Cove, and the Euphrates with passengers could not get in there to-day but had to go back to Bell Island.

The s.s. Lintrose, which is now on her way to this port, passed Dover at 9 p.m. Sunday, according to a message by the Reid Nfld. Co., yesterday. She met so much sea and wind that the pilot could not be landed and will perforce come here a passenger on the ship if he is not landed at the Lizard-Point. The Lintrose is making a good 14 knots and should be here Sunday.

IN THE MAIN PATCH.

All the Steel Ships in the Fat Excepting the Sagona

Wooden Ships Also There, but the Ranger and Kite are Not Reported--Will be Quick Trip.

Yesterday forenoon Job Bros. had the following message from the Magdalen Islands:

"Steamer Seal about 40 miles west of Channel; reports the Neptune and Southern Cross out of sight west of here; had westerly and southerly winds all last week, and heavy rain yesterday; to-day should open the ice considerably; no sign of seals except a few in the water at Grosse Island; telegraph communication beyond the island interrupted; Neptune's wireless reported not working."

At 4 p.m. a wireless was received from the S. S. Nascope, as follows:

"All the ships struck the main patch this morning, except the Ranger, Sagona and Kite; all the crews are at work; seals very thick; seals averaging about forty pounds; will be a quick trip; now a hundred miles N. E. by N. from the Funks; ship working splendidly and everything O. K."

Mr. R. C. Smith, Superintendent A. A. Tel. Company, received the following message to-day:

CAPE RAY To-day.
Wind N.W., blowing a gale and squally. Heavy close packed ice everywhere. A sealing steamer reported about 20 miles off Cape St. George, jammed.

MESSAGE FROM CAPT. A. KEAN.

"This morning, Mr. J. S. Munn had a wireless from Capt. A. Kean. The tenor of the message was similar to the one received from the Nascope. The Stephano was then 100 miles northeast of the Funks and had 13,000 killed, three thousand stowed and ten thousand penned; Florizel, three thousand stowed and seven thousand penned."

New Trestle Bridge.

Arrangements having been concluded by the Council yesterday, the work of erecting a new trestle bridge where the Long Bridge formerly existed began at 4 p.m. It will be 26 feet wide, and the poles are being driven down to-day by a steam pile driver, while a number of the Reid Nfld. Co's men are at work on it. Though the structure will be only temporary (as it will be replaced with a steel draw bridge) it will be solid and capable of taking the heavy

The Telegram is still keeping up its good record for finding lost articles. It found a valuable merchandise pipe for Mr. K. Parsons, of Bishop & Sons grocery, Friday last. The paper was hardly on the street when the loss was read by the finder who restored the pipe to the overjoyed owner and received a well-merited reward. The Telegram gets there every time.

BRUCE PASSENGERS.—The s.s. Bruce arrived at Port aux Basques at noon, to-day. She had heavy ice from Sydney which place she left last night. Her passengers were: Capt. H. J. Bull, W. D. McDonald, W. Break, J. L. Slatery, J. S. McIsaac, A. R. Kelly, E. Boone, C. A. Stewart, Rev. P. Pihault, C. Clarke, Miss B. Penney, G. Gillam.

The work of Messrs. Kent and Clift in the Assembly is "jarring" Patsy as well as "knocking" his master, Morris, and both are hurt over the truthful accounts of the Opposition's criticisms which appear daily in the Telegram. When Patsy talks of a "wild-eyed enthusiast" perhaps he has "Topsy" in his mind's eye. The poor "Little Jap" is now such a political "has been" that he is resting quietly on the scrap heap.

The lad Martin, who was recently convicted and sentenced to a month's imprisonment for obtaining money under false pretences, was to-day transferred from the Penitentiary to the Police Station to await another trial, as he now stands charged with complicity in a gas metre theft, committed recently by himself and three other boys, who were sentenced last month to six months imprisonment each. Martin will be tried before Judge Knight this afternoon. He has already confessed his guilt to the police.
