WOMEN AND DEAD THINGS.

Mr. G. Bernard Shaw, noted critic, playwright, author, and anything else he wants to be, has a notable letter in a recent issue of the London Times. He points out that men attending grand opera at Covent Garden, are forced, by the management to wear evening suits, if they occupy seats anywhere on the lower floors, and continues:

"At 9 o'clock (the opera began at 8) a lady came in, and sat down very conspicuously in my line of sight. She remained there until the beginning of the last act. I do not complain of her coming late and going early; on the contrary I wish she had come later and gone earlier. For this lady, who had very black hair, had stuck over her right ear the pitiable corpse of a large white bird, which looked exactly as if some one had killed it by stamping on its breast and then nailed it to the woman's temple, which was presumably of sufficient solidity to bear the operation. I am not, I hope, a morbidly squeamish person, but the spectacle sickened me. I presume that if I had presented myself at the doors with a dead snake around my neck, a collection of black beetles pinned to my shirt front, and a grouse in my hair, I should have been refused admission. Why then is a woman allowed to commit such a public outrage? Had the lady been refused admission, as she should have been, she would have soundly rated the tradesman who imposed the disgusting headress on her under the false pretence that 'the best people' wear such things, and withdraw her custom from him; and thus the root of the evil would be struck at; for your fashionable woman generally allows herself to be dressed according to the taste of a person whom she would not let sit down in her presence. I once in Drury Lane Theatre, sat behind a matinee hat decorated with the two wings of a seagull, artificially reddened at the joints so as to produce an illusion of being freshly plucked from a live bird. But even that lady stopped short of the whole seagull. Both ladies were evidently regarded by their neighbors as ridiculous and vulgar; but that was hardly enough when the offence is one which produces a sensation of physical sickness in persons of normal humane sensibility.

"I suggest to the Covent Garden authorities that if they feel bound to protect their subscribers against the danger of my shocking them with a blue tie, they are at least equally bound to protect me against the danger of a woman shocking me with a dead bird."

This desire of the daughters of Eve to wear dead things is certainly most extraordinary. Men don't do it, yet the members of the supposedly softer sex, seem to delight in disporting bodies or portions of bodies of birds, or animals. Wings or the entire corpses of the feathered tribe are often used by them as ornaments. In winter furs are worn around their necks with the heads of animals and the gleaming teeth displayed at the clasp. A new fad is said to be the use of snakes' bodies as belts, and so the list might be extended. Why should this be, especially upon the part of those members of the human race, who are supposed to be all tenderness and sensitiveness and humanity?

GERM DISEASES OF SUMMER

NO ONE NEED FEAR SICKNESS IF MI-O-NA IS USED.

It is the person with a weak stomach who first falls victim to the germ diseases of summer.

People with strong stomachs and natural digestion are ordinarily not subject to bowel troubles, diarrhoea, and other germ diseases that are so common and dangerous in the summer months.

A Mi-o-na tablet taken before each meal will give such health and strength to the weakest stomach that the whole system will become strong and well, and so clean and sweet that there will be no chance for disease germs to become active. Mi-o-na acts directly upon the whole digestive system, soothing and healing the inflamed stomach lining, strengthening the nerves of the solar-plexus, and building up good flesh, firm muscle, and perfect health.

A great many people imagine that their headaches, dizziness, heart burn, or general despondency and weakness is a sign of fatal illness, when the whole trouble is the direct result of a weak stomach and imperfect digestion. A 50 cent box of Mi-o-na tablets will show by the great gain in health that the stomach is the cause of the poor health, and that Mi-o-na is the only remedy that will drive out all weakness, debility, and disease.

Mi-o-na is so nearly infallible in curing the diseases resulting from a weakened stomach, excepting cancer of the stomach, that C. H. Gunn & Co. guarantee to refund the money should the remedy not give perfect satisfaction.

IS DIVORCED

Former Chathamite in the

First Wife Says He Would Have Been Digging Ditches Had It Not Been for Her—Attended Business College Here

One week ago Dr. Lonsdale, of Detroit, was divorced by his wife. On Thursday he married his housekeeper, Mrs. Nicholl, and sailed for Europe. His former wife says: "I supported him; for many years I supported him; but for me he would be digging ditches to-day, and this is my reward. We came to America from England in 1855," she continued with tears in her eyes. "We settled in Chatham, Ont. There wasn't anything that my husband could do, and I worked and slaved and sent him to a business college. We soon moved to Minneapolis, where a friend advised him to study medicine. So he went to the medical college of the University of Minnesota and I supported him by conducting a training school.

