

All "Pullers" Are Not Bronchos!

The "Broncho Buster" has been made just a little stronger than is necessary to hold the hardest puller. Perhaps you will need a halter like the "Broncho Buster" to hold that big colt of yours when you tie him up this fall.

The "Broncho Buster" is a three-ply leather halter, with middle ply of tough rawhide and outer layers of harness leather. The leather gives stability, while the rawhide adds strength. Mountings are of heavy wrought steel. Weight about 3-lbs.

Toulouse Geese.

Please tell me, through your column of Questions and Answers, where I could procure Toulouse geese. I am anxious to secure a trio of pure-breds for breeding purposes. A SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—Look up our advertising columns. Parties having these geese for sale would do well to advertise in this paper.

Colic Remedy.

Could you, through your paper, give me a recipe for a colic draught for a horse, which could be kept bottled ready for use when needed? FARMER.

Ans.—Our standard remedy for spasmodic colic is one and one-half ounces each of laudanum and nitrous ether, together with one-half ounce fluid extract of belladonna in a pint of water. These are better left unmixed till required, but can be kept in readiness so only a minute would be required to put them together. Remember this is for spasmodic colic. Flatulent colic requires different treatment altogether. If your horse has spasmodic colic, he will stretch himself as if to urinate; lift his hind legs, and look back at his flanks. He will throw himself down when in pain, and try and roll upon his back. There is the customary pawing and rolling accompanying this trouble, but no abnormal swelling. His bowels will operate often, as though he had a slight touch of diarrhea.

Veterinary.

Tympanitis.

Calves at pasture were put into stable on account of the night being cold. Each was fed its usual evening meal. In the morning an eight-months-old heifer was sick, lying down and breathing heavily, and her hair covered with moisture. I gave her Epsom salts. She salivated a good deal during the day. She was bloated some, and the breathing became more difficult, and in about eight hours after first noticing her sick, she died, evidently from suffocation.

C. S. N.

Ans.—The calf evidently suffered and died from tympanitis (the formation of excessive quantities of gasses in the first stomach). This was due to indigestion, which often occurs without appreciable cause, due to a temporary weakness of the digestive glands, the cause of which in many cases cannot be explained. The sweating was caused by pain, and the difficult breathing by pressure of the distended stomach upon the diaphragm. The administration of about 1½ ounces oil of turpentine in ½ pint raw linseed oil, to be repeated in an hour if necessary, would have probably given relief, and in case it did not, she should have been punctured on the left side between the last rib and point of hip. POULTRY AT THE WINTER FAIR.

The "Ontario," as the Ontario Provincial Winter Fair, Guelph, is affectionately called by the poultrymen, has for some years been the Mecca of all progressive people engaged in the poultry business. A liberal classification has always been provided, and this year the Poultry Committee has been especially active, and as a result is able to announce a particularly large list of specials in which everything, from the largest Brahma to the smallest Bantam, and from the smallest canary or guineapig to the largest turkey cock, is remembered. In all classes of fowls, turkeys, geese, and ducks, the first prize in the regular list will increase by $1.00 in the special list. In pigeons, all first prizes will be increased by 50 cents.

In the dressed poultry department, all first prizes are being increased from $3.00 to $10.00, special prizes totalling $160 being offered in this department alone.

In the classes for pheasants, rabbits, covies, and canaries, the prizes are being largely supplemented in the special list. Altogether, about $1,000 in cash is disposed of in this special list.

The numbers of cups, shields, medals, special ribbons, and other trophies, exceeds that of any former year. One of these special lists will be mailed you if you send a post card to the Secretary, R. W. Wade, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Choose Good Stanchions

What's YOUR idea of a GOOD Stanchion?

Isn't it one that will never bulge or sag, one that will last you a lifetime, one that will lock and unlock as easily a year from now or ten years from now as on the day you bought it—and one that holds the cattle surely? The O. K. Canadian Stanchion comes up to all these requirements—because we've been making Stanchions so long that we're on to every wrinkle in the business and we know just how to make every part best and what to make it of.

Frames of the best U-bar or channel-section steel—so strong and rigid that they simply can't bulge or bend.

Swing bars hinged high instead of at the bottom—so they will always be easy to lock and unlock—and fixed so that they cannot fall to the floor when open.

A lock that's so simple that it can't get out of order in years of use, easy to work, and proof against the "slickest" cow.

The arched post design of O. K. Canadian Stalls prevents the cattle's walking through into the feed trough or pulling feed back into the stall and still leaves plenty of room at the top for operating the Stanchion, without sacrificing strength or increasing the cost. Our patented clamp makes the work of setting up "O. K. Canadian" equipment simpler and quicker than any other.

We have a couple of booklets that are chock-full of interesting points for dairymen and they'll show you how to figure just what an "O. K. Canadian" equipment will cost for your barn whether you want just the Stanchions or whether you want to put in complete metal stalls. They're yours if you'll ask for them. Department A.
