LOSING GRIP ON THEIR MEN

Story of the Execution of Germany Officers by Soldiers Confirmed SURRENDER WISHED And He Refused to Give Up Stronghold Without Fight DESERTIONS MANY When Men are Captured No Attempt is Made to Punish Them

With the British Armies in France and Belgium, Oct. 24.—The consolidation of the positions won by the allies in Monday's attack was being rapidly completed to-day under a bright sun, which is doing some what the difficulties of the work in the morass-like ground. Active artillery fire marked the night in the region to the east and north of Ypres. The British big guns have never ceased to pour a devastating fire into the German positions along the Flanders battle-front, and the enemy has responded vigorously. Last night the Germans directed a heavy fire against the sector between the Ypres-Menin highway and the Ypres-Roulers railway, and also concentrated on Abraham heights, which are on the Gravenstafel ridge, southwest of Passchendaele. Shortly before dark last evening the enemy launched a counter-attack against the British to the south of Houtholst forest, near the junction with the French but this was repulsed with machine gun and rifle fire. Both the French and British were holding their new positions in this difficult territory on the edge of the forest strongly.

The report that British troops had found a German officer who had been executed by his own soldiers, the body having the hands bound behind the back, has been confirmed. The incident occurred at a redoubt south of Poelcapelle during the recent fighting. There were fourteen German soldiers and six officers holding this place. When the British found the dead officer, with five bullet wounds in his body. The reason for his execution was that the men desired to surrender and he refused to give up his stronghold without a struggle. This affair is another link tending to substantiate statements made by prisoners that the German officers commanding certain bodies of troops along the Flanders front are losing confidence in their men. There is no considerable deterioration in the morale of many of the German troops in this region. But the German fighting machine is recognized as still being a powerful organization.

INTERESTING LETTER

Is Sent By Mr. Robert Henry

Among the many letters received in connection with the Bell Memorial unveiling was the following: Geo. Haisly, Esq., Secretary Bell Telephone Memorial Association, Brantford, Ont. Dear Sir,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks, the receipt of your invitation to be present at the unveiling ceremonies and other dedication ceremonies in connection with the memorial of the invention of the telephone, the most notable event in the history of your city. The invention of the Bell Telephone was one of great interest to Brantford, the Dominion of Canada and the civilized world. I regret that I will be unable, owing to previous engagements, to be present. I may say that I was asked by the father of the great inventor, to procure authority from the Dominion Telegraph Co. to allow their telegraph poles to be used for the use of the wires to the corner leading to Tutela Heights, which I understand is getting the President of the Company to do. I was also invited to be present at a local test and heard voices in Brantford, when a guest at the cottage on Tutela Heights, as the Brantford guests heard our voices. Little did I think that occasion of the great results which were to follow. With best wishes, I am, Yours very truly, ROBERT HENRY.
