

THE PRAIRIES OF CANADA

An Open Door for the Gael

An account of how Canada was settled by the people of Scotland; of the opportunities that today await the people of the Highlands who come to Western Canada, - presented to the reader by

AILGHINN LA BHRUINN

I came from the shellful cave
From the West of the Long Island (Outer Hebrides)
The narrow cave of the high waves
That would cry out when the tide flowed.
