Choir Who Have Enlisted Are Remembered.

A very pleasant event took place last evening at the First Baptist Church, when four members of the choir who have donned the khaki, high esteem they are held in by their fellow members. The evening was a very enjoyable one throughout, and there was an excellent attendance of the choir and the music committee.

Mr. J. W. Widdup, chairman of the music committee, occupied the chair in a very efficient manner. chair in a very efficient manner. number of the choir took part in the program, and all joined heartily in several selections, including the Russian National Anthem, Rule Brittani etc. High praise was given Mr. Scho-field for the marked progress the choir has made during his term service, and there is every reason a believe that next fall and winter will see even finer work accomplished, as the choir is thoroughly united and entthusiasic under his leadership. Before refreshments were served, the Major Bowlby Explains Necessity of Purchase of Water Street Gore.

The secretary of the Board of Railway Commissioners of Canada, in a communication to the city clerk inquires why the city insists upon the pastor was asked to come to the platrailroad purchasing a strip of land on form and speak a few words to those the side of the road opposite the site of the new L. E. & N. station. Mayor Bowlby has replied to the query Their faithfulness to the choir giving reasons for such a demand. The freight traffic of both railways is down Water street (the proposed site their services were both emphasized Clarence Parson were presented with B. & H. radial line proposes to pass over Water St. by a level crossing. Water street, leading from Colborne street, forms an acute angle, round the apex of which the bulk of the traffic from Colborne street would be bliged to pass to get to the station. There are three factories on Water street across the canal, with the poslity of more in the near future. and unless the gore in question is acquired Water St. would become too ngested for traffic. These are some of the reasons why the city insists hat the railroad purchase the strip of land in question

Winnipeg,, Man., May 10-Thomas Kelly, head of the Winnipeg con-tracting firm of Thomas Kelly and Sons, arrived in Winnipeg at 8.35 this morning after an absence of almost a year, during which he fought the supreme court of the United States against an order for his extradition Canada. Kelly faces here charges of theft, receiving and obtaining money under false pretences, and perjury. On these counts indictments were returned against him by the grand jury at the recent assize court and on them it is expected he will be tried at the assizes early in June, when charges against Sir Rodmond when charges against Sir Rodmond Roblin, James H. Howden, George R. Coldwell and Lieut.-Col. R. M. Simpson, M.D., will be heard according to present plans All the charges arise out of the contracts for the construction of the Manitoba the construction of the Manitoba parliament buildings.

Kelly returned to Winnipeg with Police Commissioner McRae. He was taken at once to the office of R. A. Bonnar, chief of the crown counsel in the parliament buildings prosecutions, and later to the court house, where application for bail was to be made to justice Prendergast by his counsel. This was refused,
