

The Same Jesus.

Bessie's papa was a fisherman. Bessie had often seen him go away out on the big ocean. This time, as the boat moved slowly out on the big waves, the little girl heard some one say: "Ah! it's a hard way to get a living. No one can tell who may come back alive!"

Suddenly Bessie's heart grew heavy and sad. Her eyes filled with tears, and she reached out her arms and called "Papa! oh papa, come back, come back to Bessie and mamma!"

Mamma heard her, and she said "Why, my little Bessie, what is the matter?"

The little girl hid her face in mamma's arms, and told her what she had heard, and how she was afraid she would never see her dear papa any more.

Then her mamma told Bessie a story of Jesus who was asleep in a fisherman's boat once, when He was very tired. And a great storm came, and the wind blew; and the fishermen were so afraid they ran and woke up the dear Lord.

And Jesus said, "Why are you so afraid?" As if He wished they would trust in Him and know that He would not let any harm come to them.

"Now, Bessie, the same kind Jesus is with papa on the big ocean, and we know He will take care of him."—The Shepherd's Arms.
