Leo Barry, 419 Catharine street north, was summoned yesterday on the charge of taking a horse from Frank Campbell, who lives at John and Wood streets. He did hot appear and his case was allowed to stand till he can be served with another summons, as he had not been served personally the first time. Barry is alleged to have taken Campbell's horse for a long drive about a month ago without first asking permission to have it out. Campbell chased him some distance, caught him, and took the horse away from him. Why the prosecution was delayed for so long the police do not know.

Fred Weaver called at the police station to ask for lodgings last night. He was charged with vagrancy, as he had also been there the night before. He told the court that he had a home, but could not explain why he did not go to it. "Your tendency is to go to the police station when you get drunk," remarked the Magistrate, and he told Weaver to go and not show up again. Thomas H. Williams was arrested by Leo Barry, 419 Catharine street north

The number of times that Sarah Finn The number of times that Sarah Finn has been in Police Court are innumerable. She was arrested last night lying at a doorway browsing on a bouquet of shamrocks, and, to put it mildly in police language, Sarah was "soused." "Guilty," she said, and "Two dollars or five days," said the Magistrate, and Sarah smiled as she pulled $2 out of her purse and passed it over to the officer.

E. J. McGrath, 362 James street north, was fined $2 for obstructing James street, near Stuart, on Tuesday night. He left a horse and wagon standing there too long.

R. train despatcher at Medicine Hat, and her two children, a boy of 13 and a girl of 10—Mr. Nixon's whole family. Mr. Nixon has been with the C. P. R. for some years, and was sent to Medicine Hat last fall. He had arranged to return to Montreal to take his family out to their new home in the west, and his wife and children were sitting in the ladies' waiting room at Montreal watching for his arrival, when the Boston express crashed in upon them. All three were killed. Mr. Nixon, arriving a few minutes later, was made aware of the fearful calamity that had overtaken his loved ones.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, March 18.-The Municipal Law Committee reported favorably the bill of Mr. Preston, of Durham, to allow municipalities to grant aid to neighboring townships for road building, even when such townships are not immediately adjoining such municipality. Mr. Hanna was not very enthusiastic over the idea, but the committee evidently wanted it. It will undergo a slight amendment at the end before being again considered

w. J. McNaught, M. P. P., will very shortly introduce a bill in amendment to the Railway Act, which will allow the conductors of street cars to remain in-side of their cars except when backing, switching or doing something that ac-tually requires their presence outside.

TO DIG FOR MILLIONS.

New York, March 18.—"Ten feet below a two million pounds lie buried," an inscription said to have been found years ago upon a stone dug from a depth of 100 feet out of a hole on Oak Island in Mahone Bay, Nova Scotia, is the magnet that has attracted the attention of H. L. Bowderin, of this city, and caused him to sign a contract with the owners of the island under which he will literally tear up the earth there in quest of hidden fortune. He expects to begin his operations next May.

"and have known the Kinrades through Mr. Kinrade's connection with the Cannon Street School."

She did not know any of the family personally, but she knew them to see. She gives a very accurate description of the clothing worn that afternoon by Ethel Kinrade, except that the murdered girl wore a brown hat, and Mrs. Rudd speaks of her having a black and white hat. Mrs. Rudd is so positive of the identification that she will not hesitate to go on the witness stand to-morrow night and swear to it.

This story, if substantiated, would bear out the one told by Charles Hossack, who lives west of the Kinrade home on Herkimer street. "That is right," said Mr. Houson, who came along just then.

The Kinrade family took advantage of the fine weather this morning, and it is understood all went out for a walk. Mr. Kinrade, the father, walked through the business section of the city, but the other members of the family went to the outskirts. After Montrose Wright and the family solicitor left the police and the family solicitor left the polici office this morning Detective Bleakley was asked if Mr. Wright would be call d as a witness.

"He certainly will," was the reply. "He certainly will," was the reply.

New witnesses the police have discovered will be able to fix the time that Mrs. Kinrade left the house. Miss Mc-Lellan, 94 Herkimer street, told the police she saw Mrs. Kinrade walking on Herkimer street between 3.15 and 3.20 the afternoon of the murder. She is able to place the time, as she was waiting for a friend who was to have met her at 3.15, but who was late.

There is no likelihood of the inquest being completed to-morrow. It is also improbable that it will be adjourned to Monday afternoon, as many of the store-keepers refuse to work on the jury before 8 p. m.

AT NIAGARA FALLS.

A Niagara Falls, N. Y., special says: "Canadian detectives were in the city to-day in search for a young man who is believed to be able to throw some light on the murder of Ethel Kinrade in Hamilton. He was not, located, however. It is understood that he was on intimate terms with both Ethel and Florence Kinrade before the tragedy, and had several times been at their home, calling on the younger sister. What further connection he had with the case or what his name is could not be learned to-night. However, it is understood that the man so much wanted by the Canadian authorities at present was a railroad employee, and that he is now in Buffalo."
