"We invite the especial attention of our readers to the names recorded upon this Petition which will be found to include a very large proportion of the wealth, industry, respectability and intelligence of the Metropolis. They furnish the most conclusive answer to the reckless and unfounded assertion that the city of Halifax is heart and soul Confederate—the triumphant evidence that the capital, like the country at large, is opposed to revolutionary changes which, if unsanctioned by the people, must lead to widespread dissatisfaction among a hitherto happy and leyal people. The Petition will speak for itself. All that is asked is the exercise of our rights as British subjects, which, unless our brethren on the other side of the Allevic have ceased to be English, cannot be refused."