"We remained there only a year, and then moved to Omaha, where he entered another medical college, and I, of course, had to support both him and myself. He got into trouble with the professors, and then wanted me to send him to the Electrical College at St. Louis. So I borrowed the money and we moved to St. Louis, where he finally graduated."

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY—
THE BEST IN EXISTENCE.

T. M. Wood, manager of the White County News, Beebe, Ark., is a representative southern business man who does not hesitate in expressing his good opinion of a well known remedy. He says, "It gives me pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy, having used it myself and in my family with the best results. In fact I believe it to be the best remedy of the kind in existence." Sold by All Druggists.

ONLY FOR ORNAMENT

A good story is travelling at the expense of a local real estate agent. It seems that he was eagerly and eloquently outlining the advantages of a certain house for sale to a prospective lady purchaser.

"My one objection to the place is that it has no bath room," was the response. "I want a bath in the house."

"Oh, that's nothing," replied the enterprising agent. "Why, I have one in my house and I don't use it once a year."

Quarrel Ends Fatally.

Toronto, July 26.—As a sequence to a quarrel with his wife, William J. Poggensee, aged 27, of 97 Hanbury avenue, hanged himself yesterday morning. His wife discovered the body when she returned to the house for her belongings.

Minard's Liniment Cures Dandruff

When Governor Simcoe laid the foundation of London, Ontario, one hundred years ago he knew it would grow to be a great city, but had not thought of the Western Fair.

The Western Fair gives the people of this country an excellent opportunity for a pleasant outing at a minimum of cost, and at the same time develops their store of practical and useful knowledge.

Its educational features have always been carefully fostered by the Directors. This year several important improvements of an instructive nature have been added.

The celebrated girl Highland Regiment Band will give three concerts daily during the exhibition. The entertainment department will be better than ever, and will include leaping the gap in mid air on a steam automobile.

Here is a suggestion which may be of use to farmers and gardeners at this season. The Philadelphia Bulletin says: "The farmer's scarecrows were all garbed in blue. 'A blue scarecrow' said the man, 'does more good than ten ordinary ones, for birds hate and fear blue as you and I hate and fear typhoid and consumption.' A professor pointed out to me that blue was the thing for birds. At first I was unbelieving, but I experimented, and found that professor to be right."

WORLD OF SPORT

BOWLING

In the London tournament yesterday both Chatham rinks went down to defeat. Dr. Bray's rink succumbed to Dr. Robertson's Stratford rink in the first round by the score of 4-18. In the second round Wilson Taylor's rink met defeat at the hands of the Stratford rink by E. W. Roy, the score being 12-14.

Mr. Allen also stated that St. Thomas and Chatham stood a good chance of landing the junior championship.—London Free Press.

CRICKET

Pittsburg, July 26.—The defeat of Detroit to-day by the Zingari team, of Pittsburg, 120 to 99, came in the nature of a surprise, and prevented Detroit clinching the cup being played for in the cricket tournament. The score to date stands: Detroit, 2 wins; Pittsburg, Zingari, Chicago and Cleveland, 1 each.

In the match to-day the wicket was good and the fielding and bowling on both sides was keen. Taylor, for Zingari, with 52 runs, and H. Johnson, for Detroit, with 24 runs, made the top scores for their respective teams.

BLENNHEIM

July 27.—A large number of men are working on the railway erecting a coal hoist midway between the Blenheim station and the diamond.

Three young boys, Ralph and Laird Story and Wilfrid Steward, son of John Steward, wandered from home on Tuesday and went to Cedar Springs. From there they walked to Erieau via the lake shore and slept on the floor of the pavilion. A search was made for them the greater part of the night. In the morning (Wednesday) John Steward, Rev. Mr. McLean and F. Boerner went to Erieau, and after they had passed the Shrewsbury station saw the tired trio of boys heading for home. The gentlemen had to go to Erieau and then got a hand car, and when they reached the boys they were not far from home. They were a tired lot and had not enjoyed their trip much, especially sleeping on the floor.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Shillington and family are holidaying at the cottage at Erieau.

Chas. Ordish, of Toledo, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mallory, Sr., Lake View House, Erieau.
