 'sinners stand on slippery places.' 'I see they do,' said the squire, 'but unfortunately I can't.'
