Rev. Osborne Troop and a few enthusiasts are trying to raise $20, 000 to build what they are going to call a Jewish Church, presumably to promote Christianity among the Jews, but the brand of Christianity that they offer is not the same that was offered to them at the foot of the Cross, and will require a miracle of the first ordee for its acceptance if we know anything about the Jews, for they are a pretty shrewd people.

The Jews, according to Rev. Robhold, of Toronto, have much common with Christians (of proselytizing type). This is true, but they must have all in com before they can be called up-to-date Protestants. When they will able to boast of a religion apiece they will be fully seasoned. Mr. John A. Paterson at a recent meeting in the Y.M.C.A. hall said that there were more Godless men in the world to-day than 1900 years ago; that every second there was born into the world a non-Christian soul; that there was enough money in the world to evangelize it in this generation; that there men enough to do it if they chose; that every country in the world was open to Christianity, and that Canada doesn't furnish enough money for missions. That there are more Godless men in the world to-day than there were 1900 years ago is not astonishing, for the world has grown some since the Savior's time and the weeds generally grow where the good grain tries to thrive. The fault committed by those non-Christian souls coming into the world, descends from our first parents, who wanted to interpret God's word after their own fashion aided Henry C. Ottawa, August 30, 1909.

Mr. V. A. Landry, Director of "Evangeline", Moncton, N.B.

Sir, —Many numbers of the journal under your direction have been forwarded to me, and I have noticed with regret that various articles contain regrettable insinuations against religious authority, which it is the bounden duty of all Catholics to respect and to cause to be respected so far as they can.

The Catholic journalist cannot depart from the rules laid down on many occasions by Sovereign Pontiffs for the guidance of public writers. In the Encyclical "Longinqua" of January 6, 1896, Leo XIII declared that "Catholic writers, instead of doing a work that is useless and beneficial, on the contrary, do harm wherever they undertake to sit in judgment on the decisions or lacts of their Bishops; and when jutting aside the respect due to them, they criticize and censure them, overlooking the confusion and disorder resulting from such conduct. them, overlooking the confusion and disorder resulting from such conduct. These writers should be mindful of their duty and not pass the bounds of moderation, Bishops are invested with great authority, and are entitled to the honor which befits the majesty and sanctity of their functions. No one should fail to show this respect, but it is especially in tions. No one should fail to show this respect, but it is especially in-cumbent on Catholic journalists to manifest and proclaim it."

I also regret that your journal has condemned in violent terms Catholic ought "to be shunned as pests." All sons of the Church have received a spirit of grace and liberty which cannot be shackled so long as they live up to the life of God. All Catholics, without distinction of blood or language have the right to the or language, have the right to join any society approved by the Church.
