Natural Gas is Worth Saving

Forecast—Northeast winds, light rain. Cool today and Saturday.

Natural gas is the cheapest fuel.

To return to coal for cooking and heating would be a hardship.

But you will have to when the natural gas supply is all used up.

Be careful and economical in your use of it, and the supply will last so much longer.

ALTHOUGH NATURAL GAS IS CHEAP, DO NOT WASTE IT—THE SUPPLY IS NOT EVERLASTING.

A CLEVER COMEDY

Norman Hackett, to be seen here May 12 in support of Miss Elsa Ryan in "Tea for Three" is popularly known in this vicinity for his appearances in "Glassmates", "The Typhoon", "Ban Brummel", "The Knife", "Love's Lightning" and also as a member of the Southern-Maritime organization. Mr. Hackett plays the bachelor friend in "Tea for Three" a role of unusual length and much genial humor. It is said by those who have seen the performance in Toronto and Montreal that Mr. Hackett is most expert in his interpretation of a purely comedy part.

THREE FAMOUS CHARACTERS

Old Bill, Bert and Alf, the three heroes of Captain Bruce Bairnsfather's play "The Better 'Ole" which will be at the Grand on Saturday, May 10, matinee and evening, have aroused the enthusiasm of many famous writers, but one of the most eloquent tributes that has been paid by any American writer is that of Mrs. Mary Fenton Roberts, editor of The Touchstone Magazine, who finds in these modern soldiers three of the qualities that have made England the stalwart nation that she is today.

"It is quite possible that at first glance we may not realize the splendid attributes that underlie the humor of these three soldiers present," writes Mrs. Roberts. "We may see them only as rough members of the British nation for whom beef and beer are the standard requirements of daily existence; but in time we are bound to respond to Bruce Bairnsfather's understanding of these men. He gives us his keen vision, his instinctive grasp of character and magic pen, a real comprehension of these men, the 'sold' of the British Empire."

"Most eloquently does he represent the men who have thrown down pick-

DERELICTS

(New York Times)

Tempests may harry and blast, Fogbanks delude and bewilder; Shattered are rudder and mast, Was the Pilot at fault, or the Builder?

Here, in the calms of the park, Tossed from the storm of the city Drifting from daylight to dark, These, whom ye scoff at or pity, Some time were soul-dowered men, Warm with Prometheus fire; May they be man-like again? Shall they awake and aspire?

Weakened by hunger and care, Fought by the ways they have trodden, Palsied by drink and despair, Vacant-eyed, aimless and sodden.

Lounged the beggarly throng, Pallid and squalid and kattered, Why are ye gallant and strong? Why are they shipwrecked and shattered?

Was it the wave or the rock, Was it a crime or a blunder, Made the good vessel a mock, Wracking her keelson asunder?

Raise them from squalor and shame; Pity, but do not condemn them, Dare ye apporportion the blame? Are ye divine, to condemn them?

Tempest may harry and blast, Fogbanks betray and bewilder, Shattered are rudder and mast, Was the Pilot at fault, or the Builder?
